

means, who shall be elected by the voters of the said Parish for the term of four years, and who shall receive an annual salary of ten thousand dollars, forty-six hundred dollars of which shall be paid by the State of Louisiana, in equal monthly installments, and the balance of fifty-four hundred dollars shall be paid by the City of New Orleans, in equal monthly installments. He shall receive no other compensation. He shall be licensed attorney and shall perform such duties as are now prescribed by law, or may hereafter be prescribed by the General Assembly, and shall take no outside practice. He may appoint and remove at his discretion such assistants, who shall be licensed attorneys, and such clerks, stenographers, and special officers as may be provided by the Commission Council of the City of New Orleans, and at such salaries and terms of payment as the said Commission Council may ordain.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That this proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State, for adoption or rejection, at the Congressional election to be held in November, 1916; and if adopted, the same shall take effect on the first Monday in December, 1916.

Section 3. Be it further resolved, etc., That the voting either for or against this resolution by any member of the General Assembly shall not prevent him from being a candidate for the said office.

Section 4. Be it further resolved, etc., That on the official ballots to be issued at said election there shall be placed "For the proposed amendment to Article 143 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana," and "Against."

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 91

Senate Bill No. 15. By Mr. Delos R. Johnson. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to Article 216 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, fixing the qualifications of holders of office.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that Article 216 of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Article 216. No person shall be eligible to any office, State, Judicial, Parochial, municipal or ward, who is not a citizen of the State, and who is not a resident of the parish, ward, municipality or other political division of the State. And whenever any office, State, Judicial, Parochial, municipal, or ward, may change his or her residence from this State, or from the district, parish, municipality or ward in which he or she holds such office, the same shall thereby be vacated any declaration of retention of domicile to the contrary notwithstanding.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That this proposed amendment be submitted to the voters of the State of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection, as required by Article 231 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana and the general election laws of this State, in November, 1916.

Section 3. Be it further resolved, etc., That on the official ballot to be used at said election shall be placed the words "For the proposed amendment to Article 216 of the Constitution relative to women," and "Against."

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 101

House Bill No. 10. The Fields-Nix Bill. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to Article 303 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to pensions for Confederate veterans. As amended by Act No. 193 of the General Assembly of 1914, and for the purpose of providing a sufficient fund therefor, to be carried out of this article of the Constitution.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that Article 303 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, as amended by Act No. 193 of the General Assembly of 1914, be so enacted as to read as follows:

Article 303. A pension of like amount, not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per month shall be allowed to each Confederate soldier or sailor or veteran who possesses all of the following qualifications:

1. He shall have served honorably from the date of his enlistment until the close of the late Civil War, or until he was discharged or paroled, in some military organization regularly mustered into the Army or Navy of the Confederate States, and shall have remained until the Confederate States until the surrender of the Confederate States.

owns who married Confederate soldiers or sailors a second time shall not be barred from the benefits of this Act, but be entitled to a pension on the same terms as other widows of deceased Confederate soldiers or sailors; provided, further, that pensions, whether to veterans or to widows, shall be allowed only from the date of application under this Article, and the total appropriations for all pensions in any one year shall be the proceeds of the annual one mill tax is hereby levied on all taxable property in the State, provided said appropriations shall never be more than an amount sufficient to pay all pensions for the year. Any accruing surplus from said tax fund shall be held as an accumulating fund for the Confederate veterans to be appropriated by the General Assembly for their use and benefit as the General Assembly may in future determine, and the collection of any other tax or the making of any appropriation for pensions in excess of the amount of the one-mill tax levied and collected, and to be known as "Confederate Veterans Pension Fund," is hereby prohibited, and said fund is to be used for no other purpose than that herein stipulated; and upon the adoption of this Amendment same shall at once become self-operative, and the funds derived therefrom be immediately used for said purpose; and provided, further, that the tax collectors and assessors shall receive no commissions for assessing and collecting one mill tax herein provided.

Provided, that nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prohibit the General Assembly from providing artificial limbs to disabled Confederate soldiers or sailors.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., that this proposed amendment be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Louisiana, for adoption or rejection, at the Congressional election to be held on the first Monday in November, 1916.

That the official ballots to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words, "For the proposed amendment to Article 303 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to pensions for Confederate veterans," and the words, "Against."

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 110

Senate Bill No. 96. By Leon R. Smith. A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport, and judgments against the said city, the issuance of serial bonds by said city, for the purpose of raising the same, in which same may be included, and the duties of the City Council of the City of Shreveport, with reference thereto; and the levying by the City Council of Shreveport of certain taxes to retire said bonds, as issued herein, by said city; and providing for the submission of said amendment to the voters of the State for their approval or rejection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each branch thereof concurring, that, subject to the ratification and approval of the voters of this State, the Constitution of the State be amended by incorporating therein the following provisions, to-wit:

Section 1. The City of Shreveport, by a four-fifths vote of all the members of the City Council thereof, shall have power and is hereby authorized to issue $500,000 of bonds, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be known as City of Shreveport Serial Gold Bonds, and to bear such rate of interest as the City Council may fix from time to time, as each installment of the said bonds is offered for sale, as hereinafter provided; said rate of interest at no time to exceed 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually.

Section 2. The proceeds of said bonds shall be applied to the payment and retirement of all certificates of indebtedness issued by the City of Shreveport prior to May 1, 1916, and to the payment of all judgments rendered against said city prior to May 1, 1916.

Section 3. All bonds issued under this amendment shall be in such form, terms and denominations, and payable at such times and places, within a period of not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, as the City Council of Shreveport shall determine. Said bonds shall be issued in serial form and shall be payable in annual installments, commencing not more than one year from the date of issue, and the installment payable in each year shall be so fixed that when the annual interest is added thereto, the several annual total amounts of principal and interest to be paid shall be as nearly equal as practicable.

Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and the Secretary-Treasurer of the City of Shreveport, and countersigned by the Commissioners of Accounts and Finance, and the coupons shall have the fac-simile signatures of the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer, in case any such officer whose signature or counter-signature, who appears on such bond or coupon, shall cease to be such officer before delivery of said bond or coupon to the purchaser, such signature or counter-signature shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes.

Section 4. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized by this amendment shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America of like equivalent, of the standard weight and fineness at the time of the issuance thereof, and shall be exempt from all forms of taxation.

Section 5. The full faith and credit of the City of Shreveport are pledged for the payment of principal and interest of all bonds issued under this amendment. The principal and interest of all bonds authorized and to be issued under this amendment shall be paid out of tax which shall be levied annually by the City Council of Shreveport, upon all taxable property in said city, sufficient to meet the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds and their respective become due. The tax so levied is to be in excess of the general and special taxes provided for elsewhere in this Constitution, and is not to be affected by nor to affect the limitations elsewhere contained in the Constitution as to the issuance of bonds, and the levying of taxes by municipalities.

Section 6. The provisions hereof are self-operative, and the City Council of Shreveport may by ordinance carry them into effect.

Be it further enacted, etc., That the amendment proposed by this Act shall be submitted to the voters of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Monday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1916; and there shall be placed on the official ballot to be used in said election the words, "For the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport," and the words, "Against the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana providing for the funding of certain debts of the City of Shreveport," and each elector shall indicate on the ballot cast by him whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 115

Senate Bill No. 72. By Mr. Vincent. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to the limitation of legislative powers by adding the words, "harbor improvement districts, harbor improvement districts, and navigation districts" to the proviso, excepting municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, or to the organization of levee districts and parishes, from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for "creating corporations or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that the following amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified voters of the State, for their adoption or rejection, at the Congressional election to be held on the first Monday in the month of November, 1916, as follows:

Article 48. The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law on the following specified subjects:

For the opening and conducting of elections, or fixing or changing the place of voting.

Changing the names of persons.

Changing the venue in civil or criminal cases.

Authorizing the laying out, opening, closing, altering or maintaining roads, highways, streets or alleys, or relating to ferries and bridges, or incorporating bridge or ferry companies.

Creating corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof; provided, this shall not apply to municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, or to the organization of levee districts and parishes, from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for "creating corporations or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Granting divorces.

Changing the law of descent or succession.

Affecting the estates of minors or persons under disabilities.

Remitting fines, penalties, and forfeitures, or refunding moneys legally paid into the treasury.

Authorizing the construction of street passenger railroads in any incorporated town or city.

Regulating labor, trade, manufacturing or agriculture.

Creating corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof; provided, this shall not apply to municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, or to the organization of levee districts and parishes, from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for "creating corporations or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Extending the powers of any officer or collection of taxes, or for the relief of any assessor or collectors of taxes from the performance of his official duties, or of his sureties for the same.

Extending the powers of any officer or collection of taxes, or for the relief of any assessor or collectors of taxes from the performance of his official duties, or of his sureties for the same.

Regulating the practice of jurisdiction of any court, or changing the rules of evidence in any judicial proceeding or inquiry before courts, or providing for the enforcement of judgments, or prescribing the effects of judicial sales.

Exempting property from taxation.

Fixing the rate of interest.

Concerning any criminal or civil actions.

Giving effect to informal or invalid wills or deeds, or to any illegal disposition of property.

Regulating the management of public schools, the building or repairing of schools, and the raising of money for such purposes.

Legalizing the authorized or invalid acts of any officer, servant or agent of the State, or of any parish or municipality thereof.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words, "For the proposed amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to the inclusion of river and improvement districts, harbor improvement districts, and navigation districts in the proviso, excepting municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, levee districts and parishes from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for the creating, corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof," and the words, "Against the proposed amendment to Article 48 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to the inclusion of river and improvement districts, harbor improvement districts, and navigation districts in the proviso, excepting municipal corporations having a population of not less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants, levee districts and parishes from the provisions of said Article 48 of the Constitution providing for the creating, corporations, or amending, renewing, extending or explaining the charters thereof."

Section 3. Each elector shall indicate, on said ballot, as provided by law, whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 134

Senate Bill No. 135. By Mr. Pearce. A JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of 1913 authorizing and empowering the Board of Control of the State Penitentiary, or its successors, to fund the indebtedness of the State, not exceeding four hundred thousand dollars, and at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, for a term not exceeding fifteen years, and empowering the General Assembly to provide the methods of carrying this amendment into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, adopted in November, 1913, be submitted to the qualified voters at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, adopted in November, 1913, be submitted to the qualified voters at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

Monday in November, 1916, for their ratification or rejection:

The Board of Control of the State Penitentiary, or its successor or successors, is hereby authorized and empowered to incur any indebtedness bearing notes in serial or other form for a term not to exceed fifteen years, to the amount of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars, at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, for the purpose of funding and retiring its bonds and other outstanding indebtedness, and is authorized to secure same by mortgage on any or all of its real estate, and the full faith and credit of the State of Louisiana is hereby pledged to guarantee the payment of such obligations and the interest thereon, but the Board of Control or its successor shall be required to pay same out of its own revenues and earnings, and not out of the State treasury, and shall only when the same are exhausted shall the State make good the remainder. The General Assembly shall pass the necessary enabling act to carry this amendment into effect, and Act No. 135 of the Acts of 1914 on this subject matter is hereby approved for this purpose.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the Secretary of State be, and he is authorized to have printed on the official ballot to be used in November, 1916, the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution funding the debt of the Penitentiary Board," and the words, "Against the amendment to the Constitution funding the debt of the Penitentiary Board," and each elector shall indicate whether he votes for or against said amendment, in accordance with the general election laws of the State.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 155

House Bill No. 188. By Mr. Powell. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to Article 129 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to fees.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that an amendment to Article One Hundred and Twenty-nine (129) of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

Article 129. The General Assembly shall provide a general fee and cost bill to regulate the fees and costs to be charged for the services of sheriffs, clerks and court officers, justices of the peace, constables and coroners, in all civil matters; from which compensation for the services of said officials may be provided according to law. Salaries may be fixed for said officials, and if the fees and costs collected by them are insufficient to pay their salaries, such excess may be disposed of according to law. The General Assembly may provide in all civil cases for the service of process and pleadings by litigants themselves.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the following words: "For the proposed amendment to Article 129 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to authorizing salaries for sheriffs, clerks and other officials," and each elector voting shall indicate, on said ballot, as provided by law, whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 168

House Bill No. 252—Joint Resolution. By Mr. Powell.

Proposing an amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution relative to assessment and taxation.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that an amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

Article 225. Taxation shall be equal and uniform throughout the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and property shall be taxed in a manner directed by law; provided that the valuation of property for the assessment of State taxes, levied by the General Assembly and by this Constitution, may be different from the valuation fixed for all other purposes; provided, further, the assessment of all property shall never exceed the actual cash value thereof; and provided, further, that the taxpayers shall have the right of testing the correctness of their assessments before the courts of justice.

Section 2. The Board of Assessors shall be and is hereby created a Board of State Assessors whose duty it shall be to assess, for State purposes, all taxable property throughout the State of Louisiana. It shall have such other authority relative to State assessment, budget, income and expenditure as may be conferred upon it by the General Assembly. The board shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed by the Governor for such terms as may be fixed by the General Assembly. The board shall meet upon January 1, 1917. The General Assembly shall have full authority to define the powers and duties of the board and to fix the salaries of the members thereof. Act No. 225 of the Acts of the General Assembly for the year 1916, on this subject matter, shall go into effect as a statute of the State, on the first day of January, 1917.

Section 3. Be it further resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the following words: "For the amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to assessment and taxation, and abolishing the Board of Appraisers," and the words, "Against the proposed amendment to Articles 225 and 226 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to assessment and taxation, and abolishing the Board of Appraisers." And each elector shall indicate on said ballot, as provided by law, whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 6, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 203

House Bill No. 45. By Mr. Leopold. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, authorizing the City of New Orleans to be and is authorized to incur any indebtedness bearing notes in serial or other form for a term not to exceed fifteen years, to the amount of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars, at a rate of interest not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, for the purpose of funding and retiring its bonds and other outstanding indebtedness, and is authorized to secure same by mortgage on any or all of its real estate, and the full faith and credit of the State of Louisiana is hereby pledged to guarantee the payment of such obligations and the interest thereon, but the Board of Control or its successor shall be required to pay same out of its own revenues and earnings, and not out of the State treasury, and shall only when the same are exhausted shall the State make good the remainder. The General Assembly shall pass the necessary enabling act to carry this amendment into effect, and Act No. 135 of the Acts of 1914 on this subject matter is hereby approved for this purpose.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the Secretary of State be, and he is authorized to have printed on the official ballot to be used in November, 1916, the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution funding the debt of the Penitentiary Board," and the words, "Against the amendment to the Constitution funding the debt of the Penitentiary Board," and each elector shall indicate whether he votes for or against said amendment, in accordance with the general election laws of the State.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved: July 5, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 155

House Bill No. 188. By Mr. Powell. JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to Article 129 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to fees.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that an amendment to Article One Hundred and Twenty-nine (129) of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be submitted to the qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916, as follows:

Article 129. The General Assembly shall provide a general fee and cost bill to regulate the fees and costs to be charged for the services of sheriffs, clerks and court officers, justices of the peace, constables and coroners, in all civil matters; from which compensation for the services of said officials may be provided according to law. Salaries may be fixed for said officials, and if the fees and costs collected by them are insufficient to pay their salaries, such excess may be disposed of according to law. The General Assembly may provide in all civil cases for the service of process and pleadings by litigants themselves.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the official ballot to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the following words: "For the proposed amendment to Article 129 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to authorizing salaries for sheriffs, clerks and other officials," and each elector voting shall indicate, on said ballot, as provided by law, whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

HEWITT BOUANCHAUD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

FERNAND MOUTON, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 6, 1916.

R. G. PLEASANT, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy: JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

An Act

House Bill No. 245. By Mr. Shell. Submitting to the people of the State of Louisiana an amendment to Article 273 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, that the following amendment to Article 273 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana be and the same is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November of the year 1916, to-wit:

Article 273. Every railroad or other corporation, organized or doing business in this State under the laws of authority thereof, shall have and maintain a general office in this State for the transaction of its business, where transfers of stock shall be made and where shall be kept a public inspection book in which shall be recorded the amount of capital stock subscribed, the names of the owners of stock, the amount owned by them, respectively, the amount of stock paid in, the names of the transferees of said stock, with the date of transfer, the amount of its assets and liabilities, the names and places of residence of its officers. All public service corporations organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana shall maintain in this State, in charge of one or more of the general officers of such company, their general offices for the operation and conduct of the business of such corporation.

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That this proposed amendment be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Louisiana for adoption or rejection at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1916.

That the official ballots to be used at said election shall have printed thereon the words, "For the proposed amendment to Article 273 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to public service corporations," and the words, "Against the proposed amendment to Article 273 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to public service corporations," and each elector shall indicate whether he votes for or against the proposed amendment.

A true copy of House Bill No. 245 by Mr. Shell, proposing an amendment to Article 273 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, adopted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, session of 1916.

JAMES J. BAILEY, Secretary of State.

Act No. 216

House Bill No. 224. By Mr. W. Carruth. Joint Resolution.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, authorizing Municipal Corporations, Parishes and Wards to levy certain taxes on property in the acquisition and support of Municipal, Parish and Ward fairs, and providing for the holding of special elections to authorize the levy of said tax, and to authorize the City of Shreveport, Parish of Caddo, to levy said tax for the use of the State Fair of Louisiana at Shreveport, La., and providing for the submission of said amendment to the voters of the State for their approval or rejection.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch thereof concurring, that the following amendment to the Constitution of the State be amended by incorporating therein the following provisions, to-wit: