Mr. Richard asks the Clarion to make it known that he is willing to help organize the camp, supply any information and assist personally in whatever manner that he can.

MRS. W. S. EVANS DIES IN ALEXANDRIA TUESDAY

Mrs. W. S. Evans, formerly a resident of this parish, died Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, at her home in Alexandria, at the ripe age of 82 years. Her remains were brought to Opelousas Wednesday morning and the funeral took place on the arrival of the 9:17 Southern Pacific train, with interment in the Protestant cemetery.

Mrs. Evans, who was before her marriage Miss Artie Missie Haynes, was born December 27, 1837. She was the mother of a large and influential family, which numbers in it some of the best people in this parish. She is survived by her husband who, despite his 87 years, is hale and hearty, and nine children: Mrs. P. T. Blacksher, Opelousas; J. S. Evans, now of Basile; Hugh Evans, Basile; Mrs. Paul Hayes, Milville; Lee Evans, Gold Dust; Cam Evans, Gold Dust; Dock Evans, Elba; Mrs. O. A. Durio, Plaisance; and James Evans, Alexandria. Among her relatives are thirty-seven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.
