MORGAN CITY, LA., OCTOBER 20, 1916

No. 64

To the Insuring Public

The trouble and expenses incurred by the Local Insurance Agents, because of their inability to collect their premiums, and the frequent losses by non-payments has become so much of a tax on their business that they have found it necessary to limit all credit for premiums to 60 days from date of policy. Hereafter, satisfactory settlement must be made within that time, otherwise the policy will be cancelled, for such non-payment.

NEWS FLASHES FROM FAR AND NEAR

The French troops continued their gradual approach toward Peronne, although advancing at an enormous cost.

The Cunard liner Alaunia was destroyed by a mine. She carried no passengers at the time.

China viewed with alarm the assistance of Tokio upon Japanese police rights in Manchuria and Mongolia.

The British war office announced further successes in operating against the Germans in German East Africa.

Reports from Carranza sources admitted that Villa controls a large part of the state of Chihuahua.

Progressive action has come to stay in the world, President Wilson told his hearers at one of three addresses delivered in Chicago.

Banners were torn from their hands and many knocked down when women political agitators in Chicago attempted an anti-Wilson demonstration.

Striking employes of the Bayonne, N. J., oil plants agreed to return to work today.

Chicago bankers planned to appeal to Congress to stop the advancing prices of wheat and flour.

The Protestant Episcopal convention rejected a plan to divide the church on racial lines.

Announcement was made that the government has let contracts for two hundred army aeroplanes.

The internal Revenue Bureau at Washington paid all of its expenses during the last three years by collecting back taxes. A total of $22,509,576 was recovered and this amount is greater by $2,700,000 than the entire cost of collecting the country's $1,308,000,000 of internal revenue during the three years.

Judge Hughes reiterated his position in regard to the sinking of the Lusitania.

Late reports fixed the death toll from Wednesday's tropical hurricane at three, with heavy property loss at a few interior points of Alabama.

The Clyde liner Arapahoe, carrying passengers, lost her rudder off Cape Lookout. Rescuing vessels stood by and all aboard were reported in no danger.

The loss of the German merchant undersea boat Bremen, due a month overdue, was practically admitted by Tautonic diplomats.

The Louisiana Horticultural Society took steps to combat the cotton-cushion scale which threatens destruction of all trees and plants in New Orleans.

Police of several cities joined the hunt for John Borella who shot his wife at her home in New Orleans Wednesday night.

Milton J. Cunningham, who had held many important offices and been a leading figure in reconstruction days, died at his home in New Orleans.

Order for more than 200 aeroplanes have been placed by the War Department as a first step in expansion of the aviation service.

Agents of the Department of Conservation arrested in the city outskirts several gunners shooting wild birds before the season opened.

Texas and Pacific clerks continued conferences upon demand for recognition of the brotherhood, but officials did not expect a strike.

The first prize in The Review Voting Contest is a brand new 1917 Model Ford Touring Car. If you don't win this handsome prize it will be your own fault. It costs you nothing to try.
