ACT NO. 116.
Senate Bill No. 96—By Leon R. Smith.
JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport, and judgments against said city, the issuance of serial bonds by said city, providing in which same may be issued, and the duties of the City Council of the City of Shreveport, with reference thereto; and the levying by the City Council of Shreveport of certain taxes to retire the bonds as issued herein, by said city. And providing for the submission of said amendment to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch thereof concurring, that subject to the ratification and approval of the electors of this State, the Constitution of the State be amended by incorporating therein, the following provisions, to-wit:

Section 1. The City of Shreveport by a four-fifths vote of all the members of the City Council thereof, shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue $500,000 of bonds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be styled City of Shreveport Serial Gold Bonds, and to bear such rate of interest as the City Council may fix from time to time, as each installment of the said bonds is offered for sale, as hereafter provided; said rate of interest at no time to exceed 5 per cent per annum payable semi-annually.

Section 2. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied to the payment and retirement of all certificates of indebtedness issued by the City of Shreveport prior to May 1, 1916, and to the payment of all judgments rendered against said city prior to May 1, 1916.

Section 3. All bonds issued under this amendment shall be in such form, terms and denominations, and payable at such times and places, within a period of not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, as the City Council of Shreveport shall determine. Said bonds shall be issued in serial form and shall be payable in annual installments, commencing not more than one year from their respective dates, and the installment payable in each year shall be so fixed, that when the annual interest is added thereto, the several annual total amounts of principal and interest to be paid shall be as nearly equal as practicable.

Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and the Secretary-Treasurer of the City of Shreveport, and countersigned by the Commissioner of Accounts and Finances, and the coupons shall have the facsimile signatures of the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer. In case any such officer whose signature or counter-signature, who appears on such a bond or coupon, shall cease to be such officer before delivery of said bond or coupon to the purchaser, such signature or counter-signature shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes.

Section 4. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized by this amendment shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America or its equivalent, of the standard weight and fineness at the time of the issuance thereof, and shall be exempt from all forms of taxation.

Section 5. The full faith and credit of the City of Shreveport are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of all bonds issued under this amendment. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized and to be issued under this amendment, shall be paid out of tax which shall be levied annually by the City Council of Shreveport, upon all taxable property in said city, sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as they respectively become due. The tax so levied is to be in excess of the general and special taxes provided for elsewhere in this constitution and is not to be affected by nor to affect the limitations elsewhere contained in the Constitution as to the issuance of bonds, and the levying of taxes by municipalities.

Section 6. The provisions hereof are self-operative and the City Council of Shreveport may by ordinance carry them into effect.

Be it further enacted, etc., That the amendment proposed by this act shall be submitted to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1916, and there shall be printed on the official ballot to be used at said election, the words:

"For the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport."

"Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport."

And each elector shall indicate on the ballot cast by him whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

AN ACT
Proposing an amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution relative to assessment and taxation.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that an amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916, said proposed amendment to be as follows:

"Article 225. Taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and property shall be taxed in a manner directed by law; provided that the valuation of property for the assessment of State taxes, levied by the General Assembly and by this Constitution, may be different from the valuation fixed for all other purposes; provided, further, that the assessment of all property shall never exceed the actual cash value thereof; and, provided, further, that the taxpayers shall have the right of testing the correctness of their assessments before the courts of justice."

"Article 226. There shall be and is hereby created a Board of State Affairs whose duty it shall be to assess, for State purposes, all taxable property throughout the State of Louisiana. It shall have such other authority relative to State assessment, budget, income and expenditure as may be conferred upon it by the General Assembly. The said board shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed by the Governor for such terms as may be fixed by the General Assembly. The Board shall enter upon its duties on January 1, 1917. The General Assembly shall have full authority to define the powers and duties of the Board and to fix the salaries of the members thereof. Act No. 140, of the General Assembly for the year 1916, on this subject matter, shall go into effect as a statute of the State, on the first day of January, 1917."

Section 2. Be it further resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to public service corporations, be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, for their ratification or rejection:

"The Board of Control of the State Penitentiary or its successor or successors in office is hereby authorized and empowered to incur debt, issue interest-bearing notes in serials or other form for a term not to exceed fifteen years, to the amount of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, for the purpose of funding and retiring its floating and other outstanding

ACT NO. 175.
Senate Bill No. 72—By Mr. Vincent.
JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to the limitation of legislative powers by adding the words "river improvement districts, harbor improvement districts and navigation districts" to the proviso, excepting municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, or to the organization of levee districts and parishes, from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for "Creating corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified electors of the State, for their adoption or rejection, at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1916, as follows:

Article 48. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law on the following specified subjects:

For the opening and conducting of elections, or fixing or changing the place of voting.

Changing the names of persons.

Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases.

Authorizing the laying out, opening, closing, altering or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys, or relating to bridges and ferries, or incorporating ferries or ferry companies, except for the erection of bridges crossing streams which form boundaries between this and any other State.

Authorizing the adoption of legitimation of children or the emancipation of minors.

Granting divorces.

Changing the law of descent or succession.

Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disabilities.

Remitting fines, penalties, and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury.

Authorizing the construction of street passenger railroads in any incorporated town or city.

Regulating labor, trade, manufacturing or agriculture.

Creating corporations, or amending, renewing, extending, or explaining the charters thereof; provided, this shall not apply to municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, or to the organization of levee districts and parishes, river improvement districts, harbor improvement districts and navigation districts.

Granting to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive right, privilege or immunity.

Extending the time for assessment of or collection of taxes, or for the relief of any assessor or collector of taxes from the performance of his official duties, or of his sureties for liability; nor shall any such law or ordinance be passed by any political corporation of the State.

Regulating the practice of jurisdiction of any court, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, or providing or changing methods for the collection of debts or the enforcement of judgments, or prescribing the effects of judicial sales.

Exempting property from taxation.

Fixing the rate of interest.

Concerning any criminal or civil actions.

Giving effect to informal or invalid wills or deeds, or to any illegal disposition of property.

Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of schoolhouses, and the raising of money for such purposes.

Legalizing the unauthorized or invalid acts of any officer, servant, or agent of the State, or of any parish or municipality thereof.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words: "For the proposed amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to the inclusion of river and improvement districts, harbor improvement districts, and navigation districts in the proviso, excepting municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, levee districts and parishes from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for the creating corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Section 3. All bonds issued under this amendment shall be in such form, terms and denominations, and payable at such times and places, within a period of not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, as the City Council of Shreveport shall determine. Said bonds shall be issued in serial form and shall be payable in annual installments, commencing not more than one year from their respective dates, and the installment payable in each year shall be so fixed, that when the annual interest is added thereto, the several annual total amounts of principal and interest to be paid shall be as nearly equal as practicable.

Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and the Secretary-Treasurer of the City of Shreveport, and countersigned by the Commissioner of Accounts and Finances, and the coupons shall have the facsimile signatures of the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer. In case any such officer whose signature or counter-signature, who appears on such a bond or coupon, shall cease to be such officer before delivery of said bond or coupon to the purchaser, such signature or counter-signature shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes.

Section 4. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized by this amendment shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America or its equivalent, of the standard weight and fineness at the time of the issuance thereof, and shall be exempt from all forms of taxation.

Section 5. The full faith and credit of the City of Shreveport are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of all bonds issued under this amendment. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized and to be issued under this amendment, shall be paid out of tax which shall be levied annually by the City Council of Shreveport, upon all taxable property in said city, sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds as they respectively become due. The tax so levied is to be in excess of the general and special taxes provided for elsewhere in this constitution and is not to be affected by nor to affect the limitations elsewhere contained in the Constitution as to the issuance of bonds, and the levying of taxes by municipalities.

Section 6. The provisions hereof are self-operative and the City Council of Shreveport may by ordinance carry them into effect.

Be it further enacted, etc., That the amendment proposed by this act shall be submitted to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1916, and there shall be printed on the official ballot to be used at said election, the words:

"For the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport."

"Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport."

JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana.

Whereas the City of New Orleans is at present exposed to storm damage and floods, and it is highly advisable and necessary for said city to have more adequate protection therefrom than can at present be secured under existing laws. Therefore, in order to promote the public safety, health, comfort and convenience:

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State be submitted to the qualified electors of the State for their adoption or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

(a) The Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District is hereby empowered to construct and maintain levees and embankments along, over and in the bed of Lake Pontchartrain at such distance from the present shore line as the said Board may determine, not to exceed twenty-five hundred (2500) feet from the present shore line, and along and on the shores connecting therewith, and in such other places in the Parish of Orleans and the adjacent parishes as the Board may determine, said levees and embankments to be of such height, width, slope, design and character of material as said Board may determine, and to protect said levees and embankments with such pilings, revetments, or walls, as it may deem proper.

(b) To enable said Board to perform said work and for the purpose thereof, the Board is hereby given a right of way over and use of all public lands including such portions of the water bottom of said lake as it may deem necessary. It is also given the right to acquire by donation, purchase, expropriation or appropriation, all private lands or other property in such territory in the Parish of Orleans and adjoining parishes as the said board now has authority and jurisdiction over under this amendment, and under existing laws, and which the said board may deem necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of said board, and to pay therefor in the same manner as the said board now pays for property taken by it on the Mississippi river front in the parish of Orleans.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the proposed amendment to the Constitution authorizing the board of levee commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to make certain constructions along Lake Pontchartrain and elsewhere" and the words "Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution, authorizing the board of levee commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to make certain constructions along Lake Pontchartrain and elsewhere." ACT NO. 216.
House Bill No. 224—By Mr. W. Carruth Jones, of East Baton Rouge Parish.
JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana authorizing Municipal Corporations, Parishes and Wards to levy certain taxes on property for the acquisition and support of Municipal, Parish and Ward fairs, and providing for the calling of special elections to authorize the levy of said tax, and to authorize the City of Shreveport or parish of Caddo to levy said tax for the use of the State Fair of Louisiana at Shreveport, Louisiana; and providing for the submission of said amendment to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members to each branch thereof concurring, That subject to the ratification and approval of the electors of this State, the Constitution of the State be amended by incorporating therein the following provisions, to-wit:

Section 1. That every Municipal Corporation, Parish or Ward when authorized to do so by a majority in number and amount of the property tax payers of said Municipal Corporation, Parish or Ward, qualified as electors under the Constitution and Laws of this State voting at an election held for that purpose, notice of which election having been published for thirty days in the official journal of the said Municipal Corporation or Parish, or if there is no official journal, in a journal published therein, may assess and levy a tax upon the taxable property assessed in said Municipal Corporation, Parish or Ward, the proceeds of which is to be used for the purchase and improvement of grounds and for premium awards for the Municipal, Parish or Ward fairs. Provided that this tax shall not exceed one mill upon the assessed valuation of the property within said Municipal Corporation Parish or Ward, and provided further that said tax shall not run for a period exceeding ten years.

Section 2. That the City of Shreveport or Parish of Caddo, when authorized in the manner set forth in the preceding section, may levy and assess the tax provided for in said section and use the proceeds therefrom for the benefit of the State Fair of Louisiana, located in said City of Shreveport.

Section 3. That resident women tax payers may vote in the election herein provided for in person or by proxy.

Section 4. That the Police Juries of the several parishes and the councils of the several municipalities, upon petition of one-fourth of the property owners and tax payers of any parish, ward or municipality shall call the election herein provided for.

Section 5. That the amendment provided by this act shall be submitted to the electors of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1916, and there shall be printed on the official ballot to be used in said election the words—

"For the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana authorizing Municipal Corporations, Parishes and Wards to vote certain taxes on property for the acquisition and support of Municipal Corporation, Parish and Ward Fairs, and the Parish of Caddo and City of Shreveport for the State Fair of Louisiana, at Shreveport, Louisiana," and the words—

ACT NO. 262.
Senate Bill No. 181—By Mr. Davay.
JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article 133 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to the Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concurring, that the following amendment be submitted to the electors of this State, for their approval or rejection, at the election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916.

Article 133. The Civil District Court shall have exclusive and general original probate jurisdiction, and exclusive original civil jurisdiction, in all cases where the amount in dispute of the funds to be distributed shall exceed one hundred dollars, exclusive of interest; and exclusive jurisdiction in suits by married women for separation of property, in suits for separation from bed and board, for divorce, for nullity of marriage, or for interdiction, and in suits involving title to immovable property, or to office or other public position, or civil or political rights; and in all other cases, except as hereinafter provided, where no specific amount is in contest, and of all proceedings in the appointment of receivers or liquidators to corporations or partnerships. And said Court shall have authority to issue all such writs, process and orders as may be necessary or proper for the purpose of the jurisdiction herein conferred upon it. The Judges of said Court en Banc shall have control over the Judicial Expense Fund for the Parish of Orleans, accruing, and accrued, and to this end shall fix and regulate, from time to time, the number of deputies and employees of the offices of the Clerk of the Civil District Court, and City Courts, Register of Conveyances and Recorder of Mortgages of said Parish and their expenses, and also shall have power to fix the tariff of Costs and charges to be paid for official services, which shall not exceed in any respect the tariffs now fixed by law, in said offices, which are paid into, and constitute said fund. Due publication of which tariff when made, shall be given. They shall have power to determine, whether any amounts from said fund, or its excess, shall be devoted to the expense of taking testimony by shorthand and to regulate and provide for the same. The
