Rules of Contest

Arrangements have been made with the distributors of the Famous $2.00 Guaranteed 14k Gold Fountain Pen to introduce this pen into our contest. Votes will not be given for the sale of Fountain Pen unless such sale is made in connection with an order taken for subscription.

The schedule of votes as given positively will not be changed during this contest. No special voting offers will be introduced in addition to the conditions herein set forth.

The Guaranteed Fountain Pens will be supplied to each contestant who desires to sell them in order to increase his or her vote credits.

Any person living in St. Mary Parish may become a contestant. Any person may nominate another person as a candidate to enter the contest.

Each person nominated will be given a number and the candidates name and number will be immediately entered in The Review contest books

Only the number of each contestant or candidate will be published until the close of the contest.

Any person may nominate himself or herself to become a contestant.

When a contestant is once nominated and a number assigned that contestant can not withdraw and turn the votes already entered to his or her credit over to another contestant. However, a contestant may withdraw from the contest at any time and turn his or her votes and his or her number over to any person who is not a contestant.

Every contestant is required to make a weekly report of the votes to which he or she is entitled. That is, each contestant must render an account at least once each week of all subscriptions orders received in order to get the proper vote credits for such orders.

Votes will be given on all money collected on subscriptions to the Morgan City Daily Review and the Morgan City Weekly Review, and on all money paid on commercial printing, and on the Guaranteed Fountain Pens. No votes will be given for advertising.

The schedule of votes is given elsewhere on this page under the heading of "VOTES, AND HOW TO GET THEM."

The Morgan City Daily Review and The Morgan City Weekly Review will publish a bulletin at least twice a month giving the number and standing of each contestant.

The contest will begin October 10th, 1916, and will close March 1st 1917.

A 26-piece set of Wm. A. Rodgers Silver Ware valued at $25.00, given to the contestant who is credited with the highest number of votes each month during the contest.

A contestant can not win but one set of silverware, but the winners of the sets of silverware will not be disqualified from winning one of the grand prizes at the close of the contest.

Votes will only be credited on actual cash subscriptions cash-on-delivery commercial printing, and for cash received for each $2.00 Fountain Pen.

Upon receiving notice of nomination, each person who desires to become a contestant in this great race must immediately call at the office of The Morgan City Daily and Weekly Review and receive a Contest Receipt Book and instructions concerning the proper use of same.

A perfect record will be kept by the Review of the entire transaction of the contest and these records will be audited by a competent set of judges at the close of the contest.

The receipt books, which will be furnished free of charge to each contestant, will afford a perfect record of the votes to which each contestant is entitled.

No contestant will be permitted to sell one of the famous Barnett Fountain Pens unless persons buying same subscribes for either the Daily or Weekly Review at the same time.

Subscriptions to the Daily or Weekly Review may be taken and votes for the same credited without the sale of a Fountain Pen.

Each candidate, with the exception of the three candidates winning the three largest prizes will be paid a cash commission on all subscription orders, orders for commercial printing and sales of Fountain Pens.

The three contestants winning the first three prizes will not receive a cash commission.
