Health Officer Barred From Inspecting State Pen.

The penitentiary doors were closed to State Sanitary Engineer J. H. O'Neil and Health Inspector R. B. Sadler Monday.

President C. Harrison Parker put the bars up against Dr. Dowling's man and now the clash between the State Health Officer and the head of the penitentiary is up to Attorney General Pleasant for a judicial interpretation of the Board of Health's authority to inspect prisons.

The announcement that the health authorities have been barred by the penitentiary board came in a telegram from Baton Rouge Monday. It was addressed to Dr. Dowling, and read as follows:

Dr. Oscar Dowling,
New Orleans.

Refused admittance to penitentiary by Captain Barrow, who referred us to Colonel Parker. Refused by Colonel Parker. Advice car Istrouma.

J. H. O'Neil,
R. B. Saddler.

Immediately on receipt of this telegram Dr. Dowling forwarded a communication to the Attorney General, asking Colonel Pleasant to render a legal interpretation of the Health Board's right to inspect State prisons at any date or at any hour.

The doctor's impression at this time is that the State health officers' right to inspect State prisons and other public institutions is broad in scope and limited only to daylight, or to such hours as are within the keeping of prison discipline.

"Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Saddler were on the health train en route to New Orleans, and it occurred to me that we could save time and money by having them drop off at Baton Rouge and make a reinspection of the penitentiary," said Dr. Dowling.

"Mr. O'Neil is a very competent sanitary engineer. He has never been in the penitentiary and I wanted him to look around at the water and sewerage connections, etc., not only to get an expert opinion on conditions now prevailing, but also to make recommendations for improvements.

"Mr. Saddler is the inspector who previously had made a report on penitentiary conditions."

Announcement from Baton Rouge Monday was that Colonel Parker has forwarded a letter to Dr. Dowling defending the sanitary conditions in the penitentiary and in penal camps.

Seven years in the Pen Sentence Given Judge Weber.

Baton Rouge, La., March 10.—Former Judge Dudley L. Weber, convicted of forgery, was sentenced to serve seven years' confinement in the state penitentiary at hard labor.

When the judge asked Weber if he had anything to say, why sentence should not be passed, he replied:

"Nothing whatever."

Reports recently published in some of the New Orleans papers to the effect that a petition is being circulated to secure a pardon for Weber is absolutely without foundation. Friends of Weber state that a petition will not be circulated for two or three years.

Allen Dougherty, uncle of Weber's wife, was the only one of Weber's relatives in the courtroom.

Friedmann Treats 7 Under Eyes of Federal Experts.

New York, March 10.—After tests Sunday with his tuberculosis vaccine before physicians representing the Federal government, Dr. E. F. Friedmann spent a quiet forenoon in New York preparatory to departing late Monday for Montreal.

He plans to return here by next Friday. The seven patients treated Sunday at Mount Sini Hospital will remain there under close observation in order that physicians may determine if possible, the effect of the vaccine.

Give Us Sensible Laws.

Of course, we admit that there are too many text books used but that is not the fault of the teaching fraternity, but of our own lawmakers. The trouble is that we have too many useless laws and don't enforce the useful ones judiciously. Of course, the ones relating to the text books are rigidly enforced. The book publishers see to that. Give us sensible laws and let us have the parents, teachers and the children working harmoniously together and we will have no trouble over the children studying at home at nights. Also let's have more teachers and less number of pupils to each teacher than we now have, and then look for results.

Capdau-May Fixtures Go to Bogalusa.

Bogalusa has found a place for the attractive fixtures of the Capdau-Mays' Canal and Dauphine Street Drug Store, and hereafter the handsome hardware cases and shelves, with the accompanying large, inviting soda fountain, will grace a drug store in that enterprising little town.

Through the Barker-Blake Company the fixtures Wednesday were sold to Williams and Barrow of Bogalusa, who shortly will open two modern stores there. The large soda fountain formerly one of the finest on Canal street, immediately will be put in commission in preparation for the soft drink rush of the summer season.

Why He Knows It.

Mr. P. K. Emmons, Mineral, La., says: "I have SOLD AND USED ROYALINE OIL four years and consider it the BEST ANTISEPTIC I ever used." A trial always convinces. That's why he knows it. It will pay you to try it. You will then use nothing else. That's the way they all do. 10c, 25c, 50c. Money back plan.
