

"How I saved a policeman's life"

With acknowledgments to K. C. B.

EVEN THE eggs.
WERE Tired that morning.
AND THE coffee.
DIDN'T FOOL me one bit.
BUT WHEN after breakfast.
MY CIGARETTE tasted awful.
IT WAS too much.
AND A grouch started.
AND WALKING to work.
I SWORE off smoking.
AND DECIDED to fire.
MY OFFICE boy.
BUT JUST before I decided.
TO KILL a policeman.
A MAN passed me.
SMOKING A cigarette.
AND SAY but the smoke.
THAT DRIFTED back.

DID SMELL good.
AND I followed him.
INTO A store.
HE THREW down two dimes.
AND SAID "The same."
AND SO did I.
AND SO I'm still smoking,
AND STILL keep that.
OFFICE BOY and I let that.
HANDSOME POLICEMAN live.
AND I'M going to boost.
THAT MAN I followed.
FOR PRESIDENT or something,
FOR REALLY those cigarettes.
DO SATISFY.

JUST a whiff of that spicy aroma of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos will make you hungry for this "satisfy" smoke. There are blends and blends, but none like this one. Chesterfield's blend is a secret and it cannot be copied.

The following ordinance was read and carried.

An Ordinance No. 31

To require all able bodied male inhabitants between certain ages to work the streets of the town under supervision of the street commissioner, whenever summons by him so to do; to provide for a street tax in lieu of such compulsory street duty and to provide penalties for the violation of this ordinance.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the mayor and board of aldermen of the town of Melville, La., that all able bodied male inhabitants of the Town of Melville, La., between the ages of eighteen and fifty-five years of age be required to work the streets of the town under supervision of the street commissioner whenever summoned by him so to do, not exceeding five days in any one year provided that any person may relieve himself of such compulsory street duty by paying a street tax of $3.00 per year in lieu thereof, payable as herein after directed.

Section 2. Be it further ordained, etc., that any person desiring to avail himself the privilege of paying a street tax in lieu of working on the streets, as provided for in section one of this ordinance shall make the said payment to the town tax-collector not later than June 1st of each and every year.

Section 3. Be it further ordained, etc., that all funds collected from the inhabitants of the town under this ordinance shall be expended exclusively upon the streets of the town and the improvements and upkeep of same.

Section 4. Be it further ordained, etc., that any one violating this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars or imprisoned not less than one nor more than eight days or both at the discretion of the mayor.

Section 5. Be it further ordained, etc., that any and all ordinances or parts of ordinance in conflict herewith be and they are hereby repealed.

Section 6. Be it further ordained, etc., that this ordinance for good and sufficient reason take effect from and after its adoption.

Thus done and passed in special session convened on this eleventh day of May, A. D. 1920.

Moved by Mr. White and seconded, by Mr. Jones that the above ordinance be passed as read. Carried.

PAUL W. LAFLEUR, Mayor.
Attest:—E. J. LeBLANC, Clerk.

CUBANS TAKE PRECAUTIONS TO PREVENT SUGAR SHORTAGE

Havana.—The Havana Chamber of Commerce petitioned the Cuban government to take necessary steps to see that 400,000 sacks of sugar of the present crop be retained on the island and withheld from export. The Chamber of Commerce explained that unless this measure is taken, the shortage of sugar in Cuba will be very acute.
