EVERYBODY'S STORE

The women exercise 90 per cent. of the Retail Buying Power of the Country. I realize that I have not heretofore catered sufficiently to them. To make amends I made in New York a phenomenal purchase of over 500 Ladies' Wash Dresses and Suits. I'm going to see during the week beginning how many of these delightfully cool and charming dresses I can sell by naming prices absolutely irresistible. Not a half, but a third and even a quarter of their actual value will buy 'em.

SATURDAY, AUG. 2d

At $1.19

THREE LOTS

No. 1. A solid colored percale, all sizes to start, both ladies and misses, they're handsomely embroidered and easily worth $3.00.

No. 2. Assorted solid colors, gingham and percales, embroidered V neck, dependable goods, piped with white. Some stores would get $3.25 for this.

No. 3. An odd lot of samples, white and colors, worth up to $4.00. Any of the three lots, $1.19.

At $1.49

Large assortment Tub dresses, gingham and percale, mostly dainty checks, in white with black, blue, etc.

At $1.79

These are really beauties. Some pure linen in natural color, neatly trimmed with buttons—others in white pique.

At $2.24

This is par excellence the greatest Summer Dress Bargain ever offered. A beautiful, pure linen, heavy crash, buttons to match. Dainty maline and net ties, trimmed daintily with white pique. This suit was made to retail at $6.50 to $7.00. Dandy for porch wear, traveling, or the street.

At $3.24

A small selection of Voiles, Organdies, and fine linens, very handsomely embroidered; elegant in every way; worth from $10.00 to $12.50 in any city store. Come early for these as assortment is limited.

Sale begins Saturday, August 2d.

Boll Weevils are reported to have made their appearance in several fields, near here, but, as yet, they are not doing much damage. It is hoped that the rainy weather will hold off for a few days, since with dry weather and hot sun the weevils are not so bad.

Suffered Eczema Fifty Years—Now Well.

Seems a long time to endure the awful burning, itching, smarting, skin-disease known as "tetter"—another name for Eczema. Seems good to realize, also that Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment has proven a perfect cure.

Mrs. D. L. Kenney writes:—"I cannot sufficiently express my thanks to you for your Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. It has cured my tetter, which troubled me for over fifty years." All druggists, or by mail 50c. PFEIFFER CHEMICAL CO. St. Louis, Mo. Philadelphia, Pa.
