Mr. J. W. Clarkson, the prominent land man of C. Arks, was a visitor Thursday.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do the work naturally. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. S. P. Walker, issues Bessie and Katie Walker and Minnie Meredith were visitors in Monroe Tuesday.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. Edna Fant left Saturday for Pine Bluff, Ark., on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Josie Dawkins.

"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Cgmpbell, of Lavonia, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers.

Judge George Wear is in Jena this week holding a session of the district court.

Is your husband cross? An irritable, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers.

Rev. H. W. May will preach his farewell sermon of this conference year here Sunday. Every one should attend to hear him.

Rub-My-Tism will cure you.

Mr. J. S. Eubanks of Glen Ella, was a business visitor last week and remembered us by adding his name to our subscription list.

But Simmons' Liver Purifier is delightfully pleasant and its action is thorough. Constipation yields, biliousness goes. A trial convinces. [In yellow tin boxes only.] Tried once used always.

The Grayson Bank opened Wednesday and is doing a splendid business for a young institution. We predict for them a strong and prosperous institution.

Mr. Penn, a prominent planter of Grenada, Miss., has taken charge of Belle-Vue plantation and will make his home in our town. He expects his family to arrive within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Chopin, Alexandria, La., are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little girl. Syble was received with a hearty welcome Saturday, November 30, 1912.

Mr. Finas Brown of Kelly, was here Wednesday and closed a deal with Rev. Julian Brooks for his residence property in Kelly. Rev Brooks has been called by the church here and at Kelly and will make his residence in the latter town. Mr. Brown informed us of the loss of his barn and contents by fire last Saturday night, which was a total loss and no insurance.

In Memory of Little John Hodge.

After a brief illness of three or four days the spirit of little John Hodge, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Hodge, age 12 years, taken its flight to that beautiful city of God where there is no more sickness, pain and sorrow. We can only sympathize with the bereaved ones, as God's will be done not ours. His ways are not ours, and in the exercise of His will He dispatched him to come up to his heavenly home. His little body was laid to rest the evening of the 23 of November at Old Bethel cemetery. May the dear Lord sustain the bereaved family is the prayer of a friend.

Belle Cottingham.

Letter to Miss Marion Thornhill
Columbia, La.

Dear Madam: Here's another problem for those arithmetic and algebra scholars:

If Devoe is worth $2.25 a gallon, and spreads a half further than average paint, and wears twice as long, what is average paint worth a gallon put-on, painters' wages being $3.50 a day and a day's work a gallon of paint.

The answer is minus $2.25 a gallon. That is: you could afford to paint with average paint if somebody gives it to you and pays half the painters' wages.

Yours truly

We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles there is nothing better. A trial will convince you of its merit, 50c and $1.00. WHAT HE DIDN'T UNDERSTAND

Hired Man Realized That Domestic Birds Were Weather Indicators, But Couldn't See Why.

The city man on the honeysuckle-clad porch smoked and listened to the farm hand's talk. "Weather vane and wind indicators," said the farm hand, "but chickens and turkeys by orians is 'bind prophets'."

"Come on," said the city man. "Gospel truth," declared the farm hand. "In a cam, when there ain't gon' to be no wind, the birds alius roost on the tree boughs with their heads alternatin' each way—number one faces east, number two west, number three north and so on. That's a sign of cam. But supposin' there's gon' to be a strong high wind. Then they all roost, every mother's son on 'em, facin' it. Accordin' as they face, so you can prophes the wind will blow before mornin'."

"I ferges it out," said the farm hand, "but it's a cam. The birds alius roost in different ways so as to look out for danger better. But if it's gon' to blow up in the night, then they face the blow so's they can best hang on to their perch. What I can't figure out, though, is how in the mischief they smell that wind five or six hours before it's due."

Was He Right?

An automobile stood at the curb in front of a theater. It was an imposing machine of burnished brass and crimson leather, and as its owner came out of the theater and was getting aboard one of a couple of children asked with the confidence—or maybe impudence—that goes with innocence and bare legs: "Say, mister, drive us around the square, won't you? We ain't never been in a nauty automobile."

The man paid no attention and whizzed away. Of course, children are a nuisance, but it would have been worth while, maybe, to give two small girls a memory to last them a lifetime.

And, maybe, again, got himself arrested for kidnaping.

You never can tell.—Washington Star.

Brought Her Own Potatoes.

A young German girl who has recently come to live with relatives in America, amused them exceedingly by bringing with her a large box filled full of potatoes, because she is particularly partial to them, and was told that in this country we had only the variety known as "sweet," which did not sound to her nice at all. As her potatoes sprouted on the journey, showing a decided inclination to convert themselves into flourishing vines, she was greatly comforted to find that her relatives could supply the deficiency. This German girl is astonished that, though we seem to value the potato, we do not, as in the case in her country, erect statues to Sir Walter Raleigh, who introduced the plant into Europe.

When Youth Wanes.

Old age has many definitions, and middle age more. But you may take it that you are not really an old man so long as you take an interest in your personal appearance. There is not a nurse who does not know the sign of convalescence—when the patient wants to be shaved and put a good appearance in this world. And so long as the man of 60 can take an interest in the latest tie—and tie it—he is preserving his youth.

The Sweet Girl Graduate.

Knicker—is she conversant with history? Bocker—Yes, her graduating thesis is to be a combination of directoire and middle ages.—New York Sun.

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Fearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Anton, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible tight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50cts at all druggists.
