FOR WISE PEOPLE TO READ

ADVERTISING SHOWS THE PEOPLE THAT YOU ARE SINCERE

Advertising is the yard stick by which the public measures a man's faith in himself, his goods and his purpose. One's success in life depends upon personal effort. The man, be he young or old, who waits for a helping hand is doomed. Do not wait for things to turn up, but get out and turn them up for yourself. To work out one's own career requires confidence in one's self; without it there can be no effective effort. And advertising is the popular gauge of that confidence which can make effort effectual. Let the Clarion get up your advertising.

PROMOTIONAL ADVERTISING IN MANITOBA

The directors of the Winnipeg Industrial Bureau at their annual meeting received the commissioner's report which showed that the bureau's field of operation has grown to considerable magnitude since the establishing of the officers, two years ago. A synopsis of the more important of the work shows that 32,722 lines of paid advertising were placed, from which a total of 3,874 requests for information from manufacturers, capitalists, and others were received. These had been personally replied to by letter, and including others received from various sources, 237,721 pieces of statistical and illustrated printed matter were sent out. The bureau offices had handled 10,771 incoming communications, and had sent out 35,721 letters in 1907-08. Over 600,000 lines of press matter had been furnished, with which 900 photographs were supplied. A recapitulation of results shows that during the two years of operation 33 manufacturing establishments had started operations, 60 industrial and commercial incorporations were recorded in 1907, and 82 in 1908, with a total authorized capital of $28,616,600; bank clearings had increased at a greater rate than any city in Canada and population, building, and real estate had made gains along sound lines.

The same results could be gotten here with our rich soil and fine climate.

THE KITCHEN.

From the Woman's Home Companion for August:

AN APPLE BREAKFAST

The invitations were written on the backs of rosy cheeked apples cut from stiff paper and water-colored. Instead of place-cards at each cover there was for a souvenir, a china pepper and salt shaker, the happa and color of a red apple, the whole mounted on a green majolica apple leaf.

"Chopped pineapple and cherries served in glasses formed the first course. This was followed by a delicious fluffy omelet garnished with crisp bacon and sliced fried apples dusted with spice. Potatoes fried in tiny cubes, English muffins and toast were passed. There was a salad of chopped celery and Brazil nuts in apple cups. Then came apples cooked until transparent in a rich syrup flavored with green ginger root, and delicate white cake.

"Coffee was served in the library after which a silver cake-basket piled high with red and white apples was passed to the guests. The apples were in candy boxes, and on opening them we found a tiny pencil and card, on which was the following guessing game, the answers being the names of varieties apples:

A dainty food—crab. Very sharp—thorn. A favorite color for shoes—russet. A great river in North America—St. Lawrence. An excellent drink—cider. A man's name—Jonathan. A warm coat—Astrakhan. An Arctic explorer—Baldwin. Always carried by men—Adam. Enjoyed by children—snow. A famous body of water—Dead Sea. A tree liked by Ruskin—pine. The greatest thing in the world—Love.

"The first prize was a beautiful fruit-plate with a hand-painted border of apples. The consolation prize was a very large candy apple."

KNICKERBOCKER PUDDING

"Mix one and one-half cupfuls of orange-juice and one-fourth of a cupful of lemon-juice and sweeten to taste with granulated sugar," says Fannie Merritt Farmer. Turn mixture into a brick mold. Whip one pint of heavy cream until stiff and add one half cupful of powdered sugar, one half teaspoonful of vanilla and two thirds of a cupful of chopped walnuts. Pour cream mixture to overflow moulds. Cover with buttered paper (buttered side up) fit on cover, pack in salt and ice, and let stand three hours. There will be two distinct and delicious flavors."

COFFEE ICE-CREAM

"Scald one and one-half cupfuls of milk with one third of a cupful of ground coffee, and add one cupful of sugar," says Fannie Merritt Farmer. "Beat the yolks of three eggs slightly and add one fourth of a cupful of sugar and one fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Combine mixtures and cook in a double boiler until mixture thickens. Cool, add one quart of thin cream, strain through a double thickness of cheese-cloth and freeze. Did you ever try serving coffee ice-cream in halves of cantaloupes?"

COUPE HELENE

Cut canned sliced pineapple in small pieces and pour over one half the measure of the pineapple-syrup (flavored, if one chooses, with orange curacao)," says Fannie Merritt Farmer. Cover and let stand one hour. Fill glasses one third full of fruit, cover with vanilla ice-cream to fill glasses and garnish with candied pineapple cut in pieces and candied cherries."

A Gypsy King in New Orleans.

We read in the story-books of gypsy queens, and some years ago New Orleans had one who, it was claimed, had full authority over all of those people in this section of the country. She lived far up on Magazine Street, and a sign on the house proclaimed her royal authority, says the Picayune.

It appears that an official transaction which took place yesterday in Washington with grave formalities that a male gypsy, who resides in New Orleans, was elected head chief of all the people of that race in the United States. His name is Emil Mitchell.

Yesterday, in the capital city of the United States, were assembled in the office of a prominent law firm five tribe chiefs, gathered from the several sections of the Union and duly delegated by their respective tribes to journey to Washington and declare Emil Mitchell the new chief of all the gypsies.

Accompanying the tribe chieftains were several relatives of Mitchell, who went to the capital especially for the event, for this was a big day in the history of the wandering tribes. Mitchell's certificate of election reads as follows:

"Know all gypsies by these presents, that we, Wasoo Mitchell, Eli John, John Williams, Steve Miguel and Miller George, representing all the tribes of the gypsies of the United States, duly appointed under the customs, rules and laws of the gypsy tribes and of the United States, as representatives of said tribes, do appoint, elect and constitute Emil Mitchell, of the City of New Orleans, chief of all the gypsies of the United States, with authority to do and perform all things and acts pertaining to the said office that he may lawfully do under the rules, customs and laws of the gypsy people and not in conflict with the laws of the United States or any sovereign state."

After the important personages mentioned had fixed their signatures to the declaration it was recorded in the Department of State for authentication and was sealed with the great seal of the United States, and will be held by the aforesaid head chief to establish his position and authority. This action was made necessary by the departure of the former head chief, Zlatcho Dimito, to Canada.

Mitchell, the new head of the clan, is described as a stalwart man of about fifty years, with flowing whiskers. Anyone who has read George Borrow's books on the gypsies of Spain and England will find much of interest in those curious people.

Death of Mrs. Goodlett.

Mrs. Anna Hester Goodlett, aged sixty-nine years, died at 3:30 this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Mornhineg, at 621 Avenue G, after a lingering illness caused from old age. The deceased was born at Terry, Miss., in 1841 and removed to Lake Charles about twenty-five years ago. She has been residing with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Mornhineg, in this city for several years. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Downing of Opelousas and Mrs. Mornhineg of Crowley. Funeral services will be held at the Mornhineg home at 7 o'clock this evening and the remains will be taken to Lake Charles on the Orleane Sunday morning for interment.—Crowley Signal.

This contractor got results.

Some years ago a contractor building a railroad in a warm climate was troubled a great deal by sickness among the laborers.

He turned his attention at once to their food and found that they were getting full rations of meat and were drinking water from a stream near by.

He issued orders to cut down the amount of meat and to increase greatly the quantity of Quaker Scotch Oats fed to the men.

He also boiled Quaker Scotch Oats and mixed the thin oatmeal water with their drinking water. Almost instantly all signs of stomach disorders passed and his men showed a decided improvement in strength and spirits. This contractor had experience that taught him the great value of good oatmeal.

Packed in regular packages and in hermetically sealed tins for hot climates.
