

Helping You Hold Your Crop

The Federal Reserve Banking System, established by the government, stands back of the cotton planter. Our membership in it gives us special facilities to help him hold his crop until he can obtain fair prices for it, instead of rushing it to the market. We can borrow at special rates from our Federal Reserve Bank on loans secured by warehoused agricultural products. Before you market your crop come in and talk the matter over with us. We may be in a position to save you some money.

ATTORNEY ALEX SWORDS LOCATED IN NEW ORLEANS

The multitude of friends of Attorney Alex W. Swords learned with genuine regret that he will be in a few days go to New Orleans to take up the law practice of Hon. Frank T. Echezabal, who was recently elevated to the criminal district bench for the parish of Orleans. It is a high honor and carries with it great confidence in the professional ability of young Swords, and while he has received the congratulations of his friends the same has not been tendered him without the reservation that what will be the gain of New Orleans will be the loss of Opelousas and St. Landry parish.

Mr. Swords is a son of our late beloved sheriff M. L. words, and is what might be termed a self-made man. Through dint of courage and application he obtained his academic and legal education and began the practice of law in his old home town, associating himself with Hon. L. Austin Fontenot, a close friend of the Swords family. He demonstrated his ability as a lawyer and had already attained his secure position at the Opelousas bar, one of the highest rated in this state. As aside from his professional associations here, Mr. Swords is beloved and esteemed socially, and he takes with him to his new field the best wishes and earnest felicitations of every one who knows him.

MRS. CLINTON MORNHINVEG ENTERTAINED WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Clinton Mornhinveg entertained a number of her friends at a delightful bridge party at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Doucie Mornhinveg, West North street, last Wednesday afternoon.

Those present at the party were: Mesdames Henry Lastrapes, Jr., John W. Lewis, F. J. Dietlein, George and Lionel Bienvenu, Joseph Firnberg, W. T. Stewart, Fries of Birmingham, Ala. Haffer of Greenville, Miss., Isaac Roa, Dava Ulmer, H. B. Edwards, Charles Ventre, A. L. Lacombe, J. A. Dejean, J. F. Green, Harvey Weir, J. P. Barnett, Harold Lastrapes, Misses Mathilde and Marie Estorge, Alice Porter, Rose Chachere, Mrs. Doucie Mornhinveg.

Miss Porter captured the first prize, while Mrs. J. P. Barnett took the second. Delicious refreshments were served, and all present had a most enjoyable afternoon.

Tribute of Respect

In memory of Bro. Jules A. Perrudin. In view of the loss we have sustained by the demise of our friend and associate brother, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, be it

Resolved, that it is only a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regret.

Resolved, that we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them and we commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved that this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed for their home in Houston by order of the secretary.

STATE TICK BILL HAS NARROW SHAVE IN LOWER HOUSE

Fight Against Measure Gets So Warm Vote on Repeal Results in 48 to 41

The fight to repeal the state cattle dipping law was lost in the house of representatives last Thursday by the narrow margin of 48 yeas to 41 nays. The repeal bill was introduced in the lower house by Representative Burgess of DeSoto, who urged its passage.

The bill drew to its support a large element of members who seem to be impressed with the many claims that it is impossible to get rid of the tick pest in Louisiana and that to proceed further would cost additional thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money.

While a number of parishes have been released from federal quarantine others are either in part or wholly under the ban and it is impossible to ship cattle from the infested zones. In many localities lawless elements, chagrined because of the enforcement of the law relative to the dipping of livestock every fourteen days, have taken the matter into their own hands and have dynamited dipping vats, hoping that the destruction of the vats would stop the dipping process.

The proposed no-fence law, backed by the administration, is regarded as a measure aimed at the tick, in that there would be no more free ranges and stockowners would be compelled to keep their stock within an enclosure and the ridding of the pastures of cattle tick would then be an easy matter. The proposed law, however, is not going to have easy sailing for there is a strong element which proposes to fight it to a stand still.

DRIVE TO START FOR MEMBERS COLORED BOYS AND GIRL CLUB

The club members' drive will begin next Monday, September 28, and last until Saturday, October 1, both inclusive, says W. W. Solet, local agent. Teachers and patrons throughout the parish, he continued, are asked to take an active part in this campaign for new club members. The boys and girls who are members of these clubs have shown much interest in club activities. Efforts will be made to enroll a large number of boys and girls who are interested in making rural life more happy, concluded Solet.

CORRECTIONS MADE IN STATE FAIR CATALOG

Attention is being called by W. R. Perkins, director of extension, L. S. U., to the corrections which have been made in the state fair catalog of Louisiana. When the catalog went to press two errors were made, one omitting Louisiana purple sugar cane from the varieties on which premiums are to be given, and the other in the premiums for worthy parish exhibits.

The amended premium list reads as follows:

75-A—Five stalks Louisiana Purple Sugar Cane, 1st, $5.00; 2nd, $4.00 3rd, $3.00; 4th, $2.00; 5th, $1.00.

Page 55, paragraph 12, relative to parish exhibits.

All parish exhibits in excess of 20, when worthy, to receive $100, each. It is hoped that all persons interested in the state fair will note the corrections and that no inconvenience will be caused on account of failure to receive notification of these changes.

MERRY WIDOW PLUMES WITH US AGAIN

Turban-shaped hats are in vogue this fall, but they have a hard time proving it. The revival of the Merry Widow plume, hides the close-fitting turban of crepe baronette, except a peep at the sides, and in back. Bright fuchsias are the plumes—this one being made to design by Peggy Hoyt for Henry Savage's young opera star, Miss Dorothy Francis.

FEDERAL ATTORNEY RESIGNS POSITION EFFECTIVE AT ONCE

After Serving in Position Eight Years Jos W. Moore Retires to Resume Practice

News was received in Opelousas last Saturday of the resignation of Joseph W. Moore, for the past eight years federal attorney for the western district of Louisiana. Mr. Moore was appointed to the place during the first administration of President Wilson and it was generally understood that he was a candidate for reappointment at the hands of the republican administration, having been endorsed by the bar of the western district.

However, the appointment was held up so long that he decided to resign in order to return to private practice of his profession. He will be located in Shreveport where he will be the senior member of the firm of Moore and Johnson.

Born in old Calcasieu parish, at the pinewoods village of Sugartown, he started out early life on his career as an attorney, serving the people of the Calcasieu judicial district as prosecuting attorney for two terms.

The Moore family has been prominent in political circles of old Calcasieu for many years. Sugartown is now in Beauregard but in 1892 Jos. W. Moore, Sr., father of the resigning official, moved to Oberlin, now the courthouse town of the new parish of Allen. Pat Moore, one son, served as clerk of the district court at Oberlin and was succeeded by his brother Dennis. The father served in the state legislature from Calcasieu and was a prominent merchant, both at Sugartown and Oberlin.
