

Big Banquet For Centenary Workers.

The director of the Centenary drive for this church, is planning a big evening for the workers on Saturday at eight o'clock, in the Eastern Star banquet hall.

An out-of-town speaker will be invited to infuse all the needed pep and ginger into the campaign to make it the success which has been hoped for this church. The plans will have been perfected in detail and carefully outlined, all reports to date furnished by the workers and a banquet served by the young ladies of the Epworth League, which is expected to thoroughly fortify for the opening shot that will be fired on Sunday morning.

Every Franklinton worker in the Centenary campaign is expected to attend this banquet and along with the good things to eat, catch the enthusiasm of the directors who are determined to measure up fully to the standard set for this place.

Chapman Reports A Live Community Club.

The best community organization I have ever seen is the "Boosters Club" at Longacre, reports C. C. Chapman, farm demonstration agent of Beauregard Parish. The club is rightly named; the members are boosters in the true sense of the word. They own their building, known as the community house, and have meetings twice a month at which topics of interest are discussed.

The community house is furnished with comfortable chairs, a piano and a stage. A large service flag on the wall bears 17 stars, one of which is of gold, showing that these people have helped carry the war burden.

It was my good fortune to attend a recent meeting of this club this week. A regular order of business was carried out, an important item of which was the decision to plant 100 acres of peanuts for commercial purposes, and to put in a picker to handle the crop. The agent discussed this crop with them.

After the business meeting, a good musical program was rendered by the ladies, and coffee and sandwiches were served.

Commencement Notes.

Mrs. Daughdrill's pupils will give a recital Friday night, May 16th. Admission of 15 and 25 cents will be charged, proceeds to be applied to the new piano.

The recital was to have been given May 27th but the date has been changed because of the fact that some of the pupils are moving away and it is necessary to give the recital before they leave town.

Commencement sermon will be preached in the high school auditorium at 11 o'clock Sunday, May 25th, Rev. Dr. Denman of the Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, will preach the sermon.

The class play, "Rebecca's Triumph" will be given Thursday night, May 29th, with an admission fee of 15 and 25 cents.

Class night will be Friday May 30th, Mr. Chas. F. Trudeau of the State Department of Education will deliver the Baccalaureate address.

There are 22 graduates this year, the largest class in the history of the institution. They are as follows:

Agnes Bateman, Willie Bateman, Bryant Bateman, Thelma Bankston, Bertha Brooks, Julius Corkern, Annette Corkern, Elma Corkern, Carry Carter, Joyce Jones, Velma Knight, Natalie Magee, Winnie Magee, Ruth Magee, Ethel Magee, Doris Magee, John Richardson, Miah Smith, Bene Stringfield, Rubie Smith, Clara Mae Simmons, Emma Wood.

B. Y. P. U. Social.

Friday evening was the scene of a lively social pathering of the B. Y. P. U. and some of their young friends on the lawn in the rear of the Baptist parsonage.

Outdoor games and interesting contests of various kinds were enjoyed followed by iced punch and cake. The arrangement committee was heartily thanked for an unusually successful evening of pleasure.

In most localities the poultry house should face the south, as this insures the greatest amount of sunlight during the winter. Proper ventilation and sunlight means a dry house and healthy birds.

One means of increasing our supply of food is to prevent loss from hog cholera. Keep the hog house and lot clean. This is important in preventing outbreaks. If any of the hogs show signs of sickness notify the State livestock sanitary authorities, the county agent, or local veterinarian. Steps taken in the early stages of the disease can probably prevent loss, but if delayed many hogs may die.

In a small village in Ireland the mother of a soldier met the village priest, who asked her if she had had bad news.

"Sure I have," she said. "Pat has been killed."

"Oh, I am very sorry," said the priest. "Did you receive word from the war office?"

"No," she said, "I received word from himself."

The priest looked perplexed, and said, "But how is that?"

"Sure," she said, "here is the letter; read it for yourself."

The letter said, "Dear Mother—I am now in the Holy Land."

Tank Demonstration Interests Bogalusians.

A most interesting spectacle was witnessed at Bogalusa Friday when a thorough demonstration of the war tank was given, the bluffs and gullies of a large ravine in the city furnishing just the proper ground to demonstrate the hard usage and seemingly insurmountable obstacles encountered in their active work in the war zone.

The 36 camouflaged battle tanks which have been touring the Sixth Federal Reserve District in the Victory Loan campaign, have had many adventures some of them more amusing, if not so exciting, as they had on the Western front.

One of them was "arrested" in Savannah because the city officials thought it would injure the pavements.

One of them, engaged in pushing over chimneys in the burned district of Atlanta, backed into a cellar, climbed out again and tore off a fair-sized section of a brand new bungalow, whose owner took the situation very good-naturally, under the circumstances.

Several tanks were transported from town to town in enormous army trucks, which are faster than the tanks, if not so powerful. On a red clay hill in Georgia two trucks bearing tanks stuck fast. The tanks were unloaded, attached to the trucks and pulled the trucks up the hill! So, the race is not always to the swift.

The movement of the tanks was directed by Captain E. D. Gunning, U. S. A., who devoted all of his attention to this work through the campaign. His 72 men were among the most loyal and efficient workers who have ever assisted in a Liberty Loan campaign.
