Brister-Trichel.

A telegram to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Trichel announced the marriage of their daughter Miss Thelma to Mr. Robert Brister in Chillicothe Missouri on Tuesday morning.

The fair bride was attending a business college in that city where she met the young man who is from San Antonio Texas and while her parents approved of the engagement they were not aware that such an early marriage was contemplated and so the announcement was a great surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Brister will make their home in Greenville, Mo., where the groom has a fine position.

SEMMELMANS

Bermuda.

The Enterprise of last week was Newsy—Especially so as to its editorial and our friend U. P. B.'s letter commenting upon J. Y. and his speech recently delivered in the Capital City. J. Y.'s friends here are numerous, and they were glad to get the direct news of his meeting, and that too, written in manner well worth reading and agitating.—Come again, Up.

Recently some few members of the K. C. of this place joined the Grand Knight and party of your city on a trip to the Queen City of north La.

At the time your reporter made an attempt to obtain an interview but alas!

However, we have received a belated post card from some friend in Shreveport, which states:

"From the window Ursin looked to see
The landscapes rushing by;
It came along, he picked it up,
He caught it with his eye.

Wrathfully jerking in his head,
To die for the stinging cinder—
We dare not print the words he said
When his hat flew out the window.

Now we have hopes that the information given in the above stanza is as false as the concluding rhyme.

We are satisfied that our Post Master—even the Grand Knight or any member of the K. C.'s wouldn't utter a word that couldn't appear in print. (?)
