THE PRINCESS THEATRE

Cooled by Giant Twin System Typhon Breezes

On these chilly days, the Princess is all cozy in everything—Program for Week Beginning January 4th, 1920

Music on Wurlitzer at 8 P. M.

SUNDAY Adolphe Zukor Presents Bryant Washburn with an all star-cast IN "Why Smith Left Home" He couldn't kiss his own wife! That's what made Smith such a grouch. It is a story of a strange combination of circumstances that makes very difficult the efforts of a young married couple to enjoy their honeymoon! Positively one of the best farces of the year! Also "Snub Pollard in "STEPPING OUT" Doors Open at 3 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 20c

MONDAY Peggy Hyland IN "The Girl in Bohemia" One of those happy pictures—the kind that is best described as being distinctly "a family picture." Peggy Hyland is more than an actress to the millions who adore her—she is the living symbol of youth! Never before has she been offered in a more appealing role! Come around! And this is with, Fox Sunshine Comedy. "A SCHOOL HOUSE SCANDAL" "School teachers, making love to girls who come to school in bathing suits," wuff, wuff! This is a real laugh feast! Extra Added Attraction FOX NEWS—MIGHTIEST OF ALL Doors Open at 4 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 20c

TUESDAY Alice Brady IN Her first Reelart production. "The Fear Market" (Six Reels) The wonderful Kohnoor Diamond needs no description, nor does a "Raphiel" painting, nor any other work by a master of fine art dexterously wrought. Similarly Alice Brady in "The Fear Market," requires no description, for among the big pictures today it stands out brilliantly as a gem in a wondrous setting! See it! Also, Briggs Comedy and Burton Holmes Weekly Doors Open at 4 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 25c

WEDNESDAY Earle Williams IN "The Black Gate" He came to fight and remained to wed. His heart and fist brought him love and his smile finished the job! Some story believe us! The bigger they come the harder they fall before this mighty son of the swart! One of those really "good" pictures. Come! And Pathe Review Universal All Star Comedy Doors Open at 4 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 20c

THURSDAY Marguerite Clarke IN "Luck in Pawn" Another Marguerite Clarke success! The kind of picture, you read about in the magazines, and show books but you seldom see! A real laugh feast! "Marguerite Clarke is seen in the best role of her career," says Wids. Also Final Chapter "SMASHING BARRIERS" Doors Open at 4 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 20c

FRIDAY ANNOUNCED LATER

SATURDAY "Positively the greatest comedy drama in years," that's what Wids says of, "Twenty Three and a Half Hours Leave" With Doris May and Douglas McLean, the new Thos. H. Ince Stars. Its all the scandal, trouble, happiness, that happens during a soldier's 23 and a half hours leave from camp to see his sweetheart. And believe us there is a bunch of good hearty laughs, and chuckles, with a few snickers and howls of delight thrown in. See the picture! Also, Mutt and Jeff and Fords Weekly Doors Open at 3 p. m. ADMISSION, 5, 10 and 20c was the distribution of the letters. The Rev. E. A. Diebold presented each man with his letter and a certificate of award as the man's name was announced by Mr. Roy, Athletic Director. Tremendous applause marked this distribution of letters especially when Coach Fagan received his letter. The following are the names of the men who received their letter: Richard Abshire, Hugh Billeaud, Gustave Broussard, Lestie Broussard, Adev Comeaux, Galbert Norman, Dallas Mouton, Ray Romaine, Ewell Smith, Allison Trahan, Marlon Young, John Younger, Lessley Gardner, manager; and Coach M. J. Fagan. Thursday, Dec. 18, was Senior basketball league day, and was given over to celebrating the victory of the winning team in each league. At the end of the football season, the senior division formed itself into two basketball leagues of six teams each. Each team was to play a series of ten games each with the other teams in its own league, two prizes being offered for the winning teams. In the first league Capt. Smith's team known as the "Bear, Cats" won the series with a percentage of 90, while Capt. Koenig's team won the series in the second league with a percentage of 1,000. One of the features of the Victory Celebration on Thursday was a splendid dinner spread for the two winning teams in the library of the college department. John Younger the manager of the two leagues, presided as host, while among the invited guests were Coach Fagan, Mr. Roy, and several of the students who had assisted the manager in running off the successful season. One of the excellent features of the league series was the showing up of basket ball material for the Varsity team. Coach Fagan watched every game very closely and as a consequence has been able to get a fairly good idea of how the Varsity team is going to stack up this year. Immediately after the Christmas holidays Varsity practice will begin in earnest, with a few high school games thrown in here and there for work outs. The first game of the inter-collegiate Washington DR. C. H. GREEN, Correspondence. Have you attended the last dance in Washington? If not, you sure have missed many hours of pure enjoyment. Eyes were brighter, cheeks more rosy, steps lighter, as the music rhythmically gushed forth, in many a sweetly varied strain. The rudest onlooker became softened and harmonized in accord with the gentle and graceful creatures who add new charms to the "poetry" of motion. Judging by the large number of visitors from Opelousas and the adjoining country towns the managers of the opera house were greatly pleased with the returns and anticipated to give a new entertainment in the near future. Excellent music will be provided for the dancing. The dancing so-called "the dancing so-called" best. Mrs. Walter E. Aymond and two babies, which look the picture of life spent the holidays in Washington. The most prominent was the marriage of Miss M. Ballio a noted Washington girl to Mr. Raoul Clay, esteemed place at the Catholic Opelousas. All Washington and their most heart future share. Large crowd of local citizen spent last week in Lafayette. S. M. Ralph and Misses Margery and Lizzie Kilpatrick are here for the Christmas holidays. Geo. Goings and family of Opelousas and Mr. Eugene Rexer and family of Alexandria spent Christmas day at the Goings' home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McCaffery from Baton Rouge, La., will stay in Washington for a number of days. Numerous friends were delighted to greet Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Clay from Sunset, La. Miss Mabel Dematrat from Elton, La., attended the big dance in Washington last Tuesday night. Miss Clayton Gardner, prominent high school teacher is again in our midst for a few days. Last week a big crowd consisting of 21 selected members of the Sacred Heart Council No. 1988 K. of C. spent in Lafayette. Mr. J. G. Carriere, Jr., from Bliss Electrical College, Washington, D. C., spent the holidays with his parents here. He has made wonderful progress in his studies during his stay in the Capital. Miss W. Boudreau and Mrs. Ellen Boudreau from New Orleans, La., are here for the holidays. The two sisters are members of the staff of the Charity hospital and have brought themselves to the highest degree of efficiency in the art of nursing. Mrs. Walter E. Aymond and two babies, which look the picture of life spent the holidays in Washington. The most prominent was the marriage of Miss M. Ballio a noted Washington girl to Mr. Raoul Clay, esteemed place at the Catholic Opelousas. All Washington and their most heart future share. SUSPEND CLASS WORK FOR PERIOD OF TWO WEEKS (Continued from page 1)

clation the most prominent athletic body in Louisiana. After the supper the student body assembled in the college auditorium for the awarding of the football "C" to the fourteen men whom the St. Charles College Athletic Association had selected for that honor. The program was opened by an overture rendered by the college orchestra on the stage together with the various letter men were discovered seated on the stage together with the various faculty members who are connected with athletic association. The sight was inspiring for the students and won from them a great cheer for the letter-men. The Rev. E. A. Diebold, president of the college, was the first to address the students. His remarks were confined entirely to the great honor that was about to be conferred upon the selected few who were to receive their letter. He spoke of the good work that they had done during the season and outlined the reasons why they alone had been chosen from among the entire thirty players to be specially honored. Captain Charles Steel, U. S. Infantry and commandant of the Varsity team, next addressed the students on the advantages of varsity athletic work that are achieved by the massed athletics as conducted in the R. O. T. C., at the college. As a proof of his statements he sighted the fact that everyone of the letter-men of that night had been leaders in athletics and had often admitted that they had been greatly benefited by them. His appeal for continued interest and co-operation in the events won a hearty responsive applause from the students. Following Captain Steel's address was a musical number rendered by Simeon Mistrot in the form of two parodies in which he sang of the incidents that marked the visit of the Jesuit High team to the college in the early part of the football season and the St. Charles-Louisiana College game—the two most memorable events of the entire season. The parodies elicited great laughter and applause from the audience. Rev. Terence King, S. J., with his usual attractive humor entertained the students by his few remarks on the reasons why the letter-men were not going to be so fortunate. The talk made a lasting impression on the students who could easily see and appreciate the sound and serious advice that the speaker was giving them, partly veiled though it was beneath the speaker's attractive humor. In the names of the letter-men, Lessley Gardner, football manager, addressed the students and faculty, thanking them for the loyal support that they had constantly given the team during the season in spite of the fact that events had not turned out as everybody had hoped they would. His talk was followed by a closing speech made by Coach Fagan which, each game of the season reviewed and summarized. The talk was by the letter-men was out-looked and highly praised. It was also a testimonial to the good work done by the letter-men of the college. The closing event of the program.
