

RICE NUTRILINE

A WORD FROM BUDD

I beg to announce that I have opened a Refreshment Parlor at my old stand, located on the corner of Bellevue and Court streets. In doing so, I wish to say a few words touching the purpose and conduct of the place, so that there might be no misunderstanding between myself and the public:

It Is My Intention To Keep Non-Intoxicating Drinks Only.

It is my intention to keep a class of goods the quality of which there is none superior. It is my intention to have my place at all times in such condition as to bear inspection from the most critical—be they ladies, children or gentlemen, including in the latter class officers of the parish and city. It is my intention to make

CLEANLINESS, COURTESY AND LAW-OBSERVING

MY MOTTO. The entire interior of the building has been renovated, cleaned, repainted and repapered, and a cordial invitation is extended to everybody, including ladies and children, to pay the place a visit. My specialty is the refreshing, cooling, healthful beverage.

RICE NUTRILINE; IT TASTES LIKE BEER

Looks like beer, and it is beer, but not the kind of beer violative of the prohibition laws. It is the kind of beer drank in all fashionable refreshment parlors. A cordial invitation is extended the public to visit the Elk—Prohibition Elk. A line of domestic and imported cigars, cigarettes and tobaccos will also be kept.

VERY TRULY,

J. Adam Budd & Co., The Elk.

U. S. GOVERNMENT TO FIGHT BOLL WEEVIL

Agricultural Bill Will Carry Twenty-Five Thousand Dollar Appropriation

DEMOCRAT AND REPUBLICAN

United On Proposition to Increase Free Seed Appropriation—Other News of Local Interest to Louisiana.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The agricultural appropriation bill, which is to be reported to-morrow, will carry a special appropriation of $25,000 for fighting the boll weevil. That, however, is in addition to allowances made to bureaus which also will engage in the work. The special appropriation is to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to do whatever he thinks is necessary or desirable, out of the ordinary, in checking the spread of the insect pest. The appropriation for the plant industry and entomological bureaus, which will do some of the work, will be about the same as last year.

Members of the committee, Republicans and Democrats, intend to stand pat on the committee's decision to increase the amount for seed distribution for the fiscal year of 1910 by $75,000. An attempt on the floor of the House to increase or decrease the recommendation will be opposed by the united committee.

The bill provides for an increase of about $1,200,000 over the amount for last year, though the total is a cut of something like $1,700,000 in the estimates submitted by Secretary Wilson. The increase asked for seed distribution is due to the increase in the price that must be paid for the seeds. The quota of each Senator and Representative will be increased.

The bill will continue the provision for investigations looking to new sources for papermaking. A $10,000 appropriation has been decided upon by the committee for this purpose. During the present year government experts have discovered that paper can be made from corn stalks and bagasse, and the bill provides that the process may receive a commercial test in some of the New England paper mills.

For Coons Only.

The most peculiar thing, possibly, which has resulted from the enforcement of the Gay-Shattuck law is the fact that every license taken out for a saloon in the town of St. Francisville, in the parish of West Feliciana, was for colored people, the owners claiming that the patronage from white people was not sufficient to justify them in taking out a license for that race only. This must not be understood as implying that the white people of that devoted city do not indulge in the use of ardent Horrible Assassination, in Which Man and Two Women Are Murdered—Mother's Pleading Saves Young Baby.

Independence, La., Jan. 23.—The most horrible and most diabolical crime that was ever perpetrated in this parish transpired last night about 8 o'clock between Tickfaw and Genesee. Buzzy Breeland, his wife and stepdaughter were foully shot to death by persons in ambush. Breeland lived near Natalbany, and was on his way home from moving his stepdaughter, who was the wife of Joe Everett, who was killed at Little Zion Hill Church, Jan. 19.

Breeland gave his dying declaration to Wibur Nesom and S. B. Elzy, of Tickfaw, and others, to the following effect:

He and his wife had gone out to Little Zion Hill Church to move his stepdaughter, Mrs. Joe Everett, to their home, and just as he was near Genesee, his wife and stepdaughter behind and he ahead of the wagon, driving a cow, two persons fired on him from ambush. Thinking he was dead, they halted the wagon and were about to shoot the women when they begged them not to kill the baby. Then one of the assassins took the baby from its mother's arms and put it on the ground and deliberately took aim on the poor defenseless women and shot the brains out of one and filled the body of the other full of buckshot. Both women were instantly killed. Breeland gave the names of Avery Blount and Garfield Kinchen as being the parties who committed the awful crime.

Breeland said that Blount came back before leaving and looked into his face to be sure that he was dead, but that he succeeded in affecting to be dead and lay there until about 8:30, when he heard someone coming. A party of young people from Independence had been to a party at Hammond, and were on their way back when suddenly their horses came to a stop, seeing an obstacle in the road and smelling the blood. Marian Baham and Alphonse Faust, two of the young men in the party, got out of their buggy to ascertain what was in the road, when they discovered it was a buggy, and when they made a further examination they were horrified when they saw Mrs. Breeland was lying back in the wagon with her head blown to pieces and brains scattered all over the buggy, and Mrs. Everett was lying over on one wheel, with her body perforated with buckshot. They then heard the cry of the little baby, about three months old. Then they heard the groans of Breeland and discovered that he was in a dying condition, but was able to talk. Breeland told them his story. They then immediately went to Tickfaw persons came back with them to give assistance.

Among the rest were Mr. Nesom and Mr. Kelly, before whom Breeland made his dying declaration. Breeland was then taken to Natalbany to give him medical aid, but just as they were taking him out of the wagon he breathed his last. He lived about two hours after he was shot, being rational up to the moment he died.

Sheriff Saal was immediately notified and was on the scene this morning with several deputies.

Coroner George Sanders proceeded at once to hold an inquest and the following were sworn in as jurors: John Wascom, Captain Reed, P. D. Kemp, F. A. Alby and Dr. W. H. Brent, who rendered their verdict, but would not disclose publicly the names of the parties who committed the crime. The jury gave their verdict in full to Sheriff Saal. The latter immediately placed Avery Blount under arrest. The other party is supposed to be Garfield Kinchen, who has not been apprehended. Sheriff Saal sent out a large posse, who are now in search of the other party to the crime. Garfield Kinchen is a brother to Ben Kinchen, who was mixed up in the killing of the Everetts, and Mrs. Joe Everett being the wife of Joe Everett and Mrs. Breeland and Mrs. Joe Everett being the main eyewitnesses to the Everett killing, is supposed to form a basis to the motive for this bloody and most inhuman slaughter.

Obituary.

Died, on Jan. 14th, 1909, in Bellevue, Alonzo Pickett Carson, in the 22nd year of his age.

Realizing failing health, he came from Eunice where he had been at work. Death held no terror for the gentle boy; his suffering seemed to others too hard to bear, yet no murmur came from him. When rational he welcomed relations and hosts of friends with a smile. His desire was to go home; being told he was at home he replied "No Aunt Sallie, I want to go to my home and be well and happy." Reaching his hand heavenward with a happy smile, his glad eyes raised upward, whispered "Mama." He sleeps between his mama and Cousin Robert. Sleep sweetly, tender heart in peace; Sleep, holy spirit, blessed soul, While the stars burn, the moons increase And the great ages onward roll.

So let him sleep that dreamless sleep, Our sorrows clustering around his head. Be comforted, ye loved, who weep. He lives with God, he is not dead. AN AUNT HE LOVED.
