CAPTURED.

STANLEY GORDON BEHIND PRISON BARS.

Swords Gets 'Em Every Time.

Stanley Gordon, the negro who so cruelly murdered his wife a few weeks ago, is now safely lodged in Fortress Ewell.

The murder was committed in the night, and as he and the murdered woman and the helpless babes were the only occupants of the house.

But Sheriff Swords was particularly desirous of capturing this negro, on account of the atrocious nature of the crime.

Mr. Wallior naturally informed the marshal of that town of his mission, and solicited his aid.

As requested, Marshall Harris, perhaps thinking that there was a reward for the negro, went out for him himself.

Eleven National Tickets. Eleven national conventions have been held to nominate candidates for president and vice-president for the great battle of 1900.

The parties represented in four of these conventions have fused into two political organizations, leaving nine national tickets before the people. They are as follows:

Republican—President, William McKinley, of Ohio; vice-president, Theodore Roosevelt, of New York.

Democratic—President, William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska; vice-president, Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois.

People's Party (Middle-of-the-Road)—President, Wharton Barker, of Pennsylvania; vice-president, Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota.

People's Party (Fusion)—President, William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska; vice-president, Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota.

Social Democrats—President, Eugene V. Debs, of Indiana; vice-president, Job Harriman, of California.

Prohibition—President, John G. Woolley, of Illinois; vice-president, Henry B. Metcalfe, of Rhode Island.

United Christian—President, Rev. S. C. Swallow, of Pennsylvania; vice-president, John G. Woolley, of Illinois.

Delcon Socialist—President, Joseph F. Maloney, of Massachusetts; vice-president, Valentine Romill, of Pennsylvania.

Silver Republican—President, William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska; vice-president, Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois.

Venise-Dejean. The marriage of Mr. Albert (better known as "Bouten") Dejean and Miss Ludie Venise, both of this place, which occurred in New Orleans on Thursday, the 19th, was considerable of a surprise to the friends and relatives of both parties.

The happy incident smacks very much of the romantic, but in this case it was not on account of parental objection. Miss Venise left here on Monday for Thibodeaux, and the next day Mr. Dejean followed. Accompanied by near relatives of that town, they proceeded to New Orleans and were married.

The Clarion extends its felicitations to the happy young couple.

A Chance To Sell Texas Lands. The Sunset-Central Lines, in pushing the agricultural and farming interests of the State to the fore, have inaugurated several innovations in order to reach the desired end.

Realizing that it would be useless to bring settlers into the State unless lands could be secured at reasonable figures, the Immigration Department of the Sunset-Central Lines, under Immigration Agent, John Howard, has issued a circular calling upon all persons having land for sale to forward to headquarters at Houston a list of the lands with description of location and improvements.

The circular, which is signed by Passenger Traffic Manager S. F. B. Morse, and Immigration Agent John Howard, sets forth that lands without perfect title are not wanted; also that commissions are not received on sale of lands; and it furthermore suggests that prices quoted be adhered to for a reasonable length of time.

The object of this move of the Sunset-Central Lines is to bring the land seller in touch with people desiring to locate in Texas, and is but another lever which will work to the upbuilding of this great State.

It is urgently desired that all persons having land for sale com-

TOWN TAX SALES

OF MOVABLE AND IMMOVABLE PROPERTY.

The Town of Grand Coteau vs. Delinquent Tax Debtors.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, I will sell, at the Town Hall at Grand Coteau, within the legal hours for judicial sales, beginning at 11 o'clock a. m., on Saturday, Sept. 1st, 1900, and continuing on each succeeding day, until said sales are completed, movable and immovable property on which taxes are now due to the town of Grand Coteau, to enforce collection of taxes assessed in the year 1899, together with interest thereon from the 31st day of December, 1899, at the rate of 2 per cent per month until paid, and all costs. The names of said delinquent taxpayers, the amount of taxes due by each on the assessment of said year, and the movable and immovable property assessed to each to be offered for sale as follows, to-wit:

Andrus, M. 6 lots and improvements, in the town of Grand Coteau, bounded north by H. Barry, south by St. Joseph street, east by Cross street and west by St. Richard and C. Gardener, valued at $700; taxes $7.50 with interest and cost.

Simond, August. One lot and improvements, in the town of Grand Coteau, bounded north by J. C. Stay, south by Main street, east by Market street and west by Cross street, valued $65; taxes 65¢, with interest and cost.

On said day I will sell such portion of said property as each debtor will not point out and in case the debtor will not point out sufficient property, I will at once sell without further delay, all the least quantity of said property of any debtor, which any bidder will buy for the amount of taxes, interest and cost due by said debtor. The sale will be without appraisal, for cash in legal tender money of the United States, and the property sold shall be redeemable any time for the space of one year by paying the price given including costs and twenty per cent thereon.
