

THE CLARION

SUPPLEMENT.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1901.

JURY VENIRE.

State of Louisiana, Sixteenth Judicial District Court, of St. Landry Parish.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the 11th day of January, A. D., 1901, we, C. B. Andrus, J. E. Dailey, J. F. Vidrine, jury commissioners, duly qualified and sworn in and for the parish of St. Landry, Louisiana, met at the clerk's office at the court house, for said parish, in the town of Opelousas, and in company with H. E. Estorge, clerk of the above-named court and ex-officio jury commissioner, for said parish, legally qualified and sworn as such, and then and there, in presence of Alfred Pavy and Christian Mornhinveg, disinterested witnesses, free holders, residing in said parish of St. Landry, proceeded to draw a grand jury and petit jurors for two weeks, beginning on Monday, the 18th day of March, 1901, all the legal requirements having been complied with and all laws relative to jury drawing, and especially to Section — of Act No. — of 1898 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, approved.

We proceeded in the presence of the above-named witnesses, to draw from the general venire box, containing the names of three hundred good and competent men, citizens and voters and qualified jurors of said parish, the names of twenty citizens possessing the qualifications prescribed by aforesaid Act, section (1), taken from different portions of the parish as far as it was practicable to be subject to duty as grand jurors, during the term of six months, beginning on the 4th day of March, A. D., 1901, the names of said persons and their place of residence is as follows, to-wit:
