HAUPTA CONTINUES
DEFANCE OF U. S.

MEXICAN DISMISSES CABINET REORGANIZATION LEGISLATION.

THE CONGRESS ORGANIZED

Citizen Four Flags Will Be raised over Washington.

Washington, March 4.-While the President's message was being read to Congress, marines from the United States Navy, the Marine Corps, the Army, and the National Guard, paraded in their respective uniforms, as a gesture of solidarity in defense of the Government.

Theodore Roosevelt's distinctive white gloves were carried by one of the men of the United States Navy, and the President's hat, "Old Hickory," was worn by one of the men of the Marine Corps. The President's coat and pants were carried by a member of the Army, and the President's shoes were carried by a member of the National Guard.

The parade was held to demonstrate the loyalty of the armed forces to the President and to symbolize the strength of the United States.

The parade was composed of the navy, the marine corps, the army, and the national guard.
