Shocking.
"He kissed me and promised not to tell."
"And then?"
"It wasn't two minutes before he repeated it."

IMITATION IS SINCEREST FLATTERY but like counterfeit money the imitation has not the work of the original. Insist on "La Creole" Hair Dressing—it's the original. Darkens your hair in the natural way, but contains no dye. Price $1.00.—Adv.

Reason for Growling.
Rivers had just got home, and was stumbling over the things in the dark hall.

"What are you growling about, dear?" called out Mrs. Rivers from the floor above.
"I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

BABIES AND GROWING CHILDREN need a tonic to tone up the system and regulate the liver. Mothers are constantly using with wonderful success, our "Plantation" Chill and Fever Tonic. Pleasant to take—contains no Calomel. Price 50c.—Adv.

He Meant Well, but—
Distinguished Out-of-Town Guest (speaking at banquet)—Your beautiful little city appeals to me. As we came in on the train I remarked to my wife: "Ah, my dear, you and I ought to be living on the top of one of those magnificent hills."

Tomstmaster (in horse whips)—
Go easy; we've got only two hills in town. The insane asylum is on one, and the sewage works on the other.

All But—
"Dear Mabel, do you love me?"
"Oh, George?"
"Don't you, Mabel? Just a tiny little bit?"
"Well, yes, George."
"And would your mother keep away from us, except when I invited her?"
"She would, George."
"And your brothers and sisters, too?"
"Why, certainly, George."
"And, of course, the old gent would settle my debts?"
"Of course, George."
"Darling, will you marry me?"
"No, George!"

Simplicity of the Fathers.
Mrs. Everett M. Raynor of New York, president general of the Daughters of the Revolution, said at a luncheon:

"There are many anecdotes in illustration of the simple living of the Fathers.
"One of our country's pre-Revolutionary fathers had occasion to call on the governor of his province, and was invited to stay to luncheon.
"Luncheon began, and a liveried servant moved busily about, serving the wine, carving the fowl, and so forth.
"The guest watched the servant for some minutes, and then said to him irritably:
"What are you doing, dancing, dancing about the room for, man? Can't you pull up a chair and sit down? Surely there's enough for the three of us."

High-Priced Home.
"There is no place like home."
"But it takes the rent to make you realize it."
Sense and Sound.
In empty sound we still rejoice
With feelings strangely proud,
The man who has the biggest voice
Can reach the largest crowd.
Enough.
"My dear, do you want to go to the movies tonight?"
"No, I've got enough of the movies. I've been watching two families go out of the block this morning and three coming into it."
Just Like a Woman.
Parker—Speaking of secretive people, your friend Hazel is certainly the limit.
Almie—What's the explanation?
Parker—She mailed a souvenir post-card this morning marked "Personal."

Tea and Coffee For Children?

These beverages contain drug elements that hinder development of both body and mind, especially in children.

Nowadays, for their children, wise parents choose

POSTUM

This delicious table beverage, made of cereals, has a wonderfully satisfying flavor—a flavor much like the higher grades of coffee (but without any of coffee's harm). Postum is a true, pure food-drink that has helped thousands to forget the coffee habit.

"There's a Reason"
Grocers everywhere
sell POSTUM

NO MONEY.
"They were to operate on me for appendicitis."
"Why didn't they?"
"At that most inopportune time I failed in business."

Where He Went Lame.
The professor was a wise guy.
But to save his soul
When he ate a doughnut, why
He couldn't save the hole.

He Had Been Stung.
"The old way to cure yourself of an attack of love," said the married man, "is to run away."
"Why didn't you do that when you were courting the girl you married?" asked the old bachelor.
"I did," replied the other, "but I made the mistake of taking the girl with me."

Change in Style.
Mrs. Flatbush—How do you like my new dress?
Mr. Flatbush—Why, is that a new dress?
"Certainly it is."
"Looks like same material as your last one."
"Oh, it's the same material, but it's four inches shorter!"

The Limit.
Redd—Having spent about five hundred thousand dollars for road improvement and equipment a Swiss company will carry passengers over the Alps in electric automobiles.
Greene—Some disheartening, I should say, to see those taxi-meters climb up there.

Unsuited.
"I don't suppose the submarine will ever become popular with the authors of 'best sellers.'"
"Hardly. You see, for obvious reasons, the opportunities for love-making on the deck of a submarine are limited."

A Customer Lost.
"But, madam, your account is already overdrawn."
"Can't you let me have the money, anyway?"
"I'm afraid not."
"I once deposited fifty dollars in this old bank. I'll never patronize it again."

More Trouble.
Bill—A shirt with an adjustable collar band has been invented.
Jill—More trouble. Here's a chance not only to lose your collar button but your shirtband with it.

Compensations.
"This lady lecturer's subject is very dry."
"Ah, but just listen to her liquid voice."

Hopeless Case.
"What's that thing, doc?"
"That's a medicine ball I brought you."
"Then I'm afraid there is no hope for me."
"Why not?"
"I never can swallow that."—Youngstown Telegram.

Natural Result.
"Smythe is a live wire."
"He touched me this morning for ten dollars."
"With what result?"
"I was shocked."

Business Methods.
"I suppose this suburban villa belongs to a banker."
"How did you know that?"
"I notice all the vines in it are runners."

Fairy Tales.
Mrs. Bacon—King Solomon must have been some story-teller, don't you think?
Mr. Bacon—Why so?
"Look at all the wives he had!"

Thought Stimulation.
"My speech is going to set a lot of people thinking," remarked the orator.
"Yes," rejoined Senator Sorghum; "but are they going to think the way you are trying to make them think they ought to think?"

Rural Epicures.
Customer—But isn't two dollars an awful price for a chicken?
Dealer—Not for a suburban chicken, sir. Why, everyone of these fowls was raised on flower seeds that cost fifty cents per package.

WRACKING AN ARTIST'S SOUL.

"I understand the noted pianist you engaged to play at your reception left your house in a huff."
"So he did," replied Mr. Dubwaite. "I can't imagine what was the matter with the fellow."
"Perhaps he was offended in some way."
"Nonsense! While he was resting from his labors at the piano I thought it a good idea to entertain the guests with a few ragtime selections on the phonograph. I had hardly started the first one when he ripped out some sort of foreign oath, clapped his hands to his ears and fled."

Agreeably Surprised.
"I noticed you didn't applaud when the American flag was thrown on the screen."
"That was not due to a lack of patriotism."
"No?"
"I've heard so much lately about 'Old Glory' being trailed in the dust that I was simply dumfounded to see how fresh and clean it looked."

No References.
Willis—The new cook is a jewel, dear.
Mrs. Willis—Yes, but I'm afraid that I must discharge her.
Willis—What's the matter?
Mrs. Willis—I'm suspicious of her. I went to the library this afternoon and spent three hours in the reference room and couldn't find any of hers.—Judge.

PROOF POSITIVE.

"Has the doctor a large practice?"
"So large that when people have anything the matter with them he tells them so."

The Legislator.
He doesn't care if they raise the fare. He'll be happy anyway if they'll just increase his mileage—Which the people pay.

His Lack.
"The new fellow in the bookkeeping department is quite an amateur juggler."
"Don't believe it. Why, he can't even balance an account."

A Need.
"There is certainly one addition they ought to have to the weather office."
"What's that?"
"A clearing house."

Sense of Humor.
"You seldom laugh. You have no sense of humor."
"I have a sufficient sense of humor," said Miss Cayenne, "to recognize when it is time not to laugh."

Drill Amenities.
Mayor John Purroy Mitchell said at a dinner in New York:
"The memories of camp life are a very pleasant thing to any soldier. Even the little vicarities of camp life seem in the retrospect pleasant enough."
"Thus I often laugh about a banker who was being drilled one day at Plattsburg by a broker-sergeant."
"What'll you give me," said the broker-sergeant, an old Yale end, "if I take that hump off your back?"
"I'll give you," the banker answered, with a tart laugh, "something to make your hair grow, sergeant."

PREPAREDNESS.

"He sho' did."
"Name o' goodness! What for?"
"Sheriff says he 'lows the law's got to be respected no' round here, an' them boys used a tree in the cotehouse grounds an' tramped all over the lawn right where there was a plain sign sayin' 'Keep Off the Grass.'—Town Topics.

Succinct.
When the big shop of a Lauenshire merchant was burned, and while he stood by the pile of ashes, vainly seeking to conjure a good phoenix therefrom, he was handed this message from his family in London:
"Telegraph particulars of fire in shop."
Seizing a pencil, he wrote:
"No particulars. No shop."

Appreciation of a Prodigy.
"Bliggins is still talking about the bright things his boy says."
"Well, I envy him. It must be great to have a boy who entertains himself thinking of bright things instead of banging on the cellar door with a board or experimenting with a shotgun."
Grass snakes are legless lizards.

STOP CALOMEL! TAKE DODSON'S LIVER TONE

New Discovery! Takes Place of Dangerous Calomel—It Puts Your Liver To Work Without Making You Sick—Eat Anything—It Can Not Salivate—Don't Lose a Day's Work!

I discovered a vegetable compound that does the work of dangerous, sickening calomel and I want every reader of this paper to try a bottle and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than salivating calomel just go back to the store and get your money.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your thirty feet of bowels of the sour bile and constipation poison which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable.

I guarantee that one spoonful of this harmless liquid liver medicine will relieve the headache, biliousness, coated tongue, ague, malaria, sour stomach or any other distress caused by a torpid liver as quickly as a dose of vile, nauseating calomel, besides it will not make you sick or keep you from a day's work. I want to see a bottle of this wonderful liver medicine in every home here.

Calomel is poison—it's mercury—it attacks the bones, often causing rheumatism. Calomel is dangerous. It sickens—while my Dodson's Liver Tone is safe, pleasant and harmless. Eat anything afterwards, because it can not salivate. Give it to the children because it doesn't upset the stomach or shock the liver. Take a spoonful tonight and wake up feeling fine and ready for a full day's work.

Get a bottle! Try it! If it doesn't do exactly what I say, tell your dealer to hand your money back. Every druggist and store keeper here knows me and knows of my wonderful discovery of a vegetable medicine that takes the place of dangerous calomel.—Adv.

Not a True Idealist.
"I always knew that Blinks was lacking in true poetical idealism," said the irate leader of one of the clubs. "Just before the last election he made overtures to me for the purchase of 50 votes."
"Well," said the sophisticated friend, "that didn't offend you, did it?"
"Of course not; but when I made the trade and delivered the goods the conscienceless dog refused to pay."
