In addition to the large list of valuable prizes mentioned in the above list, The Morgan City Daily and Weekly Review will pay five per cent commission to each contestant in the race, with the exception of the three contestants who win the first three prizes. These three contestants will not receive the cash commission. The commission will be paid on all subscriptions made on the Daily Review, The Weekly Review and the famous 14k Gold Point Barnett Fountain Pens.

Don't delay writing or calling on the Manager of the Morgan City Review for any further information you may want in regard to this big contest.

Rules of Contest

The contest will begin October 10th, 1916, and will close March 1st 1917.

The schedule of votes as given positively will not be changed during this contest. No special voting offers will be introduced in addition to the conditions herein set forth.

Each person nominated will be given a number and the candidates name and number will be immediately entered in The Review contest books.

Only the number of each contestant or candidate will be published until the close of the contest.

When a contestant is once nominated and a number assigned that contestant can not withdraw and turn the votes already entered to his or her credit over to another contestant. However, a contestant may withdraw from the contest at any time and turn his or her votes and his or her number over to any person who is not a contestant.

Every contestant is required to make a weekly report of the votes to which he or she is entitled. That is, each contestant must render an account at least once a week of all subscription orders received in order to get the proper vote credits for such orders.

Votes will only be credited on actual cash subscriptions, cash-on-delivery commercial printing, and for cash received for each $2.00 Fountain Pen.

Votes will be given on all money collected on subscriptions to the Morgan City Daily Review and the Morgan City Weekly Review, and on all money paid on commercial printing, and on the Guaranteed Fountain Pens. No votes will be given for advertising.

The schedule of votes is given under the heading of "VOTES," HOW TO GET THEM."

A perfect record will be kept by the Review of the entire transaction of the contest and these records will be audited by a competent set of judges at the close of the contest.

Votes How To Get Them

Arrangements have been made with the distributors of the Famous $2.00 Guaranteed 14k Gold Fountain Pen to introduce this pen into our contest. Votes will not be given for the sale of Fountain Pens unless such sale is made in connection with an order taken for subscription.

The Guaranteed Fountain Pens will be supplied to each contestant who desires to sell them in order to increase his or her vote credits.

No contestant will be permitted to sell one of these famous Barnett Fountain Pens unless persons buying same subscribe for either the Daily or Weekly Review at the same time.

Subscriptions to the Daily or Weekly Review may be taken and votes for the same credited without the sale of the Fountain Pen.

The Morgan City Daily Review and The Morgan City Weekly Review will publish a bulletin at least once a month giving the number and standing of each contestant.

The receipt books, which will be furnished free of charge to each contestant, will afford a perfect record of the votes to which each contestant is entitled.

Each candidate, with the exception of the three candidates winning the three largest prizes will be paid a cash commission on all subscription orders, orders for commercial printing and sales of Fountain Pens.

The three contestants winning the first three prizes will not receive a cash commission.

A 26-piece set of Wm. A. Rogers Silver Ware valued at $25.00, given to the contestant who is credited with the highest number of votes each month during the contest.

One silver set will be given each month on November 1st, December 1st, February 1st and March 1st.

A candidate can not win but one of these handsome silver sets but the winning of the silver set does not effect in any way the candidates chances of winning one of the big prizes to be given at the end of the contest.

Each contestant will be credited with 5000 votes when nominated.

For each paid-in-advance subscription to The Morgan City Daily Review at $4.00 per year, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 10,000 votes

For each half-year's paid-in-advance subscription to The Morgan City Daily Review at $2.00, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 2,000 votes

For each three-months paid-in-advance subscription to Morgan City Daily Review will be credited with 1,000 votes

For each paid-in-advance subscription to the Morgan City Weekly Review at $1.50 per year, contestant taking order will be credited with 1,500 votes

For each paid-in-advance yearly subscription to the Daily Review and one $2.00 Guaranteed Fountain Pen, candidate taking order for same will be credited with 25,000 votes

For six months to the Daily Review and Guaranteed Fountain Pen, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 10,000 votes

For three months to the Daily Review and Guaranteed Fountain Pen, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 5,000 votes

For One Year to Weekly Review and Guaranteed Fountain Pen, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 10,000 votes

For every dollar paid on commercial printing, contestant taking order for same will be credited with 5,000 votes

In case of a tie vote for any prize offered the value of the prize will be divided equally between the tying contestants.

STATE UNIVERSITY TO HAVE EXHIBITS.

Thoroughly appreciating the value of the Louisiana State Fair as an educational factor, especially wielding influence in the development of agricultural and industrial enterprise, the State University takes keen interest in the big institution by making exhibits and furnishing members of the faculty and representatives of different departments as superintendents, judges etc. This year no less than thirty L. S. U. men will serve the fair in various capacities, and, in addition, there will be a collection of exhibits representing class rooms, work shops, experiment farms, extension department and other branches of the university's activities.

The main university display will be placed in the Exposition Building where a corps of assistants will represent the faculty in answering inquiries, explaining different features and distributing literature about the great school.

Secretary L. N. Bruoggerhoff, Shreveport, will furnish catalogue, premium lists, etc., upon application. The fair opens Nov. 1 and runs six days.
