 ANNOUNCEMENTS.
 We are authorized to announce
 HON. SAM. T. BAIRD.

THE WORLD'S NAVIES.
 The following estimates of the size of the great powers of the world, some of which are about to be completed, are shown below. At the present time she has in commission 52 battleships, 18 armored cruisers, 97 protected cruisers, 16 unprotected cruisers, 18 coast defense vessels and 183 torpedo vessels. She has in process of construction 16 battleships, 8 armored cruisers, 24 protected cruisers and 46 torpedo vessels.

France has in commission 27 battleships, 9 armored cruisers, 30 protected cruisers, 16 unprotected cruisers, 15 coast defense vessels and 224 torpedo boats.
 Russia has in commission 12 battleships, 10 armored cruisers, 3 protected cruisers, 20 coast defense vessels and 192 torpedo boats. She has in process of construction 6 battleships, 1 armored cruiser, 3 protected cruisers, 1 coast defense vessel and 28 torpedo vessels.

At this time Germany has in commission 17 battleships, 3 armored cruisers, 7 protected cruisers, 21 unprotected cruisers, 12 coast defense vessels, and 115 torpedo boats.
 In process of construction she has 5 battleships, 2 armored cruisers, 8 protected cruisers and 10 torpedo boats.

Italy, despite its political crises, has 15 battleships in commission, 3 armored cruisers, 15 protected cruisers, 1 unprotected cruiser and 159 torpedo boats. She is now building
 boats.

The United States has in com-
 unprotected cruisers, 21 coast defense vessels, and 8 torpedo boats.
 We have in course of construction 8 battleships, 8 armored cruisers, 1 protected cruiser and 52 torpedo vessels. It will thus be seen that although this country is far behind each of the powers in the matter of battleships and indeed, inferior as to armored cruisers, at the present rate of progress, it will in a few years be second to Great Britain.— States.

Richland parish has increased her assessment over 1897, $52,269.
 The assessment rolls of Union parish for 1898, shows a decrease of $29,994.
 Admiral Dewey fired the first gun of the American-Spanish war, and also the last gun.

Spain lost forty-seven armed ships during the war of only four months, the value of them being put down at over $25,000,000.
 The citizens of Greenville are up in arms against the low lives and the tough joints of that city. They say that they will have to be closed—law or no law—they will have to go.

The Best Remedy For Flux.
 Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says:
 "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale at Guenard's drug store.

Fighting Joe Wheeler.
 "Gen. Wheeler started on the two miles' journey to the front in an ambulance. About half way to the front he met some litters bearing wounded.
 The veteran, against the protests of the surgeons, immediately ordered his horse, and after personally assisting the wounded into the ambulance, mounted and rode onward. The men burst into frantic cheers, which followed the General all along the line."
 —Santiago correspondence New York Tribune.

Into the thick of the fight he went, pallid and sick as a man.
 Born into an ambulance to the front, a ghostly whisper of a man; But the fighting soul of a fighting man, approved in the long ago, Went to the front in that ambulance, and the body of Fighting Joe.

Out from the front they were coming back, smitten with spanish shells—Wounded boys from the Vermont hills and the Alabama hills,
 "Put them into the ambulance; I'll ride to the front," he said; And he climbed to the saddle, and rode right on, that little old ex-coffee.
 From end to end of the long blue ranks rose up the ringing cheers, And many a powder blackened face was furrowed with sudden tears, As with flashing eyes and gleaming sword, and hair and beard of snow, Into the hell of shot and shell rode little old Fighting Joe.

There was work for him to do, Where his country's best blood splashed and flowed 'round the old red, white and blue.
 Fevered body and hero heart! This union's heart to you Beats out in love and reverence—and to each dear boy in blue Who stood or fell 'mid the shot and shell, and cheered in the face of the foe, As, wan and white, to the heart of the fight rode little old Fighting Joe!
 —James L. Gordon, in the Plaidiear.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L.

McEnery as a Possible Candidate.
 The West Baton Rouge Sugar
 Planter says:
 Will Senator Samuel D. McEnery become a candidate for Governor at the next election? is the question now agitating politicians throughout the State. Some of Gov. McEnery's friends assert that Washington life is distasteful to him; that his hearing is impaired to such an extent that he can no longer enjoy the debates in the Senate; that he desires to return to Louisiana; and that, above all things else, he is anxious that the Democratic party should re-nominate and re-elect him Governor of Louisiana as a sort of vindication of the charges of corruption made against him by his political enemies in the bitter campaign of 1892. On the other hand, many of McEnery's old followers claim that he is getting too old to properly occupy the gubernatorial chair, and that he should give way to a younger and more vigorous man; that his candidacy would arouse much of the old factional bitterness, now buried and almost forgotten; that he has enjoyed every honor the State could bestow upon him, and that finally, so far as a vindication is concerned, he was fully and amply vindicated two years ago by the legislature which elected him to the United States Senate—the highest honor within the gift of the people. The following communication, received a few days ago by one of the most prominent Democrats in this parish, may, however, throw some light on the subject of Senator McEnery's possible candidacy for the Governorship. The name of the sender as well as that of the recipient of this letter, is suppressed:
 NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1898.

Dear Sir—Your sterling Democracy, and recognizing the fact that in the past you have been a fast friend and supporter of Gov. Sam'l D. McEnery, is my reason in writing you. A large number of the best people in the State are very anxious regarding the political future. It is almost the unanimous verdict that Gov. McEnery is the only man who can bring all of the factions of the Democratic party together, and are urging him to become the standard bearer of the unterrified and united Democracy at the next election. At the request of Gov. McEnery's friends in this city, I have consented to take charge of the correspondence, and will be pleased to hear from you on this subject matter. Will you kindly furnish me with the names and addresses of four or five friends of Gov. McEnery in your parish—Awaiting your reply, I am very truly yours,

CHARTER
 EAST CARROLL CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION.
 State of Louisiana, Parish of East Carroll.
 Be it known and remembered that on this 27th day of June, 1898, before me, W.
 J. Montgomery, a Notary Public for the parish and state aforesaid, personally appeared the several persons whose names are hereto subscribed, who, in the presence of the undersigned witnesses, declared that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this state relative to the organization of corporations, have contracted, and do by these presents contract and agree, bind and obligate themselves, as well as such other persons as hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a body corporate in law under the name and purposes and under the title of THE EAST CARROLL CHARITABLE TABLE ASSOCIATION, under which name and title the said corporation shall exist for twenty-five years; shall have power to sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal, and to break or change same at pleasure; to be designated by the board of directors; to purchase, hold, own, mortgage or pledge real estate and personal property; to accept donations for the relief of the sick, to appoint such officers and agents as in the interests of the corporation may demand, and generally to do all such acts and things necessary and convenient for the carrying out of the objects of this corporation as hereafter stated.

ARTICLE II.
 The domicile of this corporation shall be at the Mount Lebanon Church on Holly plantation, in East Carroll parish, Louisiana; and all citations and other legal process shall be served on the president, and in his absence on the secretary.

ARTICLE III.
 The purposes for which this corporation is established and the work to be carried on by it is the formation of a charitable union for mutual aid and assistance among the members, and especially for the purposes of nursing sick members and procuring medicine and medical service for them, and such other things as they may require.
 2nd: Of burying deceased members and defraying their funeral expenses. 3rd: Of assisting the minor children and aged and decrepit parents of deceased members, in all necessary circumstances; and 4th: Of doing such other charitable work as may be authorized by a two-thirds vote of all the active members of the corporation, or as much thereof as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE IV.
 This corporation shall have power to establish branches anywhere in the state of Louisiana under such restrictions as may be adopted in the by-laws, provided, that all affiliated branches shall be governed by the charter and the by-laws of the Order. Provided further, that as soon as two or more branches shall have been established provision shall be made for not less than one annual convention of the order at which each branch shall have representation in proportion to its membership. Said convention shall have the power to amend this charter, but by-laws for the order, or the restrictions hereon, shall not be subject to the restrictions hereinafter set out.
 Provided further, that until this charter is amended in this respect the board of directors and officers of each branch of the Union shall be the supreme officers of the order.

ARTICLE V.
 All persons over twelve years of age shall be eligible to membership. The members shall be divided into two classes—Active and Honorary. Honorary members shall be excused from attending meetings and all active work, but they shall pay double the dues of active members. New members may be received at any meeting if the applicant is recommended by two members and duly elected; provided that all elections shall be by ballot, and three negative votes shall reject the applicant.

ARTICLE VI.
 The corporate powers of this order shall be vested in a board of directors composed of nine members, who shall hold office for one year, and until their successors are inducted into office. The directors shall be elected at an annual meeting held for that purpose on the 1st Monday of June, 1897, and of each succeeding year. At all elections, the majority of votes cast shall elect.
 In case of failure of such officers as provided, this corporation shall not be dissolved thereby, but the directors and other officers shall continue in office until their successors are elected at a special meeting called for that purpose after ten days notice.

ARTICLE VII.
 Until the first election under this charter on the 1st Monday of June, 1897, as above provided, the following named persons shall serve as directors and officers, to-wit: Richard Collins as President, John Jenkins as Vice President, Charles Williams, Jr., as Treasurer, J. W. Goodwin as Secretary, and Jas. Gwynne, W. A. Collins, Louis Atlas, Mette Doyals and Julius Burks.

ARTICLE VIII.
 The board of directors (except as provided herein) shall choose from their own members a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall have and exercise the usual and customary powers of such officers, and shall hold office during the term of the board. The board shall have power to require such bonds from its officers as it sees fit, to all its officers in its ranks or
 ing called for that purpose after ten days notice, and generally to do and perform each and every act necessary and beneficial in carrying out the objects and purposes of the order.
