

REMARKABLE RECOVERY

Extraordinary Curative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I want to let you know what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I had organic troubles and am going through the Change of Life. I was taken with a pain in my side and a bad headache. I could not lie down, could not eat or sleep. I suffered something terrible and the doctor's medicine did me no good at all—my pains got worse instead of better. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and felt a change from the first. Now I feel fine and advise any one going through the Change of Life to try it, for it cured me after I had given up all hopes of getting better. You can publish this and I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. MARGARET DANZ, 743 N. 25th Street, Phila., Pa.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Kind Invitation.
College professors are proverbially absent minded and many stories are told along this line. One is told about the late Professor Cleveland, beloved of all Bowdoin men of several decades ago. One day the professor had a powerful electric current running over an insulated wire in the class room.

"If a man should touch this wire," he said to the class in physics, "he would be killed instantly."

Then, beamingly absent minded upon the nearest student, he said: "Now, Mr. Smith, will you kindly touch that wire?"—Portland Express.

Changing the View.
A cylindrical tool, described in the Popular Mechanics Magazine is meant to aid the portrait photographer in posing his subjects. From a switch mounted on the rear of the camera, wires lead to an electric motor concealed in the base of the stool. With his hand on the switch, the photographer is constantly able to turn his subject until the desired view, profile, full face, etc., is seen.

Prayed for Cure Finds it After 10 Years
Food Would Sour and Boil
—Teeth Like Chalk

Mr. Herbert M. Gessner writes from his home in Berlin, N. H.:
I had stomach trouble over ten years; kept getting worse. I tried everything for relief but it came back worse than ever. Last fall I got awfully bad; could only eat light loaf bread and tea. In January I got so bad that what I would eat would sour and boil; my teeth would be like chalk. I suffered terribly. I prayed every day for something to cure me. One day I read about EATONIC and told my wife to get me a box at the drug store as I was going to work at 4 p. m. I took one-third of it and began to feel relief; when it was three-fourths gone, I felt fine and when it was used up I had no pains. Wife got me another box but I have felt the pain but twice. I used five tablets out of the new box and I have no more stomach trouble. Now I write to tell you how thankful I am that I heard of EATONIC. I feel like a new man; I eat what I like, drink plenty of water, and it never hurts me at all.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

Mary Graham Donner

THE CHOSEN DAY.
"Ah," said the little brownie to the purple fox glove which was just out, "I am very glad to see you."
The purple fox glove bowed its pretty flower head and said, "I thank you, little brownie. And pray do you like my speckled center? I feel it is quite smart. And do you like my sister here in her plain white dress?"
"I do, indeed," said the little brownie. "I think your speckled center with your beautiful purple frock is lovely and your sister's white dress is indeed beautiful."
"To think," said the little brownie, "that not long ago I was at this little place so near the sea and that on one of the rivers not far away I saw some sea gulls sitting on the ice."
"We didn't see that," said the purple fox glove. "or rather I mean we didn't see them."
"I guess we were asleep," said the white fox glove.
"Yes," said the little brownie, "then it was winter, and now it is the late, late spring. It's quite a cloudy day, too, and nice for the eyes—doesn't tire them, I mean, though I think the sun is lovely, too. Ever since I joined Peter Gnome's club called the Every-Day-Is-Nice Club, I have really and truthfully found something nice each day."
Just then some people came along. "Well," said one, "it makes me mad. Here I had chosen this one day to take off from work and now it has gone and turned out cloudy and horrid. It does make me mad."
"It makes me mad, too," said another. "This very day I planned to take off and then it has to be as it is!"

Cutting Out the Cottonwoods.
In many cities of the Southwest, the cottonwood trees have become a nuisance by reason of the litter which they make at certain seasons of the year when little wads of cotton are dropped from them and the matter is being met by the wholesale cutting down of these trees. Thousands of these beautiful shade trees are being sacrificed.

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.
Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.
To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.
Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

Last Night's Dreams

—What They Mean

DID YOU DREAM OF FLOATING?
DREAMS of floating are closely allied to dreams of flying, though probably not so common. Investigators who seek for a physical cause for dreams explain them as they do dreams of falling—by the skin becoming so highly insensitive that all impression of the support of the bed is lost. But falling and floating are sensations so diametrically opposite that the explanation is not convincing. Nearly all the scientific investigators regard dreams of floating as purely mental, or psychic, in their origin and Greenwood says: "Every physiologist who, to the best of his ability, marks out the seat of mind and traces the various communications of the senses with the cerebrospinal center, knows at every moment that when he has completed his exposition he will have thrown no light on the mental faculties themselves, nor have followed them a single step into the fields they work in." And further: "If credulity stifles the mind, skepticism is a kind of cramp; nor can there be much doubt that it is felt by many who boast of it as a high sort of freedom."
The mystic interpretation of a dream of floating in the air is that it is a favorable omen, unless you suddenly lose your buoyancy in which case there is unexpected trouble ahead of you. If you should dream that you are floating in water it is also a sign of good business and much comfort awaiting you provided the water is clear. If it is muddy look out for hidden enemies and prepare for a struggle. The "occult" followers of the teaching of Madame Blavatsky regard this dream as an evidence of the existence of the "astral body." But, according to Ellis Caesar de Vesme, who edits the French "Annals of Psychological Research," after an elaborate investigation, declares it to be, like the flying dream, "a purely psychological phenomenon and no evidence of the astral body's existence." In this case the mystics would appear to be about as satisfying as, and much more definite than, the scientists.
