A Big Story in Few Words.

If the reader wants to settle in a wide-awake community, all he has to do is to look at the local newspaper. A wide-awake well-supported home newspaper is associated with good schools, churches, active business men and intelligent people. It never fails. No business man or pioneer in any community makes any better investment than to support the home paper.—Artesia (N. M.) Advocate.

Miss Sarah Baker entertained the Colfax Five Hundred Club last Wednesday at her home in Boyce. First prize, a bottle of perfume, was won by Miss Louise LaCroix, and the consolation prize, silk hose, was awarded Miss Evelyn Hickman. The hostess, assisted by Misses Mildred and Elinor Johnson, served a delicious salad course and ice tea.

Miss Aline Allen has returned to Oakdale after a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. A. Cockfield. Edna Youngblood and Andrew Botsford accompanied her home on a visit.

An examination for railway mail clerks will be held at Alexandria, Baton Rouge, Lake Charles, Monroe, New Iberia, New Orleans and Shreveport on Sept. 17th.

Mr. R. E. Carnahan left Tuesday of this week for Hot Springs, Ark., and points in Texas. He will make the trip by automobile.

Dr. E. H. Blackwood spent Monday in Shreveport, where he went to accompany Bud Moses to the Schumpert sanitarium.

"Bud" Moses Dead as Result of Sunday Morning Row.

John Moses, known by his associates as "Bud," is dead as the result of a row about 11 o'clock last Sunday morning, and Harvey Sharron is under a $2500 charged with manslaughter.

Moses is said to have been drinking heavily and went to the home of Jack Kite, in the outskirts of Colfax, where the family of Sharron girls were staying. Reports vary as to occurrences at the Kite house, but shortly after Moses' arrival Harvey Sharron put in his appearance. Engaging in an argument or row Sharron struck Moses over the head with the side bar of an iron bed breaking, his skull and rendering him unconscious.

Moses was carried to the Schumpert hospital in Shreveport on the Sunday afternoon train, an operation being performed in an effort to save his life. He remained unconscious after the operation, however, and died Tuesday evening.

His body was brought to Colfax on the Thursday morning train and buried in the Colfax cemetery.

Coroner Chapman held an inquest on arrival of the body at Colfax, the jury rendering a verdict charging Sharron with manslaughter. Judge Williams immediately fixed his bond at $2,500, which was signed by Capt. C. H. Teal, and Sharron was released from jail late Thursday evening.

Six Moonshiners Jailed in Ten Days.

Sheriff Clinton and Deputies Johnston and Corbett have been causing consternation in the ranks of Grant parish moonshiners lately, and as a result of their activities six moonshiners have been landed in jail within ten days. Capt. J. B. Edwards and Lake Holland, prohibition enforcement officers, assisted in making three of the arrests. The persons arrested and the places and dates are as follows:

Jim Hickman, white, arrested at Montgomery, Aug. 12.

John Clark, white, arrested at Pollock, Aug. 17.

Josh Wright, colored, arrested at Selma, Aug. 18.

Henry James, white, arrested at Verda, Aug. 19.

John Jenkins, colored, arrested at Selma, Aug. 20.

Abron Rabb, colored, arrested at Rochelle, Aug. 22.

In every case moonshine whiskey was found in possession of the parties arrested, and in four cases stills were captured and destroyed.

Death Claims Bride-Groom of One Month.

A shadow of gloom was cast over our community by the news of the death of Mr. Norwood Broadwell, who died at the Schumpert sanitarium in Shreveport on Saturday, August 20, 1921, at 5:30 a. m., following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Broadwell was married on July 20, of this year to Miss Mary McNeely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNeely, of Colfax, and leaves beside his wife, a large family and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death. Interment was made in the Gibsland cemetery Monday afternoon with impressive Masonic ceremonies.

Mrs. Nanette Stuart Brennan, who will open a business school in Alexandria in September, was court reporter in Rapides parish for two years, and in Caddo parish for about three years. She was also president of the Alexandria Commercial Academy. Her many friends wish her success.

Mr. L. L. Lurry has a force of carpenters remodeling the house on Main street, opposite the Greene property, which he will occupy as his home when completed.

Mr. V. M. McNeely, who has been attending the Raloh C. Diggins Aviation school in Chicago, arrived home Sunday, bringing with him a diploma as an aviator.
