

From Monday's Daily.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. New Orleans, Oct. 11, 10 a. m. The station is not on the improve here, although the death rate is proportionately on the decrease.

There were thirty-six cases and six deaths here Saturday. Yesterday there were thirty-seven new cases and five deaths.

Among the deaths are: Sister Eugenia, of the Poydras Asylum. Mrs. E. A. Reppert. William Flood, the well-known stable man.

Carrie Hecker. Annie Casler, of Algiers. John McEnery. Mary Call.

There have been a total of sixty-one deaths and 577 cases. There are now under treatment 276 cases.

GALVESTON STAMPEDED.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. Galveston, Texas, Oct. 11.—Galveston is very much excited over the fact that Dr. Guiteras, the government expert, has reported yellow fever to exist in this city.

There has been a general stampede from the city, and all who can do so are fleeing for safety from the scourge.

Dr. Guiteras is being bitterly denounced, and many of the physicians here differ with him as to the correctness of the diagnoses of the cases. Others will neither admit or deny the correctness of the diagnoses, but are investigating further.

Although it is not certain in the opinion of many physicians, that the cases are really yellow fever, the authorities of the Island City are taking precautionary measures to prevent the spread of the disease.

Dr. Guiteras has gone to Houston to make an investigation there.

New Orleans, and practically the balance of the world, has quarantined against Galveston.

FALSE RUMOR.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. Scott, La., Oct. 11.—Dr. Fred J. Mayer is here. The rumor that Scott was getting freight from Cadz station is without foundation.

The Great Scott Fair, which was to have been held on the 9, 10 and 11, has been indefinitely postponed.

NINE FOR BILOXI.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. Biloxi, Miss., Oct. 11.—Biloxi had nine new cases and one death yesterday. The fight to prevent a spread of the fever is relentless, and, so far, very successful.

AT MOBILE.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 11.—One death and seven new cases was the record here yesterday.

AT McENERY.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. McEnery, Miss., Oct. 11.—The Board of Health reported two cases of yellow fever here yesterday.

JOSH PEARCE DYING.

Special to the St. Landry Clarion. New Orleans, Oct. 11th.—Josh Pearce, a telegraph operator, at one time stationed at Opelousas, is dying of yellow fever here. All hopes of his recovery have been abandoned, and his mother has been wired to.

ONE FOR CLINTON.

Brann Horsewhipped.

Editor Brann, of the Iconoclast, was horsewhipped a few days ago by a man named Scarborough, accompanied by his son, went to Brann's office and forced him into the street at the point of a pistol, and when they got him into the street they belabored him with whips and beat him into a senseless condition with clubs.

This man Brann has resorted to the vilest billingsgate to make his paper sought after by the public who delight in high sounding epithets and reading of a defamatory character. His popularity lies in his vile use of the English language, over which he is an indolgent master. Naturally gifted with a mastery over expression, he has used his talent to lower the profession of journalism to the taste of the morbid, and his degrading and proscriptive sicut should not be allowed to enter the sanctuary of a happy home.

Saddle Thief Caught.

About a year ago Mr. Pitre, living near Mr. Henry Lastrapes, had a saddle stolen from him, and it was not until Saturday that he discovered who was the thief. Wash Taylor turned out to be the guilty party, according to the circumstances and the negro's confession. The saddle was found on his horse Saturday, and when confronted with the evidences of his guilt he admitted having stolen it and then offered to compromise the matter by paying five dollars. He was arrested and brought to jail.

For some time trouble has existed between District Attorney Breazeale, of Natchitoches, and Hardy L. Brian, editor of the Louisiana Populist, over articles attacking the district attorney. A challenge was issued by Breazeale one day last week, and there was every prospect of a duel, but friends intervened and the difficulty was amicably adjusted.
