H. G. BARNES CIRCUS COMING

The giddiest, gayest, glitteriest, grandest galaxy in all the land is trekking this way. It's coming sure and soon.

And if the reader don't infer from this that reference is made to a circus then we'll have to make a search thru Webster's book for more superlatives to put the case more clearly.

And again, if, when circus is mentioned, one doesn't infer that it's the Al G. Barnes' circus that's coming, then the said show's agent who was in town yesterday, will regard the case as a hopeless one.

Murray A. Pennock, general contracting agent of the Barnes' circus was here yesterday making arrangements for the show's appearance in Morgan City Tuesday October 10th, and while the circus man was head-over-heels in work, arranging for food and food, license, show grounds water and the multitude of other things that must be contracted for, the big show, he still found time to tollabout the merits and the new features that was presented this season.

"Since two years ago when we were here, the show has been almost entirely rebuilt, and this applies to its program, as well as to its cars, cages and wardrobe.

"Also there's been a splendid addition to the case of animals performers, fully two hundred more educated animals are shown this year, came direct from the jungles. They are now real actors and are grouped and performed in some of the most spectacular and thrilling acts ever shown.

"The wild animal features are not the only new ones, either, for a wonderful array of beautiful and interesting features are introduced in which domestic animals are the star performers. The world's champion jumping horses—sixteen in number, the famous performing baboons and monkeys—a really wonderful act, and Maj Thornton's clown pies, and Miss Earle's musical carrier pigeons, and—well—

"Can I almost forget, I came in a tall space, not new circus stunts, and the circus man let out a huge yelp and hastily traced his 'moniker' along the dotted lines of an advertising contract.
