

NAZIMOVA

—IN HER GREATEST PRODUCTION—

—IN—

“THE RED LANTERN”

“THE RED LANTERN” gives NAZIMOVA, the Star of Unfathomable depths, a dual role which reveals the tremendous range of her rare artistry. It is a play of deep undercurrents, telling the story of an Eurasian girl—the daughter of two races—who feels the eternal conflict of alien blood forever raging in her soul. It is a theme to wake the pulses of the heart and fill the imagination with the irresistible lure of secret Asia. With a splendor like the day and mystery like the night, the play glows with the gorgeous and varying hues of the Orient.

SAILOR HERO BACK

Two years and eight months during sea service in the United States navy, on the U. S. S. Destroyer Murray, is the record of young P. D. Gaines, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gaines of Opelousas.

Young Gaines saw active service in the waters of France, Germany, Portugal, the Azores, England and other foreign ports. He was attached to the convoy service duty, the home base of the destroyer fleet being in and out of Brest, France.

Gaines arrived from Europe last March and received his discharge several weeks ago and arrived home just a few days ago.

He is a fine manly chap, clear-eyed and fearless looking. His sense of modesty no doubt prevented him from giving many interesting details of his sea life. He will leave for his home in Opelousas after a short visit here in the city.—Crowley Signal.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most needed his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. But it now; it may save life.

NAZIMOVA'S ART IS WORLD FAMOUS
STAR OF THE "RED LANTERN" HAS UNBROKEN RECORD OF STAGE AND SCREEN SUCCESSES

Nazimova, star of the sensational screen version of Edith Wherry's "The Red Lantern," which comes to the Princess Theatre, Friday and Saturday, June 11th and 12th, for a two days engagement, is recognized as one of the most distinguished actresses of the age. She was born in Russian Crimea in a town on the shores of the Black Sea, but as a child was taken to Switzerland, and in Geneva was instructed in the violin. At twelve she returned to Russia, and made her first public appearance by playing a violin solo at a Christmas concert in her native town. She then went to Odessa to continue her violin studies, but took the dramatic course instead, the direction of the great Stanislawsky, at the Artistic Theatre, Moscow. As leading woman of a Russian stock company she played nearly 200 parts in a wide variety of productions.

Since coming to America, Nazimova has played both in Russian and English. Ever since she came to the English speaking stage her career has been an unbroken record of successes. In Ibsen's "A Doll House," "Hedda Gabler," and "Little Eyolf" she won the highest laurels. She then turned to comedy and in "The Countess Coquette," made an equally strong impression.

Departing from her European repertoire, she starred in "Bella Donna." Turning to vaudeville, she attained great popularity in "War Brides," the only play based on the great world war, which is conceded to be of permanent value. She made her screen debut in a moving picture version of this play, and she later resumed her work on the speaking stage and appeared in "Ception Shoals."

"The Great Nazimova" then began
