PETER HAUPT, Proprietor.

New Athens, Ill., April 21, 1916.

The Babington Store, Inc.,
Franklinton, La.

Gentlemen:

Hand you invoice and B-L for shipment of our Flour which I hope will reach you promptly and in good condition.

Hoping that your Flour trade will improve as the season advances and that soon the consumers will learn that there is no better Flour in your Town than our White Dove.

There is none better on the market and few are producing its equal when it comes to a laboratory test.

(Signed) Yours truly,
P. Haupt.

We have the Agency in this territory for the White Dove and other brands of the White Dove Flour Mills.

Well! Well! Well! Here we are: The Ideal Drug Store and Boston Store are giving away Free of Charge a beautiful Rogers' Silver Set Saturday, May 13, 1916, at 3 p. m. Don't fail to call at either store and get a free ticket.

Miss Lillie Mae Stevenson of Jenkins entertained Saturday evening in honor of Miss Eldora Bennett of Spring Hill. Quite a crowd of young people from the Spring Hill and Jenkins neighborhood were in attendance for the evening. Progressive games were played and refreshments served.

Mrs. Wallace Kerr, after a visit of some length here in the family of her son, J. D. Kerr, returned Friday to her home in San Antonio, Tex. Mrs. Kerr is a typical southern aristocrat of the bellum period and made such an interesting visitor that it was with great regret that her many friends here saw her leave.

The special five reel performance picturing Mary Pickford in Tess of the Storm Country, was such a success and proved so thoroughly enjoyable when presented last Saturday evening that the theatre going public has accorded special thanks to the management with the hope that he may furnish us again soon with a "special."

At a well attended meeting of the patrons of the Fajah School on last Saturday evening it was unanimously agreed that a three room building be constructed at once, taking the place of the two room school which they have been using for the last few years. The patrons of this community are to be congratulated upon the interest taken in this matter and for the business-like way in which they discussed these propositions and for their spirit of co-operation and harmony. Plans and specifications will be drawn up at an early date and contract let in time for the new building to be completed before the next term of school begins.

Why The Hammer.

Why is it that some people always have a hammer out for this town? If other people hammered them as they knock the town their wails could be heard clear to heaven—or hell, It is always advisable to get rid of a grouch, but it is still more advisable to lose it in the woods instead of sowing it broadcast in the heart of a fine community of energetic and respectable people.
