Will My Funds Be Safe?

That's the very first question that enters your mind when you consider depositing your money in a bank or making an investment.

It is a very reasonable and logical question. Money is hard to earn, and still harder to save. You have a right to DEMAND safety.

The affairs of this bank are under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, and conducted by leading business men of this city.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION STILL DOUBTFUL

Opinion of Leading Dailies in U. S. Divided as to Winning Candidate

Latest Returns in Third District Congressional Race Give Wade Martin Lead Over Whit P. Martin

All Amendments in State Election Carried Except No. 5

TELEGRAPH SPECIAL TO DAILY REVIEW:
2 p. m.

Wilson and Hughes are both claiming the election but lack of absolutely definite returns fail to substantiate either. The trend of present returns seems to indicate Hughes.

The New York Daily papers in their afternoon special editions of today are divided on their claims as to the winner. Wyoming and Michigan are doubtful.

The Republicans say that Wilson's sudden claim to safe lead in electoral votes is not based on facts, while the Wilson campaign managers insist that the returns from country boxes are swelling his vote. At present thirty-four electoral votes are doubtful.

The New York World and New York Tribune claim in latest extras that Wilson is elected. The New York Times says it looks like Wilson. The Herald says it is doubtful but favors Hughes. The Sun declares that Hughes is elected. The Brooklyn Eagle says Hughes. The New York American says the result is doubtful but that it favors Wilson.

The claim from the Wilson headquarters is that Wilson now has two hundred and fifty nine electoral votes for certainty while Hughes has only two hundred and thirty three. The Republicans claim about the same number in their favor. Definite results of the election will not be known until tomorrow.

Some doubt as to whether still later news will change the light, and there is also an existing conservative opinion that Hughes will come out favorably.

Wall street opinion says that Hughes is the man. The Chicago Tribune states in a special edition that it takes several days to ascertain definite figures and results.

All amendments voted on in Louisiana were carried with the exception of Amendment No. 5 which was defeated by a small majority. Candidates Capdau, Sharon, Spearing, Reuther, and Franz walk away with the school board election in New Orleans.

Special to Daily Review:
Vermillion complete excepting one box to come in shows Wade Martin majority 314. The missing box carries only ten votes.

Late reports from authoritative source indicate that Wade O. Martin, democrat, has been elected to Congress from the Third Louisiana District. The large majority given him by Vermillion parish have given ground for this report.

Vote in 6th Ward
Morgan City Precinct:
Wilson	263
Hughes	34
Wade Martin	264
Whit Martin	58
Lodrique	34

Ramos Precinct:
Wilson	26
Hughes	2
Wade Martin	26
Whit Martin	2
Incomplete returns from Third District:

Returns from the eight parishes composing the Third congressional district Tuesday night indicated the re-election of Whit P. Martin over his Democratic opponent, Sheriff Wade O. Martin, by a small majority. The returns showed that Judge Whit Martin carried Assumption, Iberia, Lafourche, St. Mary and Terrebonne, while Wade Martin was ahead in Lafayette, St. Martin and Vermillion.

Only the most meager returns came in from Vermillion, and supporters of Wade Martin claimed that complete returns from this parish would bring their candidate's total up to or ahead that of the Progressive and Republican choice.

Congressman Martin had a majority of about 400 on the face of returns.

Parishes W. O. Martin, W. P. Martin
Assumption	200
Iberia	150
Lafayette	505
Lafourche	470
St. Martin	840
St. Mary	625
Terrebonne	250
Vermillion	100
Totals	2540

Telegraphic reports from the voting precincts from all parts of the United States seem to indicate that Woodrow Wilson has been re-elected to the presidency. The tabulated report given below of the apparent vote at 10:30 this morning shows that Wilson has received a majority in thirty-three states and that he will secure from these states 312 votes in the electoral college, a margin over the necessary electoral vote in his favor of 46 electoral votes. Only a few states at this hour have given out complete returns but the report appears to justify Wall Street in giving odds of ten to one on the election of Wilson.

Following is the states and number of electoral votes which are now credited to each candidate. Complete returns may change the present report:

Carried by Wilson
States	Electoral Votes
Alabama	12
Arizona	3
Arkansas	9
California	13
Colorado	6
Delaware	3
Florida	6
Georgia	14
Idaho	4
Indiana	15
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	10
Maryland	8
Minnesota	12
Mississippi	10
Missouri	18
Montana	4
Nebraska	8
Nevada	3
New Hampshire	4
New Mexico	3
Totals	2941
