Methodist Church Notes.

At the morning service Rev. C. Weir, the pastor, preached a very instructive and practical sermon on "Going to Church," portraying by scriptural text our Savior as a synagogue attendant. His line of thought was "Habits," which he developed to the satisfaction of his hearers.

Mr. Douglis Nye added to the services with a vocal selection. Mr. possesses the power to touch the musical chords of one's soul and this gift is one of the attributes of the virtuous.

TO THE FARMERS

The Federal Farm Loan Act, which became a law on July 17, 1916, is designed to meet the requirements of the American farmer in securing long-term loans at reasonable rates of interest, to provide capital for agricultural development.

The Southern Farmer should be especially benefitted by this new legislation, because local capital available for long time loans is scarce and the demand for money to develop our agricultural resources is always very keen.

Meeting at City Hall, Morgan City, La.
7:30 P. M.

Tues. Sept. 12,

1916

To be addressed by Mr. W. J. Leppert, representative of the proposed Federal Farm Loan Bank of New Orleans, who will explain how you can borrow money on long time loans at a rate not to exceed six per cent. to enable paying off your mortgages, buying improved farm machinery, blooded live stock, etc., building silos and making needed farm improvements
