BORN—To Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Pulford a bouncing baby boy. We congratulate the happy parents, and wish the little one a long life.

Work on the new race track was begun Monday last, and before very long Opelousas will be able to boast of as fine a track as any country town in the State.

Thursday evening, about five o'clock, while working on the Tansy house, Mr. Charles P. White had the misfortune of being hit in the face by a hammer that fell from above. His lip was pretty badly cut.

A special meeting of Humble Cottage Lodge No. 19, F. & A. M., was held in the hall of that order Friday night of last week, and Mr. Jonas W. Bailey, Jr., of near Washington, was taught how to ride the goat in the first degree.

Mrs. B. F. Meglin, who lately purchased the Tansy residence on the corner of Market and North streets, is having an addition built to the house and otherwise improving the property before moving in.

Monday night the Homestead and Loan Association met and elected the following to constitute a board of directors: J. J. Thompson, V. K. Irion, A. Delarue, M. Vilaseca, E. D. Estlette, Joseph Bloch, James Jacobs, J. T. Skipper, I. E. Shute, T. George Chachere and A. Levy. Mr. Leonce E. Littell secured the loan of $1000 at 20 per cent.

Mr. Charles S. Elms was out riding Tuesday evening in a surry drawn by his horse "John." When near the Dupre livery stable "John" took a notion to have a little race, having become frightened. He was finally stopped, after doing some damage. Thursday the same horse, hitched to a gig in which Charles's two little brothers were riding, thought he would repeat the run-away episode, which he did to perfection by smashing up the gig.

Last Sunday, the 17th inst., was the day devoted by the sons of the Emerald Isle to the memory of their patron saint. The day was fittingly observed by all from the "ould cuntry," and in New Orleans it was quite a gala day, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians turning out en masse. Mr. Pat Cosgrove, of Bellevue, has our thanks for a piece of genuine shamrock, which was sent to him by his mother in Ireland.

Among the most prominent men that we see mentioned in the papers as candidates for Governor next year are the present incumbent, Gov. Murphy J. Foster, Attorney General M. J. Cunningham, Congressman Charles J. Boatner of the Fifth district and Andrew Price of the Third. This is only rumor, and of course there is no telling which ones will pull down and leave the field for other contestants.

The proverbial "March winds," as usual, are late in making their annual visit. The visit is not very pleasant, to say the least, for if there is anything more disagreeable than to encounter these stiff south winds we have been unable to find it. It is indeed a blessing that the long and continual rains have made way with the dust, otherwise the winds would be a thousand fold more unbearable.

The Greenwood plantation of Dr. V. Boaght, a mile west of town, was a lively place several days this week. Wagons—and legion of them—from every section of the country were there, loading up and carrying off seed cane, which had been matted up since fall. It was free to all who applied, as the owner of the place probably thought it a risk to plant it, useless to try to sell it and a sin to let it rot; so he pursued the one wise plan by which anyone can get rid of anything—give it away, and it didn't take long for the people to haul it away. Thursday morning we counted seventeen wagons in the field, and others were going there.

ONCE AGAIN.

The alarm of fire threw the town into a fever of excitement at about 9 o'clock Monday morning when from the roof of Mr. C. N. Ealer's jewelry store on Main street was discovered to have caught fire from a defect in the flue. It was promptly extinguished before it had done much damage. It was fortunate that it was discovered in its incipency, as there was a slight breeze from the south and with a delay of ten or fifteen minutes it would have been past control and the heart of the business portion of town would have gone up in smoke.

We hope these frequent fires, which, luckily, have always been discovered in time to prevent serious consequences, will serve to impress our property holders with the absolute necessity for an effective system of waterworks, and, if it should prove necessary to resort to extra taxation, which we hope it will not, to secure them, they will look upon it in a favorable light, and not oppose any reasonable effort of the council looking towards the all-important consummation—WATERWORKS.

THE RACES.

As advertised, the trotting and running races came off on the old Opelousas race track last Sunday, and quite a crowd, numbering several hundred, witnessed the sport. In the trotting race Mr. Firnberg's horse, "Pat Maloy," won in three straight half-mile heats. Mr. Aguilard's horse was in bad condition, having become very lame. This probably was the reason why he did not make the race more interesting for the winner. The purse was $50, which went to the winner, Mr. Firnberg.

The running race was between the dun horse of Mr. E. K. Wallior and the gray horse of Mr. James Healey. The race was won by the dun, and the purse of $20 went to his owner.

STILL BOOMING.

A meeting of the stockholders of the race track association was held at the courthouse on Wednesday night for the purpose of receiving and adopting the charter which was reported by the committee appointed for that purpose. After discussion it was accepted and ordered published. It will be found in this issue.

Twenty-three additional shares of stock were reported by Mr. M. Firnberg as placed by him, which will make $230 more to be added to $1,480 previously subscribed, which sums up $1,710 subscribed up to that time.

As will be seen by the charter, the association has the privilege of equipping a race and bicycle track, a base ball, lawn tennis and fair grounds.

BOHON, 10,386.

We call special attention to the advertisement in this issue of the celebrated trotting stallion Bohon, 10,386, property of Dr. L. Daly, of Jewel Farm. Bohon, besides being a cross between two of the greatest families of the world's trotters, is himself a trotter, as his trial of 2:27 proves. And the uniformity with which he stamps his size, form and color on his offspring goes to prove that he has inherited from his ancestors to a marked degree that great and necessary breeding capacity. We predict that the public will not be slow to realize the Doctor's great offer, and that Bohon's book will be well filled ere the season closes.

REWARD OF MERIT.

It will be gratifying intelligence to the friends of Mr. Jno. A. Stagg, who occupied a position in the tax collector's office in 1892, but who has been a resident of New Orleans for more than two years past, to learn that he passed a satisfactory examination and has been ordered to report to fill a clerical position in the Treasury department at Washington, D. C. He was always a sober, studious and persevering young man, and his appointment to the position was well merited. He is the son of Mr. Alfred Stagg, of Old Grand Prairie.

DIPLOMAS.

There is nothing that the ambitious student prizes more highly and which he will strive harder to obtain than the diploma from the college or school he attends; and there is nothing that can stimulate more actively this quality in a student than the awarding of an elegant certificate of merit at the close of his school days. Knowing the appreciative sentiments of students in general and of his in particular, Prof. Shaffer has ordered some elegant and elaborate diplomas, and will inaugurate the system of issuing them in the High School. Let the boys and girls now work hard to merit them.

And now, on the heels of the Gould-Castellane marriage, comes the announcement that Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, another New York heiress with more money than brains, is going to buy herself a real English duke. It is said she will wed the young Duke of Marlborough, the prodigal son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill. The purchase price is not stated; but it can be reasonably surmised that it will be a good round sum. Bankrupt nobility comes high, but the average American heiress must have it.

If prospects count for anything, we will have a good fruit crop this year. The peach, pear and plum trees budded and bloomed later this season than formerly, thereby escaping the killing blasts, frosts and frosts of winter that we experienced some weeks ago. It is to be hoped that another cold wave will not blow down from the north and ruin what prospects we now have.

DEED.

WILSON—At his residence in Opelousas, on Tuesday, March 19, 1895, at 11 o'clock a. m., Joseph Wilson, aged 28 years and 6 days.

Mr. Wilson was well-known in this community, where he has lived several years. He was a native of New Orleans, and moved here, in company with his mother, Mrs. K. V. Johnson, to embark in the mercantile business with Mr. E. J. Clements. The death of Mr. Wilson at such an early age is indeed sad, for he leaves not only an unspent life behind him, but also a wife and mother to mourn his loss. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

KELLY—At his home, near Bayou Chicot, La., on Friday, March 8, 1895, Westley Kelly, aged 83 years.

He was a native of Virginia, but for a number of years a resident of this parish. Deceased was the father of G. W. R. and Westley Kelly of this parish. "After life's fitful fever," he sleeps well. An honest, upright man, a good citizen and a kind and indulgent father, full of years, has been called home to rest in the house where the many mansions are. For some good purpose he was permitted to live out man's allotted three score years and ten; and while the beauties of earth were hidden from his gaze during the last few years of abiding with us, he never murmured or complained that he was blind. But with the evening of life upon him, who can tell what beauties his sightless orbs may have been permitted to see on the radiant shore of the great beyond? Let his children emulate his virtues and heed his precepts. This man surely honored his father and mother, for were not his days long in the land? May the sod of Louisiana rest light o'er the bosom of the Virginia gentleman.

A FRIEND.

CHACHERE—Near Opelousas, on Saturday, March 16, 1895, Lillian Bertha, infant daughter of A. L. Chachere, aged 2 years and 6 months.

Wednesday evening last a wagon drove up to the jail yard gate, and lying stretched on a pallet on the bed of the wagon was a negro woman, Delia Harris, held down by several other women so as to prevent her from injuring herself or anyone else, for she was stark mad, and had to be confined. She was placed in a cell in the fort, where she will await an examination by the medical authorities.

Ville Platte.

Monday, March 18.

After so much bad weather the beautiful sunshine is all the more welcome by us, and we sincerely hope it will continue, so the farmers may begin their crops, with which we wish them much success.

Miss Florence Thompson entertained a few of her friends last Saturday, it being her fifteenth birthday. Among those present we note Misses Victoria and Celeste Landreane, Sophia Sylvestre, Edna Corell and Helen Vidrine. Among her presents received were a beautiful pair of gold bracelets, donated by her father.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. D. C. David, one of the teachers of the Evangeline Academy, is quite ill with an attack of pneumonia, but we hope that Mr. David will soon be able to attend to his duties.

Miss S. Sylvestre, of Plaisance, has been spending a few days with her friend Miss E. Corell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Dardeau made a flying trip to Washington Friday last.

The scholars of the Evangeline Academy have organized a debating society, of which the following officers were elected: Miss H. Vidrine, President; Mr. L. I. Ortego, Vice President; Mr. Emile Leudean, Secretary; Miss M. Thompson, Corresponding Secretary; Miss Edna Corell, Treasurer; Miss Florence Thompson, Librarian; Miss Valerie Moulleaud, Marshal; Mr. J. Guiljory, Doorkeeper. We wish these young people great success. Mr. E. Ortego, the able teacher of the Evangeline Academy, deserves much credit, as he has taken great pains in organizing this society. It is the intention of the members of the society to give an entertainment to furnish them a library, which is very much needed in our little village.

Mrs. E. J. Conway, of Tate's Cove, was in town this evening, the guest of Mrs. O. Moulleaud.

We hear that our young friend Mr. A. Dardeau will enter his new residence soon.

Miss B. Tatman, one of the fairest teachers of the Evangeline Academy, has been seriously ill, but we are happy to learn that she is improving.

Mr. L. M. Corell, who has been on a business trip, returned to his home this evening.

The Misses Stagg, of Grand Prairie, accompanied by Miss Mamie Curley, were the guests of Miss H. Vidrine.

Misses Edna Corell and Florence Thompson, while out driving this evening, the horse became frightened and threw them out of the buggy, but fortunately neither of them were seriously injured.

Dr. E. Thompson, one of the Ville Platte's popular physicians, made a business trip to Chicot and reports the roads to be in an awful condition.

There are a great many sick persons in our little neighborhood, and the doctors are complaining of being overworked.

Prairie Boats.

Wednesday, March 20.

Weather bright and pretty with cold north winds. No sign of rain, but we have had such a continuance of rainy weather that the highways are in a fearful condition and much in need of dry weather and work.

The farmers are very late with their work. A very limited amount of corn has as yet been planted. We are glad, however, to note a good stand of oats generally.

There is much sickness about the country. We are sorry to hear that the little son of Mrs. Ambrose Landry is not expected to live; we tender heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

We were amused at our merchants in their rivalry for eggs during the last two weeks, when eggs suddenly became so abundant that each one thought he had advantage of the others—he thought sure he was getting all the egg trade. They were smiles from morning till night; but every time the market report would reach them—about twice a week—they changed their smiles for a look of disappointment, which told of their heavy losses.

We were sorry to see the all-around disappointment on last Sunday. According to friend Crustacea's hint in last week's CLARION "my neighbor" called to see him, but Crustacea had gone to carry a clean message to another neighbor; and the other neighbor, having unexpectedly been called away the evening before, had to break the appointment, but was thoughtful enough to leave a mediator to receive the message.

STROLLING M.

Eunice.

Monday, March 18.

Town booming. An election for mayor and councilmen was held to-day, and the following were elected: Mayor, Dr. W. W. Duxon; councilmen, C. Courville, J. T. Dezauche, J. E. Porter, D. R. January and Gus Fusilier.

There are forty candidates for marshal!

Dr. Joseph is building a fine residence, and expects to bring his partner for life back with him in a few days.

Dr. Jones is also building a beautiful residence, and expects to move his family here shortly.

The top building is nearly completed, and will be one of the finest buildings in southwest Louisiana. We have also a new bakery and a barber shop going up.

Now what we want is a good newspaper.

We will have a daily mail here shortly, which will be appreciated by the community at large.

Business good. Look out for next fall.

Big Case.

Tuesday, March 19th.

In addition to congratulations offered in last week's CLARION to our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fogleman, on the celebration of their golden wedding, we are happy to state that their present health is such as bids fair to favor them with the privilege of enjoying the continuance of life and strength many years hence. Their children are now all grown and the grandchildren number twenty-seven.

The Union church committee gave another of their entertainments in Big Cane Hall last Wednesday night. The program consisted of a Fan Drill, an Old Folks' Concert and recitations, interspersed with music. The organ music by Mrs. C. W. Havard and violin by Mr. A. V. Andrus, was very good. Refreshments were sold. The crowd was much larger than had been expected as the weather was so unfavorable that it caused some to remain at home who had part in a portion of the program. Several from other neighborhoods were present. Proceeds twenty-eight dollars. Mrs. Hilliard Thom, of Melville, attended this entertainment, where many of her friends were glad to meet her as this is her first return since leaving as a bride about a month ago. After remaining a day or two with her parents, she returned to Melville. Miss Eliza Mitchell, of Waxia, who also attended, remained to spend sometime with Mrs. Hennigan and family.

Mrs. W. C. Scott and children, after spending sometime with her parents, have returned to their home in Alexandria.

Mr. Pator Turner arrived last week and is spending sometime with his brother, Rev. A. W. Turner, also his sister, Martha, who will remain and attend Mrs. A. C. Morrow's school.

Miss Annie Reynolds is in Odenburg, where she is the guest of Mrs. J. N. Oden.

Mr. J. H. Smith arrived last Friday and has been spending several days in this section where he has many friends who are always glad to meet him when he returns.

On Sunday night at 7 o'clock, fire was seen in Dr. V. C. Reynolds' corner. The alarm was given and willing neighbors would gladly have extinguished the flames, but after recurring about twenty barrels of corn it became impossible to prevent what remained and the crib from being consumed. The next day, Monday the 11th inst., Dr. C. A. Foote's office at Rosa, was destroyed by fire.

It is considered very unusual that showers of hail fell here during last December, January and again last Wednesday night the 13th, which, although brief, pelted vigorously while accompanied by sharp lightning and followed by a heavy rainfall.

Fishing parties from here are having good sport catching large fish in Bayou Waxia.

Grand Coteau.

Tuesday, March 19th.

Mrs. Estelle Smith has returned from New Orleans after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends.

Messrs. E. V. Barry, Lucius Guilbeau and Mentor Andrus, returned home from the city last Friday.

Miss Marie Barry and Master Ashton Barry, are spending several days with friends in Lafayette.

Judge Pavy's pleasant face was seen on our streets last Sunday. The Judge has many friends in our town, who enjoy his cordial shake of the hand.

Mr. George Bagnal, of Lafayette, has been the guest this past week of Mr. John Ope.

Mr. Gaston Haurist has secured a permanent position in New Orleans. Mrs. Haurist has bid adieu to her friends here to make the city her future home.

Mr. Grenier, of Canada, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Florina, also Miss Madeline and Mr. George Melchior, visited the Convent of the Sacred Heart. Mr. Grenier expressed himself much pleased with the institution and its accomplished teachers.

Misses Lou, Emma and Bertha Jones, of Carencro, attended church in town last Sunday.

With the dawn of Spring, our farmers are pushing work, planting corn as fast as weather will permit. One can scarcely content themselves in doors, and feels as if it were impelled to be out in the delightful warm sunshine; all should endeavor to beautify their homes by a little pleasant labor. Set out a few trees that lend their welcome shadows when the warm sunlight falls; plant a few flowers to brighten the green grass, and decorate your homes with their lovely and fragrant blossoms; these will make your home-life cheerful and attractive, at the same time nothing is more conducive to health and youthful gaiety than the refreshing and balmy Spring atmosphere. Don't shut up your houses for fear of the bright sun light, don't shut up your hearts for fear a good laugh will shake down the cobwebs left hanging there, and remember that a half hour's merriment in the open air will blot out many a care of the day.

Tribute of Respect.

HALL JEFFERSON DAVIS LODGE, OPELOUSAS, La., Feb. 21, 1895. WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the universe to remove from our midst our beloved brother, S. WILSON, at the early age of twenty-eight, and after a useful Pythian life of over four years. Be it further resolved, that in the death of our brother, S. WILSON, a true, faithful and zealous brother, a bright light, his wife and mother a devoted husband and son, and a devoted father, has been extinguished, and that the loss of his brightest and truest members, always ready to dispense aid, his knowledge and extent of charity whenever and wherever called upon. Be it further resolved, that we sincerely mourn the death of our brother, and extend our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family. Be it further resolved, that in token of respect for our deceased brother the jewels and implements of this Lodge be draped in mourning, and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy thereof be sent to the family under the seal of the Lodge, and that the local papers be requested to publish same. Fraternally submitted, J. L. FONTENOT, J. T. BRIDGES, R. E. V. B. JOS. FIEBERG, Committee.

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Post Office at Opelousas, La., for the week ending Mar. 22, 1895, which, if not called for within 15 days, will be sent to the dead letter office at Washington, D. C.: Mr. Ogans Augustine, A. Boom, J. E. Barry, Esq., Mrs. Mary Castle, Mrs. Mary Jane Frankard, Ann Greeno, Miss A. Henry, Mr. Orase Henry, Miss Agness Johnson, Mr. James T. Lopez, Miss Ophelia Mayor, Miss Oda McLeod, Clara Mathew, Mr. Louis Robinson, F. Richardson, Esq., Mrs. Eppy Sims, Miss Sarah Taylor, Julia Thompson.

In calling for the above please say "advertisers."

MINNIE PULFORD, P. M.

Mr. O. A. Durio, of Plaisance, was in town Thursday and gave us a call.

Repeat the Stock Ordinance! The people demand it.

BOHON, 10,386.

(TRIAL, 2:27.)

On account of the depression in business circles and scarcity of money, I have decided to reduce BOHON's service fee to the small sum of $15.00 the season. With unusual return opportunity seldom offered. To all who are inclined to elevate the character of their stock this is an excellent chance. A careful analysis of Bohon's pedigree, it will readily be seen that he is without doubt the best bred horse in Louisiana. Individual he has no superior.

BOHON, 10,386, Bohon's sire is not only a greater horse than the sire of any other horse in southwest Louisiana, but he ranks among the greatest of the world. His horse (son) son Nutwood, with his 121:20 performers is now considered the greatest horse living. The following table, taken from the performance of Bohon's sire, will give an idea of Bohon's greatness, as also an idea of the uniformity with which he transmits speed to his offspring, on down for generations.

He has FIFTY four standard 2:30 performers. FIFTY eight sons who have sired 401 2:30 performers. His daughters are the dams of 64 2:30 performers. 119 of his grandsons have sired 250 2:30 performers. Mares by sons have produced 138 2:30 performers. Twenty-one of his daughters have produced sires of 125 2:30 performers. Daughters have produced the dams of 12 2:30 performers.

Other descendants 121 in 2:30. Showing a grand total of 129 performers in 2:30 class descended from him. Harold, the sire of Bohon's dam, having sired the great Maud, who held the world's record for a greater number of years than any other animal living or dead, and who still holds it to high-wheel sires among the greatest of the world. Besides the peerless Maud, he has his credit 44 in 2:30 list, and among his grandsons (sons of his son) we find Zolt. J. 2:04½; Kremlin, 2:07½; Seal 2:08½ and others too numerous to mention.

In offering the services of Bohon, the cross between these two great families of the world, at the price stated, I must say that never before was such an inducement made to the horsemen, in this or any other country.

This High Bred Stallion will stand the present season, at my stable in Bellevue, five miles south of Opelousas, commencing Feb. 1, and closing July 1. He will be in the hands of an experienced groom, who will always be found at his post and who will politely and promptly attend to the wants of all patrons.

Pasture and attention to mares from a distance ten miles, fed from grain 8c. I will take same care of mares from a distance as of my own, but will not be responsible for accidents or escapes.

I afford us pleasure to show our stock to admirers of the horse, whether breeders or not, and we cordially invite an inspection at our stable, or on our farm, on any day.

All Fees Payable in Advance, or settled by bankable note. No deviation from this rule on any account.
