ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Clerk.

We are authorized to announce CHARLES LAFLEUR, as a candidate for the office of Clerk of Court of St. Landry Parish, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Constable.

We are authorized to announce
A. L. CHACHERE, as a candidate for the office of Ward Constable for the First Ward of the Parish of St. Landry, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Governor Heard has refused to commute the death sentence of A.
E. Batson, twice convicted in Lake Charles for the murder of the Earl family at Welsh, Calcasieu parish, on the ground, as he said, that he had not been presented with sufficient evidence of the condemned man's innocence to warrant his interference with the action of the courts. He showed plainly that his sympathy was with the believed mother, but stood firm on his convictions of Batson's guilt.
When Mr. Sompayrac, his attorney, announced Governor Heard's decision to Batson, he, of course, showed slight signs of being affected by it, but said nothing.
On being interviewed by a reporter, he said that there was "nothing doing for the paper." After telling Mr. Sompayrac that his attorneys had done all they could for him, he thanked them for it, and retired to his couch. Yesterday (Friday) was the day named for his execution.

Will A. Steidley, of Calcasieu, who is a strong candidate for the State Treasury, knows a thing or two about politics. We notice by the State press that he is "seeing the boys" in every section of the State—and more, too, he is really making speeches. A newspaper man is generally the poorest kind of an orator, but office will make any of 'em talk.

The coronation ceremony of Pope Plus X took place in the Basilica of St. Peter's on Sunday last, in the presence of the Prince and high dignitaries of the Church, diplomats and Roman nobles, and with all the solemnity and splendor associated with this, the most magnificent rite of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope Plus X had a fainting fit Tuesday evening, while celebrating mass. His Holiness soon revived.
The strain was too much for a man of his age, and there is alarm felt for his future welfare.

The New Pope.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE NEW HEAD OF THE CHURCH.

Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto was born at Riese, Province of Venice, July 2, 1835. He was created Cardinal and Patriarch of Venice June 12, 1893. He was very learned in the ecclesiastical doctrines, is modest, energetic, a good administrator and organizer, a patron of the arts, and his seriousness has always been proverbial.

Early in April, Pope Leo, in a conversation with Father Perosi, the Italian composer, said, in speaking of Cardinal Sarto:

"Hold him very dear, Perosi, as in the future he will be able to do much for you. We firmly believe he will be our successor."

He has been known for many years as one of the greatest preachers in the church.

Cardinal Sarto belonged to the Ecclesiastical Congregation of Bishops and Regulars, Sacred Relics. He enjoyed great popularity in his diocese. He is honored by all for his purity, for the strict uprightness of his life and for liberal ideas. He is a modest and agreeable man, highly cultivated, very kind-hearted and still strong and robust in spite of his 68 years. He has never taken great part in the political and public life of the church, but divided his time between study and good works. Although most faithful to the Holy See, he was presented to the king and queen of Italy in Venice. He was considered among the more liberal members of the Italian Episcopate and Sacred College. It is said that Leo XIII sided with him on one occasion when Sarto disapproved of Rampolli's policy.

The Hit of Broadway.

"THE MAN IN THE BOX" IS THE GREATEST NICKEL EATER
OF ALL.

The man in the box is the hit of Broadway. The bears are crying for more of him, says the New York Sun. Not since the gambling machines were pulled out and sent to junk has there been such a nickel eater. The first Broadway hotel to put one in the bar wasn't a bit enthusiastic about it. The proprietor sat it there to oblige a friend. Pretty soon a wine buyer happened in.

"What is the game?" he wanted to know.

"Just a new weighing machine," said the bartender. "Drop in a nickel and it tells your weight."
"And plays a tune?" asked the man.

"No, just tells your weight."

"I can get that done for a cent on the elevated station," said the wine buyer. "But what's the horn?"

"That's where the weight comes out," explained the bartender.

"A ticket with my fortune on it?"

"No, it just tells your weight."

"I'm on," finally said the wine man.

"But, say, you're the poorest demonstrator I ever saw. You couldn't sell gold pieces for coppers."

The man got on the machine, put in a nickel, and instantly the voice shouted "one ninety-six."

The bar-room woke up the sound. It was distinctly a phonograph voice, but the suddenness and volume of the answer were catching. Men fought for a chance to spend their nickels, and the cigar counter was made busy with the changing of larger coins.

When the nickel goes in and the weighing apparatus is put in motion the thing which falls to the weight of the person on the scales releases a cylinder which drops in to a phonograph. The cylinder has three or four words of the man's weight, the phonograph utters them, and they are carried by the horn right to the ear of the man on the scales.

Orleans, has just sent out placards setting forth the Louisiana game
