

THE CLARION.

OPELOUSAS, OCT. 10, 1896.

I WANT YOUR PATRONAGE AND IF GOOD WORK AND REASONABLE PRICES...

Notice To The Public!

Having assumed control of the bakery until this date owned and managed by Mr. Pierre Titard...

Having turned over my bakery to Mr. Hart H. Sandoz, who will henceforth continue the business for his own account...

NOTICE. I respectfully announce to my patrons, and the public generally, that I will move to New Orleans on or about October 20th...

Little Locals.

The police jury meets next Monday.

Azelen L. Fruge, of Mamou, was in town Monday. While here he insured his property.

No excuse for not riding a bicycle now, at the low price that they are selling for at J. B. Sandoz's.

Country orders for bread and cakes promptly filled at H. H. Sandoz's bakery.

Attend the Bryan-Sewall-Democratic-Silver Club meetings every Monday night at the Opera House.

Don't fail to see the line of Ladies' Trimmed Hats at Firnberg Bros., from $1 up. See their Special Pattern Hats, $2 to $3.

An experienced baker and good material makes good bread—such can be found at H. H. Sandoz's bakery.

Joe F. DeVargas and C. F. Burr have bought out the lively stable of Capt. Snijth, on Landry street, and will conduct business at the old stand.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is cheaper than Quinine, because it does more permanent good.

Dr. Martin, the champion of white supremacy, and whom the grand jury had found an indictment against for murder, voluntarily surrendered last week.

A Worthy Enterprise. The second annual trade review of St. Landry parish, promises to be one of the most elaborate of its kind ever gotten up in this section.

Mr. Benedict Burr, the descriptive writer who is in the city collecting data for the work, is a man who has had extensive experience in this particular line of work.

The work will be profusely illustrated throughout with cuts of buildings, residences, and portraits of prominent business men of Opelousas.

Following The Election. The famous "Sunset Limited" service between New Orleans and San Francisco will be resumed, making the fastest time and according to the most luxurious service across the continent.

Gold Or Silver will be accepted at Firnberg Bros. They have just received the finest and cheapest stock of goods ever brought to our city.

ELECTION LAW.

Upon the face of each ballot, in horizontal lines parallelled with the top of the ballot, the names of all candidates nominated for any office shall be printed upon the title of the office, in alphabetical order according to surnames, and in capital letters of uniform type...

Section 72. In case the ballots to be furnished to any voting place, in accordance with the provisions of this act shall fail for any reason to be delivered or in any case after delivery they shall be destroyed...

Section 73. The officers whose duty it is to designate and appoint polling places in cities of more than 50,000 inhabitants shall cause the same to be provided with voting shelves and compartments known as polling booths...

Section 74. Be it further enacted, etc., Any person desiring to vote shall give his name, occupation and registration paper, if such be provided for, to the presiding commissioner...

Section 75. Be it further enacted, etc., On receiving his ballot the voter shall forthwith, and without leaving the enclosed space, retire alone to one of the voting booths or to the table or shelf and without undue delay, unfold and mark his ballot therein as hereafter described.

Section 76. Be it further enacted, etc., The undersigned Supervisors of Election of the parish of St. Landry, do hereby constitute and appoint the following named persons to serve as Commissioners and Clerks of Election...

Section 77. Be it further enacted, etc., The undersigned Supervisors of Election of the parish of St. Landry, do hereby constitute and appoint the following named persons to serve as Commissioners and Clerks of Election...

Section 78. The officers whose duty it is to designate and appoint polling places in cities of more than 50,000 inhabitants shall cause the same to be provided with voting shelves and compartments known as polling booths...

tion hereinafter provided for. The cards of instruction shall be immediately posted at or in each voting shelf or compartment provided in accordance with this act, and not less than three such cards shall be immediately posted in or about the polling room, outside the guard rail.

Every voter who does not vote a ballot delivered to him by the ballot commissioner shall, before passing outside the guard rail or enclosed space, return such ballot to such officer, who shall stamp the same "spoiled" and deposit in the box for spoiled ballots.

No voter shall be allowed to occupy a booth already occupied by another, or to occupy a booth or enclosed space more than three minutes or to speak or converse with any one, except as in this act provided, while within the guard rail.

Every ballot voted which is defaced or torn or which is marked otherwise than as in this section provided, shall be treated as a ballot marked for identification.

If a voter tear, soil or deface a ballot so that it cannot be used, he may successfully obtain others, one at a time, not exceeding in all three, upon returning each ballot so torn, spoiled or defaced to the commissioner, which ballot so returned or stamped "spoiled" across the official endorsement and placed in the box for spoiled ballots and entry of such fact made on the poll lists as required by this act.

The voter shall mark a ballot in the following manner and not otherwise. In marking the ballot in order to vote for individual candidates whose names are printed upon the ballot, he shall obliterate with the official stamp the white circle in the voting space at the right of the name of each candidate for whom he desires to vote.

In marking a ballot upon which is printed for submission to the voters any question of the adoption of a constitutional amendment, or any other proposition or question, he shall obliterate with the official stamp the white circle in the voting space after the word "yes" printed at the right of the question; or he shall obliterate with the official stamp the white circle after the word "no" similarly printed, or a negative vote upon such question.
