

What You Can't Get

In a first-class drug store these days does not make nearly as long a list as what you CAN get there. Our store is no exception to this rule. Everything is up-to-date—fairly priced—in full assortment.

IDEAL DRUG STORE

M. J. MAGEE, Prop.

FRANKLINTON, LA.

Local Items

Brief Mention of Local and Personal Happenings of the Week.

The Era-Reader.

Franklinton, La., July 21, 1921.

M. C. Poole spent Tuesday in Bogalusa.

Dollar Day at Burris Bros. Saturday, July 23.

Mrs. Frazier of Grenada, is a guest this week of Mrs. H. C. Bell.

F. L. Sanford returned to Zona Friday from a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Joe Day of Greensburg visited Mrs. M. C. Poole the first of the week.

Miss Lillian Magee visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Magee at Bogalusa last week.

See the great bargains offered by Burris Bros. at their Dollar Day.

J. E. Tony of Shubuta, Miss., is here for a week with Franklinton relatives.

Miss Eunice and Mr. Eugene Welch are visiting relatives at Hattiesburg this week.

Johnny Sones and Robert Bateman of Bogalusa spent the week end with Mrs. J. E. Bateman.

Plant fall beans and 80-day July seed corn. Sold by Babington Bros. Inc.

The greatest Dollar values ever offered will be found at our store Saturday,—Beard's Store.

The school board has fixed September 5 for the opening of school for the 1921 and 22 session.

Mrs. George and young son concluded a lengthy visit with Mrs. John Love and left for their Texas home Friday.

Fleet Magee, whose run now is between New Orleans and Grenada, is spending his vacation with Franklinton relatives.

Mrs. Sadie Bateman returned Sunday from Nashville where she completed a six weeks' summer course at Peabody normal.

Gordon Goodbee, Jr. came in Monday from Monroe to spend the summer's vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Goodbee.

Mrs. Covington of Bogalusa came Sunday to stay with Mrs. J. I. Covington and children while Professor Covington is away for his summer course.

Mrs. Bonnie Smith of the Sheridan neighborhood stopped a few hours with Franklinton friends Sunday on her return from a visit with Lexie relatives.

Misses Natalie and Mildred Magee, Messrs Delos Magee and Talmage Jones accompanied Miss Mildred Varnado home on her return from the summer normal and all spent Sunday in Ponchatoula.

Pleated, accordion, knife, hem-stitching, embroidering, beading, mail-ordering, fancy braiding, buttonholing, button covering; country orders solicited.

Miss Belle Tynes-Fitzgerald, 138 Canal St., New Orleans, La.

See what your Dollar will buy at Burris Bros. Saturday, July 23.

Clyde Poole and Mike Foil visited Tylertown with friends Friday.

Miss Norma Welch of Bogalusa was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mirl Welch last week.

Don't fail to take advantage of bargains at our Dollar Day sale Saturday,—Beard's Store.

J. I. Covington left Tuesday for Nashville, Tenn., where he is to take a special course at Peabody.

Aubert Carter left Sunday for a week's visit with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Kemp at Bogalusa.

Miss Clotilde Parker from Hammond and Miss Jewel Mixon from Tangipahoa are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. Q. Wood.

Mrs. Ogden Doremus and son, Ogden, Jr. left Sunday for a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. C. Doremus at Bogalusa.

Walter A. Jasper, New Orleans, La., of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, was in Franklinton Friday attending to government affairs.

Mrs. Mirl Welch entertained a progressive ruck party Thursday night, delicious ice cream and cake were served, Norma Welch being the honor guest.

Mesdames Dobson and Burris returned from Hammond Sunday bringing home with them H. E. Dobson who seems very much improved in health.

Our town was full of visitors Saturday and Sunday, parents and friends of the normal students who came in to convey the young ladies to their homes.

Miss Alice Pope and Mrs. D. B. Walker spent Sunday, afternoon in Bogalusa, with Miss Gertrude Pope who is in the Bogalusa hospital this week undergoing operation for tonsils.

Bargains! Bargains! Bargains! One and two horse second hand wagons and second hand buggies, $25.00 up. Specially low prices on new buggies and wagons. Don't buy until you get my prices if you want to save money.

C. S. E. Babington.

Mrs. W. B. Gray concluded a visit with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Bond and left Thursday for her home at Hammond. Mrs. Gray is one of our regular subscribers and before leaving advanced her subscription a year to be sure of regular news from home.

O. F. Monk leased the attractive little cottage belonging to J. Wright Simmons and installed his furnishings Saturday. Mrs. Monk left Sunday for Bolton to get the children who have been staying with their grand parents, and the family will begin house-keeping in their new location by the close of the week.

Mrs. Minnie Varnado Henson whose home now is at Slidell, lost her year and a half old son, Rupert Henson, last week. The body was brought to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Varnado where funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Thursday by Rev. L. W. Cain and interment was made in Morris cemetery.

Beard's Store for Dollar Day, Saturday, July 23.

Mrs. William Carp and son Sidney, left for a two weeks' visit at Biloxi.

Burris Bros. has wonderful bargains for Dollar Day, see them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Ott and Mrs. J. Vol. Brock visited Mt. Hermon friends Sunday.

Mrs. M. J. Magee and her mother, Mrs. Rose Wilson spent the week end with Mrs. Fleet Miller at Mt. Hermon.

Jess Johnson came out from New Orleans for several days last week with his father, who is convalescing now from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Fussell and children and Mrs. James Fussell and daughter Gladys visited Kinzie Knight and family at Tylertown last week.

Mrs. J. V. Rabb and children and Mrs. C. C. Simmons and children left Friday for a month's visit with their respective families at Woodville, Miss.

Our town has settled to its usual quiet again after the departure of the 200 Normal students who have kept things pretty lively with us thru the past six weeks.

Gladys Daniel at Angie celebrated her 14th birthday anniversary last week, entertaining a dozen girl friends at a house party for the full week, Mamie Brock being one of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Blackwell and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. Blackwell of Kentwood spent a few hours with relatives here Friday as they motored thru from a fishing trip on Pearl River where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts and children spent a most enjoyable day with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Jenkins. At noon a most appetizing dinner was served and a few hours later they cut several very choice watermelons.

At the residence of Mrs. J. Vol. Brock on Tuesday evening, a social was enjoyed by the sixteen year old class of the Baptist Sunday School, who had as their guests the sixteen year olds from the Methodist Sunday School. Miss Pearl Nettles directed the games and Misses Willetta Bailey and Ellen Brock served refreshments of cake and pineapple sherbet.

The Franklinton team played what they considered one of the best games of the season on the Madisonville diamond, scoring 5 to 2 in favor of Franklinton.

The features of the game were the pitching and batting of Zeke Babington. Madisonville got only two hits and as for batting, Zeke was at the bat four times and made two home runs, one two bagger and one single, driving in Meyers each time who scored three of the five runs made.

The boys returned home very much elated over the treatment they received at Madisonville, the team and residents being especially courteous to the visitors.

A quiet wedding of much interest to many friends, was that of Miss Hester Knight to Mr. Dewey Reagan, both of Bogalusa, which took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fortinberry. Rev. H. E. Pettus in a very impressive manner united the happy couple.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. M. Knight and has been in the employ of the Great Southern Lumber Company for some time. Mr. Reagan is a promising young business man and is in the employ of the Rester Motor Company.

A long, happy and prosperous married life is the wish of their many friends.

Four negroes were killed and a white man wounded in a terrific race clash in Richland parish.

Israel Daniels to Fannie Parnell.

Ned Lewis, Franklinton, to Wilma Anderson, Tylertown.

Willie Scott to Mary Williams.

Mr. Otis Harvey and Miss Mae Holmes went to Bogalusa for the 4th. While there they were quietly married, and but for the list of marriage licenses in the Franklinton Era-Reader we might never have known the truth.—Tylertown Times.

White applicants—Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, July 27, 28, 29; at High school building.

Negro applicants—Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 11, 12, and 13.

Reading course examination—Saturday, July 30.

D. H. Stringfield, Superintendent.

Base Ball.

Two games of ball with Tylertown are scheduled for this week, Franklinton to go to Tylertown Wednesday and Tylertown to come here for a return game Friday.

Friday's game on the local diamond will be the very best game of the season. Batteries for Tylertown, Freeman and Moffet. Batteries for Franklinton, Regan and Clements.

Game will be called here at 3.30 sharp, and on account of the heavy expense, ladies and children will be charged 25 cents admission, men to pay the usual price of 50 cents.

Two games with Gloster, Miss. are booked for next week, to be played Tuesday and Wednesday on the local diamond.

Home Girl Gets Honor.

Miss Lora Poole made the highest grade at the summer normal and was awarded the lovely five pound box of candy offered by the progressive Babington Drug Store.

Boys Leave for Camp.

Doyle Bateman, Curtis Hennessy and Addison Bickham left last week for a month in Camp Jackson, S. C., a military camp where the government is paying all expenses of the 1000 boys and furnishing well prescribed athletic sports and recreations in addition to the routine drill. It is hoped that many more boys from our community will take advantage of this month of camp life next summer for it is sure to be a good experience for the youth of our land.

Interesting Game at Madisonville.

The Franklinton team played what they considered one of the best games of the season on the Madisonville diamond, scoring 5 to 2 in favor of Franklinton.

The features of the game were the pitching and batting of Zeke Babington. Madisonville got only two hits and as for batting, Zeke was at the bat four times and made two home runs, one two bagger and one single, driving in Meyers each time who scored three of the five runs made.

The boys returned home very much elated over the treatment they received at Madisonville, the team and residents being especially courteous to the visitors.

A quiet wedding of much interest to many friends, was that of Miss Hester Knight to Mr. Dewey Reagan, both of Bogalusa, which took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fortinberry. Rev. H. E. Pettus in a very impressive manner united the happy couple.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. M. Knight and has been in the employ of the Great Southern Lumber Company for some time. Mr. Reagan is a promising young business man and is in the employ of the Rester Motor Company.

A long, happy and prosperous married life is the wish of their many friends.

Four negroes were killed and a white man wounded in a terrific race clash in Richland parish.

Israel Daniels to Fannie Parnell.

Ned Lewis, Franklinton, to Wilma Anderson, Tylertown.

Willie Scott to Mary Williams.

Mr. Otis Harvey and Miss Mae Holmes went to Bogalusa for the 4th. While there they were quietly married, and but for the list of marriage licenses in the Franklinton Era-Reader we might never have known the truth.—Tylertown Times.

White applicants—Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, July 27, 28, 29; at High school building.

Negro applicants—Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 11, 12, and 13.

Reading course examination—Saturday, July 30.

D. H. Stringfield, Superintendent.

SPECIAL PRICES ON FLOUR

Buy while it's cheap, and at the house where all standard groceries are sold at the lowest possible profit.

Self-Rising Flour

Spread Eagle, 98 lbs. for. $4.65
Santa Claus, 98 lbs. for. 4.60
Santa Claus, 24 lbs. for. 1.25

Plain Flour

White Lily, 98 lbs. for. $4.50
White Lily, 48 lbs. for. 2.25
White Lily, 25 lbs. for. 1.20

Sugar

Best Standard Granulated Per lb. 63
64c

"Not Biggest, But Best."

OTTO E. PASSMAN,

Phone 104.

Franklinton, La.

Your Doctor Knows

and has confidence in this drug store. Whether for service in emergencies of sickness, or for every-day needs, you will find us prepared to give you the best.

Medicines Prescriptions
Puretest
Drugs Chemicals
Toilet Needs
Rubber Goods
Candy Stationery

Babington's Drug Store, Inc.

Just Received—Carload

Essex Bath Tubs,
Sanitary Toilets,
Lavatories and Kitchen Sinks.

Our prices are below New Orleans prices

5' Essex Tubs each.	$30.50	Lavatory, 19" x 6" rim.	$10.00
Sanitary Toilet, C. I. Low-down Tank, enameled inside and outside.	$32.50	Flat rim Sink, Enameled, 18x30	6.50
		R. R. One-piece Sink, 18x30.	13.50

All above prices F. O. B. Bogalusa.

We have a licensed plumber at your service, who will install any of the above at a very reasonable price.

The Million Article Store

M. MARX, Prop.

Box 527 BOGALUSA, LA. Phone 150

Oldest Store in the Parish.

Best Groceries, Grain and Feedstuffs.

Goods satisfactory; deliveries prompt

Phone us your orders

BABINGTON BROS., Inc.

Highest prices paid for Chickens, Eggs and Butter.