Mrs. J. M. Hamilton Entertains

On yesterday afternoon, Mrs. J. M. Hamilton entertained at five-hundred complimentary to her guest, Miss Hill. Very pretty handwork was given as prizes, the fortunate winners being Misses Mita Shannon and Lula Mae Campbell. Delicious ices were served, after which small parties were formed who attended the wonderful Annette Kellerman performance at the Evangeline Theatre.

Valuable Citizen Passes Away.

The State Fair Association has lost one of its most competent officers. Mr. Louis E. Brueggerhoff, secretary of the association, and who has been the mainstay of the State Fair, died last Saturday at Shreveport, following an operation for appendicitis. He was 42 years of age and a most valuable citizen. His sudden death is a public calamity.

Topsy Turvy, tonight.

The appearance of Jupiter Pluvius in Patterson Monday afternoon marred what promised to be one of the most exciting and interesting games of base ball of the season on that diamond. The game was called in the fifth inning with Lutch in the lead. A good many fans from here went to Patterson for the game. The rain was local but created a slush kneedeep on the diamond.

British will bury German flyers with military honors.

Congress did not have any holiday on yesterday.
