

DISEASES THAT KILL

Consumption is a curable disease. Certain complications make consumption incurable. Most cases of death from consumption are the direct result of neglected coughs. Pe-ru-na works harmoniously with nature to effect the tubercles from the lungs, and works so successfully that if there is a cure for consumption Pe-ru-na is the remedy. Read this letter from Mrs. H. A. Tyner, of Four Oaks, N. C., about her daughter, Mrs. L. Keene. She says: Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O. DEAR SIR:—My daughter had every symptom of consumption—suppression of menses, night sweats and great emaciation. She was so low that none of our neighbors thought she could live. In May Mr. C. E. Adams, told me if anything would help her Pe-ru-na would. I got a bottle of it and some rock candy and began giving it to her. During the first few days she was so weak she could only take a half teaspoonful at a time, but I gave it to her as often as she could bear it. In two weeks she could walk two hundred yards and back without resting. She kept getting stronger, and in twelve months she seemed to be as well as she ever was in her life. I feel, and so does every one that knows about her sickness, that Pe-ru-na saved her life. My daughter's name is Mrs. L. Keene.

Mr. Roy Liso was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Levy for a few days.
Mr. Paul Liso, of Alexandria, spent Saturday in Natchitoches.
Mrs. Kate Chopin, (the noted writer) of St. Louis, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Phano Breazeale. All of her old friends and admirers are glad to welcome her and many new ones were delighted to form the acquaintance of this gifted woman whose personality is as charming and unique as her genius.
Mr. M. H. Carver paid a short business visit to Shreveport this week.
Miss Mathilda Prudhomme is the guest of her brother, Mr. Achille Prudhomme.
The friends of the couple mentioned below will be gratified to read following:
"The Bulletin acknowledges a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. Tuzin. Mr. Tuzin is the well known artist who has the famous Cuban picture in the main building. We found Mr. and Mrs. Tuzin clever and interesting people. They are well satisfied with the patronage they have been receiving at the fair. On Baton Rouge day over 5,000 ladies and gentlemen visited the famous painting."
Mrs. A. Derbans left for her home in Washington Friday after spending past few months with her daughter Mrs. J. C. Trichel Jr.
Miss Bertina Levy left Saturday morning for Alexandria on a visit to relatives.

The Round Table Club.
Mrs. C. E. Greneau was the hostess of the Round Table Club on last Wednesday afternoon and entertained her guests very pleasantly.
Quite a number of games of euchre were played and to Mrs. Lilly Ducornau was awarded the first prize for winning the greatest number, which was a pretty hand-painted plaque. Mrs. E. V. Deblieux and Mrs. C. E. Greneau drew for the booby, a bottle of champagne and the latter was the fortunate winner.
Brilliant jests and repartee enlivened the hour that the ladies spent around the table enjoying the chicken and oyster gumbo and a cup of that which cheers, with the proper accompaniments and at quite a late hour they separated more delighted than ever with their club.
Dolls from 5c. to $5.00 at Mrs. A. Z. Lewis.
Alexandria will vote very soon on a law that it would be well for Natchitoches to adopt the prohibiting of dogs and horses running at large.
Attention.
Owing to the very disagreeable weather, the supper that was to have been given by the Episcopal ladies last Friday night was postponed until to-morrow the 16th.
Lunches will be ready for the children to be sent out, after 3 o'clock and supper will be served any time after 7 or 8 o'clock. Several musical numbers, vocal and instrumental, will be given informally throughout the evening by Misses Moseley and Garner, Master Payne Breazeale, and Mrs. Richardson of Marshall, Tex., a visitor here, whose musical reputation as a Boston Conservatory pupil and artist, preceded her arrival and has made every body anxious to hear her. So be sure to attend to-morrow night and enjoy a double feast.
We will offer special bargains from now until Xmas holidays are on and invite your attention to our stock before purchasing. It will pay you. Williams, Weaver & O'Quin.
Some of the snowballs made themselves very disagreeable; a little fun was alright but it was carried too far, and when the balls were made very hard they were dangerous missiles and cut the faces of many passersby. Then it was very dangerous sport to attack any one on horseback; one horse ran away with its rider on Saturday after the gentleman had been severely cut in the face by a well aimed ball and it so incensed him that he was sorely tempted, (and justly so) to buy a cowhide and punish the jokers. We hope that the event of an open snow that those who wish to enjoy it will confine their fun to their own crowd and not molest every passerby, so that he may be seriously in the end, as "he laughs best who laughs last."
Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the 3rd store of R. Shoemaker, Perry, Ills, says: "A man came into our store the other day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the News about it. The children may get when we can not get the doctor, sick enough. It's the medicine you sell for cramp.' He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by Janin & Suddath, Druggists.
Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. For sale by Janin & Suddath, Druggists.
Court has been in session all the week and a number of "non-jury" cases have been disposed of, misdemeanors, breaking labor contracts, etc. Several important cases have been arranged for to-day, to-morrow and Saturday, and the courthouse and its environs present an unusually lively scene.
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Janin & Suddath, Druggists.
Judicious advertisers use the column of The Enterprise. It pays them.
