

CALDWELL WATCHMAN

The Columbia High School opened Monday with an enrollment of about one hundred. As was announced last week, but two rooms of the school building are ready for occupancy and are being used by the first, second, third fourth and fifth grades, under Misses Thornhill and Davis. The other grades are occupying rooms in the court house under the instructions of Misses Tombs, Jones and Mr. Hynum. Owing to the school house not being finished the laboratory apparatus for the natural sciences is not being used.

The outlook for a successful year is most favorable. Upon the completion of the school building a program celebrating the occasion will be arranged and observed. In all probability one of our state's leading educators will be present and deliver an address.

Miss Maud Price of Summerfield, La., died Tuesday morning September 10, 1912. She was born in Caldwell parish December 9, 1831, aged 21 years, 9 months and 1 day. She leaves a father, mother, four brothers and seven sisters to mourn her death. She had a kind and loving disposition and was loved by all who knew her.

Sad indeed, the words that too deep for utterance, are these that pen this, a last tribute to her, and she has passed away beyond recall to that home where sorrow is unknown. Weep not bereaved ones, although her death has left an aching void in your hearts, and rejoice that she has gone to dwell with angels in heaven. She has left father, mother, brothers and sisters to dwell with God and angels above.

Farewell to thee, we shall greet you alive no more, but we will meet on the other shore where parting is no more.

Marion Price.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

Who Knows Him or His Relatives?

Died with hemorrhage of the lungs at my residence September 10, 1912, an old gentleman 70 odd years old, who gave his name as La Vore or La Voy, height 5 feet 6 or 7 inches, fair complexion, blue eyes, long beard sandy and gray about half and half, very few gray hairs in hair on head, weight less than 100 pounds, very poor. He came to my home the evening that he died very sick, and talked very little before he died. He was traveling in one-horse buggy, buggy considerably worn, horse old and thin, and had a small amount of cash on his person.

I would like to know of his relatives so that they can advise disposition of property. Write me any information to Columbia, La.

Many Driven From Home.

Every year, in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Obituary.

Whereas it pleased the Alwise Creator to visit this earth and call from it by the hand of death Mrs. Jennie Curry, wife of Mr. Whit Curry.

The dear sister was born and reared in Caldwell parish, and was one of its old settlers, but she has left us and gone to the home of the blessed to live with her blessed Redeemer. She has left a vacant chair in the family, but she will not be forgotten, as she was good to the poor and oppressed. No one was turned away from her door. She was kind to her neighbors, always ready to help in time of need. She will be missed by many whom she has often cared for. May the blessings of God ever follow her dear husband and children.

Fond husband, though thy heart is broken and the bitter tears only a token of thy love for her who is gone, all will be healed on that glorious resurrection morn.

She was laid to rest at old Bethel grave yard with funeral services by the writer.

Rev. B. L. Payne.

The Men Who Succeed

As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas E. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Died.

At his home here Saturday evening, September 23, 1912, Mr. E. G. Dewey, Sr., aged 83 years, after an illness of some months.

Deceased was born in the State of New York, but removed to this section when quite a young man, and served throughout the war in the service of the Confederacy. After the close of the war he located in this town, and has been one of its prominent citizens.

Deceased was laid to rest in Columbia cemetery beside the graves of several of his children, who have preceded him, in the presence of a large concourse of friends. He leaves a wife, a son, Mr. E. G. Dewey, and Miss Lola Dewey of this town, and two daughters, Mrs. Josie Hanchey and Mrs. Edna Wade to mourn his loss, to whom we join their many friends in extending sympathy.

Letter to Dr. S. H. Brown
Columbia, La.

Dear Sir: We suspect you'd like the tale, how a woman beat two hardware dealers in Girard, Pa. We tried our best to get these men to sell Devoe lead-and-zinc in that bright town; and failed. Reluctantly took Mrs E R. Bowman, druggist.

They said they couldn't sell paint for more than $1.25 a gallon. Mrs Bowman can. She has sold about all the paint, that has been sold there since.

She knew Devoe; had sold our artists' materials. Had some sense and force, besides; she easily learned that cheap is dear in paint, and told the people.

Mr. Burt Young bought a gallon Devoe for rooms that had always taken a gallon of other paint; had half left.

Mr. E. H. Hiler, jeweler, painted Devoe, and says it goes further—no particulars.

Mr. John Hanna, grocer, thought it expensive before he bought it; brought back nearly half of his paint, and said it was the cheapest job he ever had.

Mrs Bowman reports universal satisfaction. So much for a cheap-paint town with a bright woman in it.

Yours truly
F. W. Devoe & Co
New York
