The Ghosts Walked On Halloween even, three ghostly figures drove up to the home of the Methodist minister, and when they departed, they left a very pleasant memory and better still a very substantial reminder of the good will of the members of the Methodist congregation. The pastor and his family appreciate the kind thought which prompted the gifts, and take this method of expressing their thanks to all who contributed. If all ghosts were like our ghostly visitors, we would give them a hearty welcome, and say "Come again." J. D. HARPER, Pastor M. E. Church South. IN MEMORIAM Beulah St. Amand Gaudin born in St. Landry parish about two miles from Opelousas on January 3, 1898. Died at her father's residence during Spanish Influenza on November 13, 1918. She is survived by her husband who has seen service over there. Beside she leaves her father, who is a well known planter for years of St. Landry, also a mother and five brothers. Beulah in her genial and sweet nature reflected the sunny skies of her parish and state sober, industrious, generous, her untimely removal from our midst leaves a distinct void. Poor heart, she slumbers in her silent tomb. Let her pass in peace that narrow room. Friends and relatives are invited to attend to mass which will be said for the repose of her soul on November 13th, 1919, at 9 o'clock. JOSEPH V. GAUDIN AND HER FAMILY. MR. LAWLER ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR MAYOR In presenting my candidacy, to teh people of this city, for the office of mayor, I desire to submit, briefly, the things for which I stand, and for which I shall strive in the event of my selection. First: The administration of the affairs of the city on a business basis, and without reference to politics. Second: The enforcement of municipal laws, without fear or favor. Third: The elimination, by lawful means, of gambling resorts, both white and colored; of idlers and vagrants; and of the trade in intoxicants. Fourth: The holding of the police department to strict accountability, for the discharge of duties evolving upon it. These points and others will be more fully discussed and presented as my campaign progresses. Generally, I am known in the community; and I here promise my best efforts towards the betterment of the affairs of the city in every direction; and especially do I intend to strive for the betterment of social and moral conditions, which in view of, and out of consideration for the young manhood and womanhood, of the community, is so much desired. Professional gambling, idling, vagrancy, bootlegging, and lewdness in men and women, are undesirable institutions, this city can be made clean, its laws enforced and effective. I am willing to undertake the job, and with the cooperation of the people, and other officials, accomplish the end desired. Respectfully, J. G. LAWLER.
