STATE OF LOUISIANA PARISH OF GRANT

I, J. H. McNEELY, President, and I, EARL ROBERTS, Cashier, of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 4th day of January, 1912.
JAS. J. O'QUINN,
Clerk of Court and Ex-Officio Notary Public.

The amount of rainfall in Louisiana for December was more than three times as much as fell during any month of 1911, and was the greatest of any month for about twenty years. The consequence is that the roads of the State are probably in a worse condition than they have been for a score of years.

Strayed or Stolen.

One black cow with white in fore-top, crumpled horns, with one horn slipped off, marked in left ear with crop and two splits, and in right ear with split and upperbit and underbit. Had with her a brindle male calf with small bell on, not marked. Will pay all charges to person taking them up and notifying me.

Death in Roaring Fire.

may not result from the work of fire bugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Buckley's Arnica Salve, the quickest, surest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It soothes inflammation. It kills pain. It coolsers at 1 heal. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at all Druggists.

Not Funny, But Malicious and Silly.

On New Year's Eve a lot of the Colfax boys set in to "ring out the old year and ring in the new," but they did a lot of rowdy and malicious tricks that were very much to their discredit. They broke a big valuable window glass in one of Mr. J. A. Williams' stores on Railroad Avenue, and tore up a number of the foot bridges at the street crossings. Those chaps evidently don't appreciate the difference between things that are funny and things malicious and silly. They should know that it ain't funny to mock and laugh at a driving idiot, nor to kick a crutch from under a cripple.

Charles Denton, who was lately pardoned from a life time sentence in the State penitentiary, on conviction for the murder of R. H. Williamson, arrived home Christmas Eve. Mrs. Savilla Roberts, on whose sole testimony he was convicted, swore he gave her the poison which she put in the victim's coffee. She now swears Denton had nothing to do with the murder, that her testimony at Denton's trial was false, and that she convicted him because she was in love with him and wanted him to go to the pen with her, and also because Denton's sisters laughed at her when she was convicted.

A farewell ball to the old year was given at Hotel LeSage on Friday night, Dec. 29, and a large number of our belles and beaux were present. Senator Foster looked in the ballroom at 10:30 o'clock, and decided we had about as pretty a bevy of girls as any town of our size can show. He didn't have but a few minutes to catch his train, but he couldn't resist the temptation to edge inside the door and talk to one of the girls just a little.

Mrs. A. E. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. For sale by all dealers.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I, Henry Butler, convict, am applying to the Board of Pardons and the Governor of the State for a full pardon.
