

DISEASES THAT KILL

Consumption is a curable disease. Certain complications make consumption incurable.

Most cases of death from consumption are the direct result of neglected cases.

Pe-ru-na works harmoniously with nature to eject the tubercles from the lungs, and works so successfully that if there is a cure for consumption Pe-ru-na is the remedy.

Read this letter from Mrs. H. A. Tyner, of Four Oaks, N. C., about her daughter, Mrs. L. Keene. She says: Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

DEAR SIR:—My daughter had every symptom of consumption—suppression of menses, night sweats and great emaciation. She was so low that none of our neighbors thought she could live. In May Mr. C. E. Adams, of this place, who had taken Pe-ru-na, told me if anything would help her Pe-ru-na would. I got a bottle of it and some rock candy and began giving it to her. During the first few days she was so weak she could not take a half teaspoonful at a time, but I gave it to her in small quantities. In ten days she had gained weight and could walk two hundred yards and back without resting; she kept getting stronger, and in twelve months she seemed to be as well as ever was in her life. I feel, and so does every one that knew about her sickness, that Pe-ru-na saved her life. My daughter's name is Mrs. L. Keene.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Clarence Pierson, of New Iberia, was the welcome guest of his parents the week.

Miss J. M. Aniel, of Campt, passed through the city during the week, after spending the winter months in New York, from where she made numerous trips to the interesting spots in the North and East.

Mr. Ernest Hertzog, of St. Louis, was the guest of his sister Mrs. Alice Debloux, a day and night of last week.

Miss Fannie Nelken left Saturday for Leguena in Point Coupee parish where she will have charge of a school.

Miss Besse Levy left Friday evening and Miss Edna Saturday morning for Alexandria, returning home on Sunday night.

Mr. Sam Caspari spent Friday in Alexandria.

Miss Elise Cockerham left Tuesday morning for New Orleans where she will make her formal debut in city society. Miss Elise is popular in Natchitoches and we do not doubt that that she will score the same success in a larger circle that she has, since her debut here.

Mr. M. H. Carver left Sunday afternoon for Many where he goes to attend court.

Miss Mary Kate Jack left Sunday afternoon for Mansfield where she went to attend her sister, Mrs. Ida Hall, who is quite ill.

Mr. A. L. Barnett, a photographer from Alexandria, was a visitor to Natchitoches on Tuesday.

Mr. T. J. Welch, of P. of Ward 6, was in town this week.

Misses Jos. Prudhomme and J. G. Headlender, of Campt, were visitors to town last week.

Mrs. H. M. Hyams is expected home to-day, after several weeks' visit to relatives in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cook, Miss Alice Keegan and Miss M. Hughes, of Natchitoches, were registered at the Phoenix Saturday—Shreveport Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henry and children, of Henryville, are the guests of Mrs. Pauline Flanner this week.

The many friends of Mrs. Mend Carriere, of San Antonio, Texas, will be delighted to learn that her parents, Judge and Mrs. D. Pierson, are expected to arrive here very soon to pay them a visit of indefinite length.

Mr. J. H. Stephens, of Provencal, was a visitor to Natchitoches this week.

Mr. B. B. Cook, expert stenographer of Natchitoches, was here all of last week taking testimony in important cases.—Marksville Enterprise.

Mr. K. E. Foster, a former resident of our parish, but now of Leesville, was a pleasant visitor to The Enterprise on Tuesday. Mr. Foster was one of the staunchest democrats that Natchitoches could boast of and all regret to lose him as a citizen. It was through his powerful influence that the Populist party here were defeated in a democratic majority of 50 odd at the last election.

Mr. Henry Gumble, of New Orleans, was a visitor to Natchitoches this week.

Dr. J. W. Cockerham is in New Orleans this week while Mr. Cockerham is at the plantation on Red River.

Mr. C. Perry, a knight of the grip, spent a few days here last week with his wife who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry.

J. Williams, of Montgomery, son of Mr. J. H. Williams, of the firm of Williams, Weaver & O'Quin, came over to join the Natchitoches boys that left on Monday for the State University at Baton Rouge. The four, who went from here were Leo and Sidney Kaffer, Manlie Nelken and George Stephens.

Misses W. W. and C. W. of Alexandria, of Bernuda, were visitors to town Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Jones is at home again after a trip to other sections of the State in the interest of his Farmers' Business Record.

Mr. Ashton Terret, of Washington, D. C., is on his annual visit to his mother, Mrs. P. Crain.

Mr. John Sheppard, who has been residing in Alabama for the past eighteen months, returned to Natchitoches last week.

Mr. J. C. Trichel, Sr. left last week for New Orleans, where he has gone for treatment at one of the hospitals.

Next Sunday will be the Methodist pastor's last appointment in Natchitoches before the meeting of the Annual Conference.

H. ARMSTRONG.

The friends of Miss Ida Cunnigham the eldest daughter of Hon. M. J. Cunnigham were very much surprised to learn of her marriage in New Orleans some ten days ago to Mr. R. Snyder, of Cincinnati. The Enterprise extends congratulations.

When you want your whiskey call on P. C. Rogers.

While there is no regularly organized society there are a number of the most talented musicians in town who meet regularly every two weeks at the home of one member and revel some three or four hours in music of the very highest order. There is vocal music, solos, duets, quartets and choruses, violin and piano music and occasionally when an "audience" of some few is invited their appreciation of the choice selections, vied with that of the musicians themselves who, enjoy the congeniality and sympathy that exists between them and refrain from the time being anyway. These congenial spirits are discussing the giving of a comic opera some time this winter, and their friends are hoping that the "some time" will be very soon.

Court Items.

Quite a boom in litigation has struck the clerk and sheriff's offices. Last week attachments were filed against Mr. I. Raphael, of Campt, by creditors who claim $9,000. Six attachments in all were filed. It is said that Mr. Raphael's liabilities amount to between thirty-five and forty thousand dollars and his assets to half that amount.

Mr. Hyman Jaffa, of Bayou Natchez, was also attached by S. Gumbel & Co., of New Orleans, and S. G. Dreyfus & Co., of Shreveport, for something over $3,000. We understand that Mr. Jaffa will contest these attachments.

In 1887 Mr. Thomas McIntosh of Alton, Tenn., had an attack of dysentery which became chronic. "I was treated by the best physicians in East Tennessee without a cure," he says. "Finally I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using about twelve bottles I was cured and well." For sale by Jann & Suddath, Druggists.

The jump in the cotton market on Monday produced quite a comfortable effect upon the farmers and merchants. It will continue at the same gait, one-eight cent up for several days it will brighten things up considerably.

Weddings.

On Wednesday the 23, at 1 o'clock, Miss M. Luella Cloutier was united in matrimony to Mr. Lestan Prudhomme by Rev. Father Andrie at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Emile Cloutier, of Starlight. Owing to the recent death in the bride's family, only a few were invited to witness the pretty ceremony that united two fond hearts. The bride, a very pretty blonde, was gown in a dainty white organdy over white satin while the groom wore the regulation suit of black. Miss Emma, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, while Mr. Felix Cloutier attended as best man. After the ceremony a splendid feast of sweets was served and then the newly married party left for their home at Bernuda where they will live with the groom's mother, Mrs. A. Prudhomme. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. The editor was remembered with a large package of cake and candy and is happy to be able to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. L. Prudhomme and extend best wishes for a long and prosperous married life.

Opera House.

The season will open on Monday, Dec. 5th. When Mr. Edward P. Elliott of the Lyceum Bureau will appear. Don't miss it. See what the newspapers say about his entertainments: From Charleston (S. C.) News-Tourier.

Mr. Edward P. Elliott appeared last night under the management of the Charleston Lyceum before a large audience. Mr. Elliott appeared in a unique and difficult role, that of a monologist. He carried his audience with him through a three-act comedy, entitled "Christopher, Jr.," without even a stage set, with no change of costume, in fact, without change of any sort, except that of voice and facial expression. Eight characters come and go, each role standing out clear and distinct from the others. Mr. Elliott gets a magnificent versatility that will win him audience the world over. His entertainment was one of the most enjoyable of the course, not only because of the charm of novelty it offered, but because of Mr. Elliott's really remarkable gifts and attainments. His personality is most attractive, and combining, as he does, with it all the ability and bearing of an actor, he carried his performance last night to a perfection which Charleston, at least, seldom sees equal.

Popular prices. Reserved seats 50c, Gallery 25c. Seats now on sale at Williams, Weaver & O'Quin.

From Fort Worth (Tex.) Register.

Somewhere near twelve hundred people gathered at the City Hall last night to hear Edward P. Elliott give his impersonation of the famous comedy of errors, "Christopher, Jr." Mr. Elliott is a whole comedy company in himself, a sort of syndicate, as it were, and it came to being an impersonator, he has reached the topmost round of the ladder. Mr. Elliott scored a great hit last night, and the Lyceum course is to be congratulated upon a having secured such a valuable substitute for the regular number in the course.

At the Opera House Dec. 7th.

WHAT'S SCROFULA IS.

Scrofula is disease as old as antiquity. It has been handed down for generations and is the same to-day as in early times. It is emphatically a disease of the blood, and the only way to cure it is by purifying the blood. The blood is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does in every case where it is given a faithful trial. It eradicates all impurities from the blood, and cures the sores, boils, pimples, and all forms of skin diseases due to scrofula, taints in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla has won the grateful praise of vast numbers of people by its grand and complete cures. Don't allow scrofula to develop in your blood. Cure it at once by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Use Always Bought

The following reads like a romance and it emanated from staid old Natchitoches and is the beginning of what we hope will be a happy future.

About a year ago Miss Octavia Davison of Campt went to New Orleans with Mrs. C. McKenna with whom she had been making her home for several years, and while there a mutual friend brought about a correspondence between her and a Mr. J. W. Crosby. The correspondence continued briskly, photos and references were exchanged, a friendship was established which quickly ripened into love and the result was that Miss Davison left here some 10 days ago, was met half way by the impatient lover where the marriage ceremony was performed and then he bore his willing bride to a nice little home in Bloomfield, Mo. Mr. Crosby is a well to do widower with four grown sons and from a letter that we saw from the bride, we learn that she is the happy wife of a good man and the mistress of a new and pretty home where we hope that she will find much comfort and happiness.

FROM NEW ZEALAND.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's Colic Remedy the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy.

In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children. E. Scantlebury. For sale by Jann & Suddath, Druggists.

Prevention better than cure. Tutt's Liver Pills will not only cure, but if taken in time will prevent Sick Headache, dyspepsia, biliousness, malaria, constipation, jaundice, torpid liver and kindred diseases. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS ABSOLUTELY CURE.

The Round Table Club.

Mrs. J. A. Ducournau, Jr., was the very delightful hostess of the married ladies club on last Wednesday afternoon. The game of progressive euchre was a little late in beginning owing to the tardy arrival of some of the members, but was none the less enjoyed or spirited for that reason, and although Mrs. T. P. Chapin was victorious in carrying off the first prize, a Dresden china card receiver, Mmes. P. Breazeale, S. H. Hill, J. S. Dixon and C. E. Greneau won the same number of games that she did and cut for it too. Mmes. E. Phillips and E. J. Harrison took for the booty, but Mrs. Harrison's luck secured for her the coveted honor and gave the other a hearty laugh at her witty remarks.

After the game the guests were ushered into the dining room where a pretty set table delighted the eye as well as the palate while the ruby colored getatine, whipped cream and dainty kind of cakes were eaten.

When your feet feel tired, languid, nervous and are troubled with pimples and eruptions, you will find Hood's Sarsaparilla really meets your needs. It purifies and enriches the blood and imparts to it the qualities needed to tone the nerves and nourish the whole system. It cures all blood humors.

Hood's Pills cure sick headache, nausea, biliousness and all liver ills. Price 25 cents.
