Not a great many at a time, but each of importance from the fashion standpoint
And not many of a kind, in some cases only one. Grace and distinctiveness is the distinguishing note from first to last

In the showing are Charmeuse, Foulards, Batine, Zephyr and novelty weaves made in fashion's latest models.
Jaunty new styles in skirts and shirt waists with the approved style stamp of 1913 are among the late arrivals.

A Word About Our Millinery

Creations for early spring are now on exhibit.
Style demands Oriental hats, including the Indian Princess. Question mark effects as a trimming is very effective and chic.

Voguish small models, many of upturned brim, others straight and elongated with the deep "flute" that is the very newest, smartest style feature of the 1913 spring models.

We want every woman interested in new millinery—and that means all women—to see our charming new models.
A becoming shape is here for all types.

Spring Silks 1913

New Foulards, new Charmeuse, new Paris Crepe, new Brocades and Messalines are fashion's favored spring weaves. Here you have a variety for choice.
Our Foulards and Brocades come in dress lengths, one of a kind, therefore you get individuality.

Our shop by mail system, with free delivery by Parcel Post, should make spring shopping a pleasure to out-of-town patrons
Samples cheerfully submitted and orders given prompt attention. A trial will convince you

Hogs, or no hogs; that's the question the people of ward one are called to vote upon at the election to-day, Saturday, Feb. 15. If all those who signed the petition to get the police jury to pass a law prohibiting hogs to run at large will turn out and vote, that will settle the vexed question.

The "Health Exhibit Train" of the Louisiana State Board of Health reached Colfax about schedule time, 11 a. m. Feb. 14, and quite a large crowd of citizens and school children were on hand to see it. Miss Agnes Morris and Dr. Porter, in charge of the special exhibits and demonstrations, gave the Chronicle an appreciated call about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and informed us that arrangements for a free moving picture show at night were being made. We understand the picture show is to be given at "The Gem" theatre.

Mrs. Long Awarded $300 Damages.
The damage suit of Mrs. Lillian Long against Dr. J. V. Bonnette, in which she sued for $25,000 damages, took up eight days of the time of district court in Alexandria, and resulted in the jury awarding Mrs. Long $300 damages. Both parties to the suit have appealed to the Supreme Court. The minutes of the court for Friday, Feb. 7, contain the following note of entry as to the case, viz:

Mrs. Lillian Long vs. Dr. J. V. Bonnette. Judgment read and signed in open court. Motions for new trial filed by counsel for both plaintiff and defendant and overruled. Motion for appeal prayed for by counsel for plaintiff and defendant and granted to both in open court, returnable to the Supreme Court of Louisiana at New Orleans on Monday, April 17, 1913. Devolutive appeal bonds fixed at $700 each, suspensive according to law.

"Love's Labor" Not Lost.

"Since it has developed that Leland Walker did not murder Nelson McManus over in LaSalle parish, the esteemed Jena Times finds that its laborer editorializing criticising the grand jury for failure to indict Walker was a case of 'love's labor lost.'"—Colfax Chronicle.

Our confrere is, like Walker, just a little off his base. The Times finds that it was not a case of "love's labor lost," but just the contrary. The criticism was an honest one, based on good legal grounds, and we believe will bear fruit, and then, too, it will serve the purpose of causing the people of LaSalle to view with suspicion and alarm any and all statements coming from citizens of Grant parish, unless there is a full supply of salt on hand to go with it.—Jena Times.

The Times seems to think it is all right to imprison, indict and try a man for a crime that was never committed, and when twitted for its error of judgment, stands by its guns manfully, and seeks to justify the wrong that was done an innocent young man. It may be that our neighbor thought he had "good legal grounds" for his contention, but the fact remains that there was "nothing in it" from start to finish. This reminds us very strongly of the good old Latin adage, that "it is easy to add to things which have once been invented," and by this same rule our neighbor finds it easy to believe that good may come of the wrong and evil that he advocated. We are happy to think the people of Grant parish would have proceeded with a little more caution and show of justice in this matter, and that they will hereafter be disposed to accept the honest criticisms and suggestions of our neighbor cum grano salis before taking much stock in his wild assumption that he stands on "good legal grounds."

District Court Proceedings.

Judge W. F. Blackman and District Attorney Jno. R. Hunter were on hand last Monday morning to open court and set cases for trial for the April term of court. Attorneys present were, John Overton, Carter and Ralph Thornton, of Alexandria, and the following members of our local bar: John B. Roberts, Jno. A. Williams, C. H. McCain and Joel M. Durham. Motions of counsel were submitted and trial of cases gone into, the business for the week up to Thursday afternoon being as follows:

A number of defaults entered. The case of Mrs. A. A. Barnes vs. C. L. Arbutnot occupied the time of the court for about two days, quite a number of witnesses being present, and after trial the case was taken under advisement by the Judge.

Alexandria Coöperage Co. vs. Pierre Johnette, compromise judgment decreeing plaintiff to be the owner of the timber in controversy.

H. T. Cotham & Co. vs. T. M. Bradford, on motion of counsel for plaintiff, suit dismissed at plaintiff's costs.

Mrs. A. A. Fletcher vs. R. W. Fletcher, confessional judgment proved up.

Geo. D. Witt Shoe Co. vs. Wm. Frazier, et als, compromise judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

Will Dean, plead guilty to larceny, sentenced to serve thirty days on the public roads.

Carroll Gray and Nick Ursery, plead guilty to maiming cattle, fined $10 and costs and sentenced to serve 50 days in jail, and in default of payment of fine to serve 10 days additional, subject to work the public roads.

Estate of Levin Smith, will probated. Bank of Pollock vs. J. M. and S. L. Durham, judgment for plaintiff.

Tildon Co. vs. C. C. Groves, judgment for plaintiff.

R. E. McKnight vs. J. M. Durham, judgment for plaintiff.

Thos. Biddle vs. J. M. Durham, judgment for plaintiff.

C. W. Calhoun vs. J. M. Durham, judgment for plaintiff.

About all matters that could be tried this term of court were finished up at noon Friday, and the term was adjourned sine die, and the Judge and visiting attorneys went to dinner, expecting to catch the 1:45 afternoon train for Alexandria.

Grant Parish and Demonstration Work.

The Shreveport Journal, in commenting on our editorial of two weeks ago, "Grant Parish Discredited Abroad," reproduces our comments and adds the following:

"There is no denying the fact that Grant parish has suffered from the publicity given its failure to keep the farm demonstration work going. But it has suffered more from the loss of the thing, itself. We hope the police jurors of Grant parish may come to see the matter as pointed out by the Chronicle, and that the farmers may have the benefit of this expert advice and assistance in their work. If we remember correctly, Grant parish farmers made big money out of the co-operation farm demonstration work last year—a direct result. We have not the figures at hand at the moment, but if our memory serves us correctly, those Grant parish farmers who took advantage of the modern agricultural methods employed by the farm demonstration workers showed a return of several thousands of dollars profit over and above what they have been in the habit of receiving for their crops on the same amount of land. Everywhere the farm demonstration methods have been tried similar good results have been obtained. Grant parish cannot afford to deprive her farmers of this most valuable aid."

The voters of ward one should all turn out to-day (Saturday) and vote for the adoption of an ordinance prohibiting hogs from running at large in the ward. It is a shame to allow $75 worth of long-nosed rooters to destroy a thousand dollars worth of good roads every year. They should be kept under fence.

Echoes from Opelousas

Opelousas Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns? The generous statement of this Opelousas resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Mrs. T. C. Cochere, Landry St., Opelousas, La., says: "A member of my family received splendid results from Doan's Kidney Pills. He was troubled for some time by irregular action of the kidneys, accompanied by pain in his back. These troubles, I believe, were brought on by hard work and heavy lifting. The use of three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills was so effective that he was given a very high opinion of this remedy. He was relieved of the pains in his back and his kidneys were restored to their normal condition. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Titanic Claims $8,027,274.

New York, Feb. 11.—Claims aggregating $8,027,274 for the loss of life, property and for personal injuries sustained in the Titanic disaster last April have been filed against the White Star Line, owners of the ill fated steamship. This was the last day on which these claims could be filed under a ruling of the admiralty branch of the Federal District Court, unless an application to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals is granted extending the time.

In event of the limitation of liability being granted the claimants will be entitled only to a pro rata share in the fund of $96,000 turned over to the Admiralty Court from the salvage on lifeboats.

The largest single death claim is that made by Mrs. Henry B. Harris, widow of the theatrical manager, who asks for $1,000,000.

Do You Know How This Tea Came to Be?

- ¶ First a price was fixed, below which no really GOOD tea can be sold.
- ¶ Next, all teas selling at this price were cupped and tested for quality.
- ¶ Finally, a blend was perfected, at least 25 per cent better than the best of these tested teas, and the result was called to match the superb coffee by that name.

¶ It is now offered to you with every assurance that it is, indeed, a really fine tea at quite a moderate price and you can get it as well as VOTAN COFFEE of only one dealer in this town; viz.
