

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE

T. L. Sorrells, merchant, of near Clarks, was a business visitor to Columbia Monday.

J. L. Kelly has moved his stock of goods to the Masonic building, formerly occupied by the People's Mercantile Co.

C. C. Myers, Jr., has our thanks for adding his name to our list of readers, which we received last Saturday.

Mrs. Angie Traylor left Tuesday for Alexandria where she will spend several days, guest of Mrs. G. L. Alford.

G. W. Henderson and wife of Rochelle spent Monday in Columbia guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daniels.

S. H. Brown and wife of Kelley spent Tuesday of this week in Columbia with relatives. We received a business call from Mr. Brown during his stay here.

LOST—April 5, pocket book containing between $275 and $300. Identification card in pocket book. A liberal reward will be paid to the finder if returned to this office.

Representative J. E. McClanahan of Riverton was in town last Saturday. While in town he paid this office a call and showed the date of his subscription up another year for which he has our thanks.

J. M. Brooks of Ringgold was in town Saturday and paid our office a call, ordering us to change the address of his paper to Grayson where he has purchased him a home and he and family will make their future home.

Mrs. William Walker of Shreveport, who recently underwent a serious operation at St. Francis Sanitarium, is now convalescing rapidly and expects to leave in the next few days for Columbia to visit her father, Mr. John R. Brown.—Monroe News-Star.

Mr. Tom Meredith has opened his ice house, in the same old place, and is now ready to supply you with ice at all times. His first car was received Wednesday and requested us to announce to the public that he appreciates your patronage last summer and solicits same this summer and to thank you in advance for your patronage.

J. W. Fox, a teacher in one of the public schools in this parish, pleaded guilty in the district court one day last week to the charge of violating the age of consent, and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Deputy Sheriff John Humphries conveyed Fox to the penitentiary last Friday where he commenced serving his sentence.

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Union met on the 22d inst., at the Baptist church with seven members present. This Society have a right to feel proud of their work as demonstrated by them every thing is moving along nicely in their work. Their treasurer has sent in their report and offering for Home Missions to Dr. G. H. Crutcher, corresponding secretary. Their next meeting will be on the 13th of May.

Last Saturday a fine cow owned by Dr. S. H. Brown gave birth to twins, female calves, of normal size and as much alike as it is possible for two things to be. Dr. Brown is taking good care of the calves and expect to place them on exhibition at the parish fair this fall. These twin calves have been the attraction of many in the parish that have been to town and the Doctor can claim the blue ribbon in advance as this is an unusual thing in the history of jersey cattle to occur.

The revival meetings that have been going on at the Methodist church since Saturday night have created much interest to be taken in the religious circles in Columbia. Large attendance has been at every night service, Rev. J. J. Smylie, of Louisville, Miss., pastor of the Methodist church at that place is conducting the meeting and is delivering some splendid sermons, and holds the undivided attention of his large audience that greets him at each service. This revival will be the means of much good done in this community. Rev. Alford is to be congratulated in securing so powerful a speaker as Rev. Smylie has proven himself to be.
