

New Year Greeting FROM R. MORNHINVEG & SON

Just now the discreet buyer is looking for gift articles; our time is yours to command until the rush begins, moral, buy early. Besides the various lines in jewelry, diamonds, watches, clocks, silverware, etc., carried by a modern jewelry establishment, we would call your attention to the following articles you may add to your list. Leather bags, purses, wallets for ladies and gentlemen from $1.00 to $11.00. Gillette and other safety razors in sets and combinations from $1.00 to $10.00; Waterman fountain pens from $2.50 to $18.00; they sell on merit only. Umbrellas with detachable handles from $4 to $25, a bright and snappy line that will appeal to you at a glance. "Karnak Brass," a modern application of Egyptian Art in both useful and ornamental articles. Pocket knives from 50cts. to $3 pearl, gold and emblem handles, best steel blades, the line built with a conscience. Columbia Phonographs from $15 to $100 and an endless variety of records. "Hawkes" cut glass, the line without a peer. Silver for the table, the Norfolk and Chantilly, two Gorham patterns of charming simplicity, having refinement of design with the elimination of all ornament that is meaningless or ostentatious. Thirty-eight years of honest endeavor will appeal to you as the proper place to do your holiday shopping in lines that require knowledge, fairness and above all a desire to send you from our store a pleased and well protected customer. Once again we wish you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

LLOYD POSEY PASSES AWAY AFTER ILLNESS OF A FEW MONTHS.

E. Lloyd Posey, one of the prominent members of the legal profession in this city, and a leading real estate investor, died yesterday at his home, 8129 Green Street, after an illness of several months, although he had not been seriously ill until recently, says Tuesday's Times-Democrat.

Mr. Posey was not only active in business, but had been in all the independent political movements since the Young Men's Democratic campaign, and was a member of the State Senate in 1888-90. He was active in the campaign against the lottery and in the Citizens' League and Jacksonian Democratic and Home Rule fights. He owned a great deal of land around the city, which was formerly marsh, and was active in buying and selling agricultural and timber lands.

Mr. Posey was from a prominent St. Landry family, and was born at Opelousas Feb. 22, 1851, so that he was nearly sixty-one years old. He was the son of John Posey and Mary T. Taylor, and was educated at Spring Hill College, at Mobile, and graduated from the Law Department of the University of Louisiana in this city about thirty-five years ago, since which time he has practiced law continuously. He was a man of especially agreeable manners, and was very popular in the city.

Mr. Posey married Dec. 20, 1884, Miss Mathilde Cook, of this city, daughter of Fedesick H. Cook, who survives him. He leaves four daughters, Misses Ethel, Mathilde, Lena and Rosalie, and a son, E. Lloyd Posey, Jr.; two brothers, W. O. Posey, of this city, and F. E. Posey, of Baton Rouge, and a sister, Mrs. W. W. Ventress, of Iberville Parish.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence and Mater Doloresa Church, on Carrollton Avenue, and the interment will be in the new St. Louis Cemetery on Esplanade Avenue.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given that I have applied to the Town of Melville for a license to operate a saloon for the sale of liquors, to colored people, in the town of Melville, during the year 1912, at the same stand at which I am now conducting a saloon. dec23-3t PAUL ARTALL

Tired Out?

YOU'VE had a hard day at the office. Too many calls upon your nervous energy; too much worry and brain work; too many responsibilities. The strain of business takes all the life and vigor out of you.

Never mind. Just take a sip of

CREAM OF KENTUCKY
"THEE" WHISKEY

It will do you a world of good! It will smooth out the lines of care and anxiety. It will drive all thoughts of trouble from your mind. It will make you your old self again. And you know its good! It brings the smiles to your face and the sparkle to your eyes even before it has fairly touched your lips. And it will keep you smiling all day tomorrow.
