FEW WINDOWS NICELY DECORATED FOR ARMISTICE

There were a few merchants in town who showed their patriotism and at the same time their progressiveness by having their show-windows decorated for the occasion.

In all larger and more progressive places the spirit of the holiday is clearly expressed by that class of merchants who are up to standards. It is indeed gratifying to have seen so many of our more thrifty merchants up to this standard as quite a few windows were beautifully trimmed with the Stars and Stripes.

Allen T. Sandoz sold a car of Smith's Flour and although it is guaranteed he has not had a single complaint nor a return of any of the flour.
