

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A Pure, Grape Cream Tartar Baking Powder

Royal Baking Powder improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food.

The Colfax Chronicle

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1913.

Miss Bina Johnston, of Pineville, is the guest of Miss Ellen Price this week.

J. W. Duncan Co. this week received a car load of first-class cypress shingles for sale.

Miss Kandy Epps, of Corinth, Miss., arrived last Sunday night, and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Job.

Mrs. N. P. Barton returned Thursday night from Texarkana, after an enjoyable summer outing trip.

Mrs. P. A. Dean returned from Pollock last Saturday after visiting friends for about a week in east Grant parish.

Miss Dewey LaCroix returned home last Sunday after a visit of three weeks to her sister, Mrs. Chas. Nunnally, of Alexandria.

Mrs. E. S. Murrell and children left last Saturday, and have been visiting relatives and friends this week in the vicinity of Bentley.

Attorney Wm. Wallace, of Winnfield, spent last Wednesday in Colfax, in consultation with a number of clients about matters of litigation.

Best and Cheapest.
For constipation biliousness, headache, Royaline Liver Regulator is best and cheapest. 15 cents. Money back plan.—Adv.

Misses Florine and Josephine Burke, of Henry, La., arrived last Friday, and will be the guests of Mrs. D. M. McKnight for about two weeks.

Attorney J. H. Mathews, of Winnfield, accompanied by his little son, Edward, was in Colfax several hours on Thursday, looking after legal matters.

Mr. J. L. Morintini, of Derry, accompanied by little Robert Miller, spent Thursday in Colfax attending to business and shaking hands with his numerous friends.

Mrs. C. J. Bullard and children returned to Shreveport Thursday afternoon after a visit of a week to her sisters, Mrs. A. M. Goodwyn and Mrs. S. H. Irwin.

Mrs. D. M. McKnight entertained a large crowd of her friends at rook last Wednesday night, in honor of her guests, Misses Florine and Josephine Burke, of Henry, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Jac Bloch, who are taking in several cities of the north on a summer outing of three weeks, dropped a card from New York City saying they are having a great time.

Mrs. Thos. P. McKnight has had as guests this week Mrs. Helen K. Brian, of Fort Worth, Texas, Mrs. Lilly A. Kelly and Mrs. Dan W. Kelly and children, of Winnfield, and Mrs. Helen Williams, of Natchitoches, so the McKnight "Mirabeau" home place has had quite a house party for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Higginbotham, owners of a fine plantation near Mer Rouge, have donated $4000 for the purpose of building the superintendent a home adjoining the Methodist Orphanage at Ruston. They give it as a memorial in the name of their little daughter, Edith, accidentally killed on Jan. 30, last.

Miss Betta Aaron, of Pineville, who was spending the week on a visit to Miss Alice McNeely, was called home last Monday evening, owing to the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Foisy Aaron, wife of Mayor Mike Aaron, of Pineville. Her death came in two hours after the birth of a girl baby, who was immediately christened "Mary" with her mother's name.

A protracted meeting is being held this week at the Baptist church, Rev. H. B. Mercer, the preacher in charge, conducting the services, assisted in the singing by his brother, Mr. Lafayette Mercer, who is a fine organist as well as a good singer. Up to date six members have been received by letter and one candidate for baptism. Let all attend who enjoy good preaching and good singing.

The Camp Meeting at Ebenezer.
The editor had the pleasure of spending last Saturday and Sunday on Ebenezer camp ground. This famous camp ground still holds great favor after its eighteen years existence, and last Sunday was a record day for attendance, fully three thousand people being on the grounds. The six or seven cool springs encircling the ground like a horse shoe were in great demand, and their clear waters quenched the thirst of many a visitor. Mr. C. C. Wilson kept the hotel, and he had all he could do with a corps of assistants to provide excellent food for the hungry. A dozen ice cream booths were also kept busy dispensing ice cream, lemonade, soda water and coca cola to the thirsty crowd. The thirty odd tenting houses on the grounds were all full to overflowing.

Revs. Andrew Johnson and Frank E. Reynolds did the preaching, and it is well worth while to make a trip of a hundred miles to hear either of them. Hamp Sewell, the noted singer and composer, led the singing, and his wonderful gift of song did no little to stir up the zeal of christians and lead sinners to repentance.

Colfax Eastern Star Visits Pollock.
In response to an invitation from Pollock Eastern Star, on Wednesday night several members of Olive Chapter at Colfax visited Pollock, in order to meet with the Eastern Star Lodge of that place, and to partake of a banquet on that occasion. The party consisted of Mrs. C. W. LaCroix, Worthy Matron of Olive Chapter; Mrs. R. S. Cameron, Mrs. Van P. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Simmons, and Messrs. L. O. Clinton and J. M. Straghn. They left Colfax about six o'clock in the evening in a couple of automobiles, and after a pleasant run over the model road in the cool of the evening arrived at Pollock about 7:20, returning home after midnight in the small hours of the morning, all greatly pleased with their reception and entertainment.

Fine Tomatoes Canned at Home.
Mr. J. W. O'Quinn, who lives two miles south of Colfax, at McNeely spur, brought us a can of tomatoes that were put up by his daughter, Miss Grace, which is one of the most excellent and ornamental samples we have seen put up in this parish. The handsome lithographed label on the can bears the bright red picture of a tomato in vignette, and the words "Honest Tomatoes" packed by J. W. O'Quinn, Colfax, La., and altogether it is as handsome a can as will be found in any of the stores, and we feel sure the fruit is fresher and better than most of the store goods.

Prof. DeMoss, the new principal of the Colfax high school, spent several hours here last Tuesday, unpacking his household goods and placing his furniture in the old Richardson residence, which has been greatly renovated for him. A new roof has been put on, new floors and ceilings have been put in, the rooms papered, new siding put on, the house given a coat of paint outside, besides paint in the hallway, which has been closed in with a door and transom lights, and altogether it makes quite an attractive residence.

Last Monday Mr. W. O. Harrison and daughters, Misses Myrtle and Bertha, came down from Montgomery, over the model road, to try a fine new 1913 model Reo automobile he has just bought, all returning home that evening. Miss Myrtle became so expert in the management of the machine on the trip that they made the same trip over the next day in order to give her another day's practice.

The Ruston Industrial School.
Mr. W. R. Jones, of Montgomery, returned on last Saturday from a trip to Ruston, where he had been to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Industrial School, of which he is a member. He is pleased to report that the school is in the hands of a good manager, and that it is in fine fix to do excellent work with the numerous pupils that attend this institution.

Sheriff A. B. Perkins and wife left on Saturday, July 26, and after an absence of a week returned home on Sunday, August 3. They made the grand rounds of about ten parishes in Louisiana, besides running up into Chicot county, Ark., for one day. They first visited the old home places of their youth in Winn parish, afterward visiting relatives and friends in West Carroll, Madison and other parishes.

Paint?
There are two good reasons for painting often enough or even too often. One, to look prosperous; two, to be so. Nothing does one more credit or gives one more credit than paint, supplemented of course by what goes with it, and paint costs nothing. True, the first cost is $5 or $6 a gallon put on; but it saves more than that in the property; saves it from slow going down—not always slow—it drops with a jump when water gets in on wood and iron. Dry wood and iron cost nothing, kept dry by paint. Better paint when it needs it. Paint never goes down in the sense of being more profitable next year. DEVOE Valley Drug Store sells it.—Adv.

Mrs. Sullivan Hostess of the "As You Like It Club."

The doors of the pretty new home of Mrs. J. P. Sullivan were thrown open in hospitality and welcome to a number of her friends Thursday afternoon when she entertained the "As You Like It" Club. Six games of rook were played during the afternoon. Miss Ruby O'Neal and Miss Beatrice Dunn gave many beautiful selections on the piano while the games progressed. A very clever contest, the answers being the names of nuts, was indulged in and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Lurry and Mrs. Earl Roberts tied for the club prize, Mrs. Lurry winning a handsome sugar spoon. Miss Mabel Taguino captured the guest prize, a beautiful sugar bowl and cream pitcher. Delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and fruit punch were served by the hostess assisted by Misses Ruby O'Neal, Mabel Taguino, Beatrice Dunn and Corinne Wells.

The following were present: Mesdames Bourg, Blackwood, Duncan, La-Croix, Lurry, R. E. McKnight, J. C. McKnight, D. M. McKnight, Howard McNeely, Earl Roberts, J. E. Swafford, Tooraen, Taylor, Woodal, Jones and Misses Mabel Taguino, Corinne Wells, Beatrice Dunn, Ruby O'Neal. Mrs. J. E. Swafford will entertain Thursday afternoon, August 14, 1913.

Court, Grant Ph., La.

Colfax Knights of Maccabees.
Clover Leaf Tent of Maccabees at Colfax was visited on last Tuesday evening by M. J. Bulger, Supreme State Commander, accompanied by Mr. H. J. Rush, of Alexandria, and after a lecture on the principles of the order, the tenters "got together" in fine style at a spread of refreshments. Commander Bulger was also in Pollock on Monday night, Aug. 4, and held a special review and admitted twenty new members to Clear Creek Tent No. 77, and made an address on "Fraternity."

Married on the Camp Ground.
On Sunday, August 3, 1913, Mr. C. L. Lang and Miss Immogene Collins were united in marriage at Ebenezer camp ground, Grant parish, La., Rev. E. L. Cargill officiating. Mr. Lang is the son of our well known fellow citizen, J. M. Lang, of Verda, and he is employed as bookkeeper by the Waters-Pierce Oil Co., of Alexandria. The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. W. Collins, of Verda. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left to catch the train for Alexandria, where they will make their future home.

The First Boll of Open Cotton.
Mr. H. A. Pardue, who lives in the hills east of Colfax, on Monday, August 4, sent the Chronicle the first boll of open cotton. We learn that cotton has opened in several places in Grant parish during this week.

Minister Praises This Laxative.
Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Allison, La., in praising Dr. King's New Life Pills for constipation, writes: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are such perfect pills no home should be without them." No better regulator for the liver and bowels. Every pill guaranteed. Try them. Price 25c at Dixie Pharmacy.—Adv.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.
"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill, of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

READ BELOW HOW AN OLD GENTLEMAN WHO HID HIS MONEY OVER THE CLOCK NEARLY LOST $2000

After an intelligent old gentleman at the age of seventy-six dropped dead in his home, his son found over $2000 in paper money over the old clock above an open crackling fire. The old gentleman was careless. His son had married the banker's daughter, and the bank was trusted. The old man's money and life were in danger, for burglars have a way of finding money and fire might burn the house. Are YOU careless?
