

The Health Resort OF THE TOWN.

The most popular health resort of any town is the Drug Store.

When other means fail, you can call on your druggist. And he always responds.

When you get a prescription from your doctor, bring it to us.

It is safe here.

We fill it exactly as it calls for, as your health is our main consideration.

We never substitute and never use inferior medicines. That's why we have so many customers.

Mrs. R. M. McElveen spent the week on the old home farm visiting her children D. D. McElveen and Mrs. Ethel Bateman.

Miss Emma Wood entertained Monday night at progressive Six hundred in honor of Misses James and Wilkinson of Tyler.

Miss Marion Davis, after a delightful three weeks' visit to her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Magee, returned to her home in New Orleans Monday.

Misses Iris Holmes and Hilda Wilkinson of Tylertown are guests of Miss Joyce Jones who entertained for them at Six hundred on Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. K. Johnson and young children spent Sunday here at the Johnson home on her return to Bogalusa from a week's visit with her mother at Richardson.

Prof. J. I. Covington, Mrs. Leila Bickham, Misses Edith Bickham, Carrie Carter, Leitha Sheridan, Zoula Sylvest have returned from six weeks spent at the Amite summer normal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aiford and little Beryl have just returned from a fortnight's visit with Mr. Aiford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Aiford at Ponchatoula and Mrs. Aiford's mother, Mrs. L. Loritzen at Franklin, La.

Mrs. W. A. Erwin entertained the B. Y. P. U. on Friday evening delighting the young people with a number of new and interesting games after which they were served with pineapple sherbet and cake. The next social will be held with Mrs. H. M. Magee in north Franklinton.

Mrs. Ola Bell and Miss Myrtle Scarles of Amite are guests of Mrs. John D. Wood.

Mrs. Tom Pigott of Crystal Springs is spending this week with Mrs. C. T. Corkern.

Loyd Simmons of Alexandria arrived Wednesday to spend his vacation with his parents.

Miss Edna Tims left Wednesday for her Mississippi home after several weeks spent with her brother P. A. Tims and her little niece at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Magee.

Mrs. P. E. Greenlaw entertained the young people Monday evening in honor of the birthday of her daughter Dorothy. Outdoor games and refreshments made a happy occasion for the little folks.

Heinz Wood is critically ill this week from a boil on his neck having become infected and producing heavy swelling of the face and head, also high fever and delirium, though at the time this goes to press he is reported as slightly improved.

Dr. Connell returned last week from his trip north where he went to attend his wife in her last critical illness and death. Mrs. Connell was not known in Franklinton but the Doctor has made a number of warm friends who sympathize with him in this loss.

Lieut. W. M. Babington, who has been enjoying a short vacation with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Babington, since his return from two years' service in France, was called back to Bogalusa Monday to resume work with The First State Bank. Lieut. Babington was fortunate not alone in being retained with his old firm, but was advanced to auditor of the bank.

The people of Franklinton know Lieut. Babington to be so thoroughly trustworthy and capable that we consider The First State Bank also fortunate, in being able to retain his services.

Prof. Massey Gives Delightful Entertainment.

Thursday evening a most enjoyable entertainment was given to the people of Franklinton by Prof. Massey, the blind and gifted musician who is spending a short while in our midst. Prof. Massey was assisted in the evening's performance by the Misses Greenlaw of Virginia, both of whom are talented in music.

Prof. Massey has been blind since birth, but this has not prevented him from cultivating a naturally sweet and mellow voice and also perfecting his gift for piano performance, and while both of these and his readings were remarkable and highly enjoyable, it was his violin music that was considered so wonderful and has excited much comment from all who were fortunate enough to hear him on this occasion.

Mr. Massey has been imported for another evening of song and music so with an entirely new program, and still assisted by Miss Ida Greenlaw, finished violinist and pianist and her young sister Dora, piano accompanist, he will entertain the people on Friday evening at the school auditorium.

All who heard these performers last week can be assured of another evening better still, and those who were unfortunate enough to miss the first performance can count upon getting their full money's worth Friday evening.

Prof. Massey is public spirited and generous and makes a point of giving part of the proceeds of his performance to some worthy cause in the town. Out of his earnings last year he donated $1600 to the Red Cross, the Quitman, Mississippi, Times calling this Prof. Massey's best of "bearing arms."

Waverley Notes.

One of the most delightful meetings of the summer was held at the home of Mrs. John Love, Saturday, July 19. The charming living room was lovely with its decorations of shasta daisies and ferns.

The improvement of the park was discussed and the committee asked to have "slides" and new sand boxes made, also to have the gate repaired.

The study for the club year was brought up, but nothing definitely was decided. A committee will be appointed at the next meeting.

After the business, Mrs. Brock "our reader" read several chapters from the book "Dawn," after which a most interesting memory contest was given, Mrs. W. F. Simmons winning the prize.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches and ice tea was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. Meyers of Hattiesburg, Miss., and their mother, Mrs. Cozine.

The guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. E. A. Burris, Mrs. Rabb, Mrs. Meyers and Miss Stella Magee.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. B. E. Bickham August 2, at 4:30.

Stray Notice.

Strayed, one mare mule weight about eight hundred (800) lbs. Color light bay with a black stripe across shoulders, broad chubby head. She's a very leggy mule. Age about 3 years, and has been worked. Strayed from the home of H. A. Crow on July 17, 1919. A reward of $10.00 offered for said mule.

Baptists to Meet In the School Auditorium.

Contractors Wood & Renard have started dismantling the old Baptist church building, and beginning next Sunday the Baptist congregation will hold services in the school auditorium until the new brick church is completed, or other arrangements made later.

Distinguished Entertainer Coming.

The public will be pleased to learn that the well known entertainer, Miss Beulah Elwood McNemar, will give her popular recital, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" in the Franklinton School Auditorium on Tuesday night, July 29, 1919, under the auspices of the Methodist Missionary Society.

Miss McNemar is a platformist of rare ability, who always charms her audiences.

This program is a favorite—a happy combination of wit, wisdom and philosophy which never fails to please young and old.

Adults 35 cents.
Children under 14, 25 cents.

Zona Notes.

H. N. Tyson and Alton Tullos spent Friday in Franklinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Magee are preparing to leave for their new home at Picayune, Miss. They have been long residents here and will be greatly missed.

Roy Letchworth of Franklinton spent last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Spencer and children, accompanied by John Jones, Dolphus Moore, and B. J. Williams motored out to Mrs. Spencer's father Thursday for the day.

E. C. Williams has just returned from France.

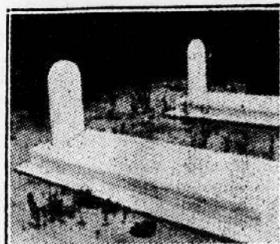

John Spencer spent Saturday in Franklinton.

Best wishes for The Era-Leader.
