

When Sickness Comes

When your doctor is called in, the next call is on the druggist.

To your druggist is entrusted the responsibility of seeing that the remedies prescribed are carefully prepared, fresh and pure, and of the required quality.

The one great big aim of our house is accuracy in prescriptions. We permit NOTHING to interfere with this, and use every possible effort to safeguard your health.

Are we your druggist? If not, may we not be?

W. M. S. Report.

The Womans Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. O. H. Carter last Wednesday. After the devotional services, Mrs. Fulton took charge of the meeting and gave a full report of the annual meeting at Lake Charles. This was indeed an inspiration to all who were present.

Our Society is claiming the honor of answering the little girl's prayer at St. Mark's Hall. She had prayed earnestly for one Christmas present (a red dress) and the box we packed just before Christmas contained a red dress.

After the meeting adjourned delicious sandwiches and tea were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ada Babington.

Flying Fish.

Flying fish are chiefly found along the trade path of the North Atlantic.

Builder of Pagoda.

The Burman, if he acquires wealth, must also acquire merit—"Kuthe"—and this he must do by building a pagoda on which shall be set out on a marble slab how much money he spent on building it. He likes people to address him as "Builder of a Pagoda," and he will say to his wife before others: "Oh, wife of a builder of a pagoda!"

The Woolsack.

The woolsack is the big red bag, without back or arms, on which the lord chancellor sits when presiding over the deliberations of the house of lords. Its origin is curious. An act was passed in Elizabeth's reign prohibiting the exportation of wool, and to keep this source of national wealth in their lordships' minds the kindergarten notion of making them sit on wool bags was tried. Nowadays, when a new chancellor is appointed he is said to be appointed to the woolsack and to sit on the woolsack.
