Miss Leita Dyson, of Montgomery, has been the guest for the past week of her sister, Mrs. S. W. Johnston.

Miss Clara Wells, postmistress at Colfax, is off on a 10-day leave of absence, visiting relatives at Leocompte and Lamourie. Her sister, Miss Cora is with her.

Mr. J. H. McNeely has lately received two fine thoroughbred Angus bulls, one costing $500 and the other $200. He has a heard of 300 cattle, perhaps the finest in Central Louisiana.

Mr. Ludlow McNeely has become quite an accomplished cornetist. For three or four Sundays he has accompanied the singing at the Methodist church with his cornet, and it is a splendid addition to the music.

The desks have been put in study hall of the new Colfax high school building, also the range, sink, tables, etc., have been put in the several rooms of the domestic science department, and everything is ready to move into the building on Monday.

Mrs. M. L. Hardie, of Bunkie, La., and Mrs. W. T. Avery, of Beaumont, Texas, arrived in Colfax on Wednesday of last week and remained until Wednesday of this week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott. The first named is Mrs. Scott's mother, and the latter is her sister.

Mr. W. T. Linder on Thursday moved his meat market into the building adjoining the Economy store on Railroad Avenue. He is only occupying one half of the building, and Mr. C. E. Strother expects to open a stock of groceries in the other half in ten or fifteen days.

Mr. J. H. McNeely, president of the school board, went to Montgomery on Thursday to meet with Prof. Warner and the local trustees in the matter of receiving the high school just completed at that place. He was accompanied by Rev. W. S. Henry, pastor in charge of the Colfax and Montgomery work, who went along to shape up appointments for the current year, which we believe have been satisfactorily arranged.

Bad Habits.
Those who breakfast at eight o'clock or later, lunch at twelve and have dinner at six are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

CLOSE GRAZING MAY INJURE GRAIN CROP

Crop Should Not Be Grazed While Field Is Wet and Muddy—Take Stock Off By February 15 If Grain Is to Be Harvested.

It is never advisable to graze a crop too close if grain is to be harvested from it or if the maximum amount of grazing is to be had throughout the season. The greater portion of the growth of plants comes through the leaves, and if grazed close to the ground the growth of all plants, unless supported by fleshy roots or tubers, is extremely low.

The best general policy in grazing such crops would be to wait until the field is green and the plants are two or more inches in height before turning in the livestock. Endeavor to regulate the grazing so as to hold about the same amount of growth in the crop throughout the season. It is advisable not to allow too much growth during the fall and more stock should be turned on it if the growth shows a tendency to become too rank. If enough stock for this purpose is not available the moving machine should be used to keep it down before a hard freeze comes.

If grain is to be harvested all stock should be taken off by the middle of February, or certainly by the first of March. The crop should never be grazed when the fields are wet and muddy.

Oats is the main winter grazing crop in Louisiana. Rye, wheat, barley and some of the clovers and vetches are fully as good as oats for grazing, but their growth is very limited. It is the nature of all plants, under normal conditions of growth, to reproduce themselves at the end of their growing season in a seed crop.

As a rule, any prancing or grazing of annual plants, grown under average conditions, will reduce the yield of seed.

A crop of oats planted on a medium or thin grade of land, as late as November 1st cannot, as a rule, be grazed at any time without injury to the yield of oats. To provide grazing without hurting the yield of grain, grazing crops must be grown under abnormal conditions. That is, the planting must be done as early in September as weather conditions will permit, and only rich land, that has been thoroughly prepared, can be depended upon for satisfactory grazing and a crop of grain. Under these conditions, and with favorable weather, oats should reach a height of six inches or more by November first and provide a vast amount of grazing during the fall and winter.

Four Lepers Cured in Louisiana Home.
Lepers are being permanently cured at the Louisiana leper home, at Carville, Iberia parish, it is announced. Four have been pronounced cured this year. One returned home Sunday; one the Sunday previous, and two will leave the institution this week.

Father A. V. Keenon, chaplain of the Leper Home was in the city Monday, being here on personal business: He reported progress at the leper colony. "Many people are under the impression that cures are not effected, but this is erroneous, he said: "We will have at least four this year, and the number will probably increase every year."—New Orleans States.

The Habit of Taking Cold.
With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90 F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Notice to Automobile Owners.
It has been officially brought to my notice that but 44 automobile licenses have been issued in Grant parish, whereas there are more than that number in the Town of Colfax.
The license from automobiles comes back to the parish road fund. It is my duty to report all persons found without a license, and I shall do so in every instance where I find parties without the same.

Giving Away a Bolt of Cloth.
You'll find folks who wouldn't dare go into a dry goods store and ask the merchant for a bolt of goods of a pair of shoes, but who have no hesitancy whatever in asking the newspaper for free publicity of equal or greater value. And some of them grow indignant when reminded that a newspaper's space is its stock in trade, just as much as the goods on a merchant's shelf.

Newspapers desire and expect to do work for community development without the expectation of reward, or financial benefit. It is their privilege and duty to do this community work without remuneration, but they are not called upon to give individual enterprises the only stock in trade which they have to sell.—Baton Rouge State-Times.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.
Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tonic is taking its place.
"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tonic is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tonic is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.
Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel.

A Traveling Man Cured
P. B. Counterman, a traveling man of Joplin, Mo., writes: "Twelve years ago I was a great sufferer from stomach trouble. I tried nearly every medicine I could hear of, among them I used fifteen bottles of one popular preparation, but never found anything that did me any permanent good until I took Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which have effected a permanent cure. It has now been five years since I took these tablets, and I have had no more stomach trouble during that time. I have recommended Chamberlain's Tablets to a great many sufferers with stomach trouble, and traveling salesmen, and have met many of the boys on the road that are afflicted with disorders of the stomach as they have to put up with all kinds of half cooked grub at the different country hotels, which is one cause of this dreadful disease."
