ANNOUNCEMENT

Congressman Whit P. Martin announces his candidacy, on the progressive ticket, for re-election as a protectionist from the Third Congressional District of Louisiana to the 65th U. S. Congress at the general election to be held on Tuesday, November 7th, 1916.

We are authorized to announce Wade O. Martin as a candidate for Congress in the Third Congressional District of Louisiana, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the general election to be held the 7th of November.

PROSPERITY

Every man, woman and child in this great country of ours is interested in the prosperity of our common country both present and its continuance, if such a thing is possible, in the future. That the country is at present prosperous and that this prosperity is now more widely diffused among all classes and conditions of society and to all parts of our country is generally conceded.

Now and then, of course, we find those whose "wish is father to the thought" who seek to prove that the present high tide of well being is due solely or largely to war conditions. That this is not the case has been demonstrated by financiers and such well known financial authorities as "The Financial Review," which in its August issue states as follows: "It is quite generally agreed that financial conditions in this country were never better than at present . . . And when the time comes for the cessation of hostilities there will be no sudden letting down of the conditions which have made the present extraordinary demand on the part of Europe on the manufacturers of this country. Europe's shelves are bare and there is no country on earth so well equipped to restock those shelves as the United States. Labor, capital and manufactured supplies will all go in great demands, all over Europe with the ending of the war and in all the supplying of these will come America's great opportunity. The future is full of promise for the farmers, the great producing class that must and always will be the very back-bone of the wealth producing factories of our country. High prices for farm products are certain to continue indefinitely. In fact statisticians confidently assert that never again will food reach a low price level.—Bankers Life.

Everybody wants their home paper. Go after the subscriptions for the Review and in the meantime capture a valuable prize.

This is a Fortunate Man

HE has at least nine overcoats, and he is just about fixed for this fall and winter—maybe a little more.

Well, anyhow, it's a good picture to emphasize overcoats; you'll admit that. So we're using it to get your mind on the overcoat question.

How Many Do You Need?

One or possibly two. And you can have your choice in this store now of the finest display of overcoats you ever saw. Made by

Hart Schaffner & Marx

There are ulsters, great coats, boxbacks, the famous Varsity Six Hundred overcoat. Soft rich materials, rough coarse materials, warm-without-weight stuff, raincoats, utility coats—just ask to see them.
