Local Items

Brief Mention of Local and Personal Happenings of The Week.

The Era-Leader.

Franklinton, La., Oct. 14, 1920.

M. S. Cone of Tylertown, spent the week-end with his family here.

Fall and winter waists—Georgette and Taffeta.

Beard & Thompson.

Mrs. Amanda Gayer of Bogalusa, spent the week here with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gayer and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston Sheridan and sister, Miss Leitha Sheridan of Bogalusa, visited Franklinton thru the week-end.

Interesting news—we have cutting, checks, chevrons, domestics at 25 cents per yard.

Beard & Thompson.

Married—Sunday, October 3, Mr. J. Fenderson and Miss Irma Magee the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee at Spring Hill.

The High School basket ball team had an interesting game of ball with Bogalusa Friday on the latter's indoor court, losing the game to the Magic City boys however by a small score.

A total of $40.00 in cash—1st prize $15.00, 2nd prize $10.00, 3rd prize $7.00, 4th prize $5.00, 5th prize $3.00—will be given away at our store. Thursday, December 23, to our customers.

Burris Bros., Ltd.

Married—Wednesday, October 6, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the bride's home in Texas, between Mr. Levy J. Simmons and Miss Roberta Gale. After a week's visit among various relatives and friends, the young people are established in their Bogalusa home with the good wishes of their scores of Franklinton friends.

Claude Simmons of Magnolia, spent several days here this week with his mother.

Burris Bros., Ltd. will give away five cash prizes, totaling $40.00, on December 23.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Seal and children of Bogalusa were Sunday guests of Mrs. Alfred Coyne.

Mrs. Ira Warren and daughter, Miss Freddie Warren of Hackley, were Sunday guests of Mrs. C. C. Fortinberry.

Scarf-coatees with caps to match in all colors. Very popular.

Beard & Thompson.

Friday evening Mrs. J. N. Simmons entertained her entire family at dinner in honor of the return of her son, Levy J. Simmons with his bride from Texas.

Mrs. Wm. Willoughby spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Magee and was joined by Mr. Willoughby for the week-end, both returning home Monday morning.

Miss Susette Keathley of Crystal Springs, Miss., arrived Saturday to take charge of the music department of the local High School and will be located with Mrs. M. H. Holmes for the session.

Wm. Burris, one of our boys who has never allowed his Era-Leader subscription to lapse since he first left Franklinton for his University course, sends a renewal this week and reports himself busy now at Dayton, Ohio, in his chosen work, electrical engineering.

Cotton Report.

Hackley, La., Oct. 11, 1920.

The Era-Leader—There were 1630 bales of cotton ginned in Washington Parish from the crop of 1920 prior to September 25, 1920 as compared with 1665 bales ginned to September 25, 1919.

Dolphus W. Branch, Special Agent.

Babington's Drug Store

Incorporated.

J. Fred Bateman is spending this week in Lake Charles.

For Sale—Second hand runabouts and top buggies.

C. S. E. Babington.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Greenlaw spent several days last week in New Orleans.

Franklinton won their first game of basket ball for the season Tuesday, defeating Bogalusa 13 to 5.

The delight of our school girls—velvet and plush tams. Smart looking and quite a fad.

Beard & Thompson.

Mrs. Pete James and Miss Ray Streak, accompanied by George Varnado, all of Folsom, came up for the week-end with Mrs. W. F. Varnado.

Trade with us and ask for tickets on the $40.00 in cash prizes we are giving away.

Burris Bros., Ltd.

Mrs. Lizzie Sylvest of the Gor man neighborhood, made us an interesting call last week when she dropped in to renew her subscription to The Era-Leader.

Mrs. D. R. Johnson is with her sister, Mrs. Alec McKowan, for a fortnight's stay and sends announcement of the arrival in the home Friday of a baby girl. Mrs. McKowan and the little one are both reported doing well.

Wanted.

Young girls 18 years of age, to learn telephone operating.

Employment pleasant and surroundings excellent. Apply to Miss Hazel Parks, Chief Operator, Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Co., Franklinton, La.

The Third Son.

Three sons in an American home is the only thing that could possibly rival "another daughter," and Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Amacker of Kentwood, are too proud of their patriotic family line up to leave our mistake of last week unchallenged. "Obie Amacker," recently arrived, is the third son of this family and knowing the mother so well we are sure, thru her influence, of seeing the trio stand "shoulder to shoulder" in the fight for the best of life.

Young Men! Parents!

and

Those of you who still retain the spirit of youth.

Here is a magazine for which you have been waiting a long while! A happy combination of clean, stirring fiction and exceedingly helpful, straight-from-the-shoulder articles by men of broad experience and exceptional ability.

Some recent contributors: Herbert Hoover, Donald MacMillan, Fred Stone, Charles Boardman Hawes and Holman Day.

Calvin Coolidge, the law and order Governor of Massachusetts, in a letter to us says in part, "The Open Road is clean, animated, and of genuine inspiration for courageous living. It seeks to convey a sense of the nobility of honest effort and the joy of achievement without pedantry."

In these days of high prices it is difficult to get your "money's worth." The Open Road gives you not only full measure but throws in a few extras for good will.

There is action on every page, with a liberal number of photographs and illustrative drawings by able artists. There is plenty of humor, too; you will enjoy a series of "story cartoons" now running.

The Vocational Department is performing a valuable service all over the country to young men who are in doubt as to what to make their life work. Find out about it!

Three dollars for a year of pleasure and profit in monthly installments.

Your subscription will be accepted at the office of this paper and forwarded to

The Open Road 248 Boylston Street, Boston 17, Mass.

For Sale.

A real bargain in a Ford Car. Engine in fine condition. Equipped with a full set of new tires. For particulars call at Era-Leader Office.

Aeroplane Here.

The Aeroplane of the Zenith Company arrived from Poplarville just a few minutes before we went to press Wednesday morning. Thousands of circulars boosting the Fair have been printed and will be distributed by the plane, which is scheduled to fly over every town in the parish this evening.

Flights will be made here at noon each day.

Bride Honored.

Mrs. C. C. Simmons entertained a few friends Monday afternoon from four to six at a shower for Mrs. L. J. Simmons, the affair being a total surprise to the bride.

Mrs. Simmons was assisted by Mrs. J. L. Brock in the entertaining features and refreshments and a most delightful and informal occasion was the result.

The bride, who was formerly Miss Roberta Gale, taught in the local High school and thru her faithful and helpful work with her students is endeared to every family of the community. Miss Gale was one of the most popular teachers ever connected with our school and her friends here were reconciled to her loss from the faculty only by the delight experienced thru the announcement of her coming marriage to one of the popular home boys.

Mrs. Simmons was showered by many appropriate gifts for home decoration and household utility, which will come into immediate use the young people establish themselves in their new home in Bogalusa.

The KITCHEN CABINET

The mountain of success is steep and rough. Who gains the summit climbs a weary way. And, though brave feet grow stronger with rebuff, The rocky path a coward's steps may stay.

A HOT WEATHER LUNCHEON.

Even in warm weather a hot soup is enjoyed, especially those made of fresh green vegetables, such as peas, spinach, vegetable oysters or celery. Cucumber soup may not be so well known but it is a most appetizing one.

Cream of Cucumber Soup.—Have ready one cupful of stewed cucumber, rubbed through a sieve. Take the liquor in which the cucumber was cooked, reduce it to half a cupful by boiling, and set aside. Put into a saucepan one tablespoonful of butter, season with salt, pepper and, when the butter is hissing hot, stir into it two tablespoonfuls of flour. Stir until the mixture leaves the sides of the pan. Add three cupfuls of cold milk and stir constantly until it boils. When the mixture is as thick as a thin cream sauce add the cucumber and the half-cupful of liquor. Mix thoroughly, boil up once and serve.

Eggs a la Bourgeoise.—Cut slices of bread half an inch thick and trim off the crust; lay on a buttered platter and sprinkle generously with grated cheese. Beat eggs enough to cover the bread; season with salt, pepper and grated nutmeg; pour over the bread and bake in a moderate oven until the eggs are set.

Creamed Fish With Potato.—Prepare creamed salmon as usual and put a layer of the fish in a baking dish, cover with a layer of cold, mashed potato, then add another layer of fish until the dish is full and the potato on top. Dot with bits of butter, sprinkle with buttered crumbs and bake brown in a hot oven.

Macaroni With Codfish.—Take one cupful of cold-boiled macaroni, add one cupful of cold-boiled codfish flaked fine. Put into a buttered baking dish, sprinkle with salt, pepper, grated cheese and sufficient milk to moisten. Bake until brown.

Potato Border.—Make a rim of mashed seasoned potato around a well-buttered platter. Fill the center with creamed fish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven until the crumbs are brown.
