Mr. Louis Tessier.

After a long illness, Mr. Louis Tessier died on Thursday night and the remains were interred in the family burial plot on Friday evening in the presence of a large concourse of people.

The deceased was a member of one of our oldest families and had many friends who held him in high esteem.

He leaves two daughters, two grandchildren, one sister and many other relatives to mourn his loss.

Birthday Celebration.

The pretty lawn at the S. J.
Henry home was the scene of a happy event Friday afternoon when the small grandson of the family, Master Sam Henry Hicks celebrated his first birthday. The tiny boys and girls, little cousins and neighbors who were guests romped on the grass, and played with the toys arranged for their amusement, enjoying every minute of their stay. The crowning event of the occasion, of course, was the cutting of the birthday cake, with its tiny taper; the flower decked table held orange juice, ice cream, wafers, cakes and candy, all dear to childish hearts, and several of our Sam's older friends assisted in serving the small guests. Many coys and souvenirs of the occasion were presented the little honoree, not the least being sincere wishes for a long and happy life.

There will be a sacred concert at the Methodist Church on Sunday night participated in by the best talent in town.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend and enjoy a very good program that will start promptly at 8 p. m.

Mr. H. A. Cook has the distinction of having been the first to get direct communication over long distance from Natchitoches to New York city which was made within a few minutes after the call was sent in and important business disposed of with dispatch as the connection was good and in the 15 minutes talk, much was accomplished that would have taken two weeks or more if Uncle Sam's services had been used.

Miss Edith Porter entertained the Cinderellas and a number of other guests most delightfully on Monday afternoon, when roses and daisies were used for decorations.
After busily plying their needles for some time, each one in turn was called upon to give a piece of advice to the bride-elect Miss Imogene Scarborough who was having her last meeting with the Club on the eve of her marriage, and if all the admonitions given by the experienced and inexperienced be followed the honeymoon will continue ad libitum and life will be one sweet song.

A delicious fruit salad with saltines and refreshing sherbert was served by the hostess assisted by Misses Anna Bell, Seessel Bae-zeale and Ada Carver.

Shasta daisies and sweet peas were used in profusion in the parlors and hall of Mrs. Alice DeBlieux pretty home on Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained the Round Table Club most delightfully. Mrs. Watson won the handsome first prize, Mrs.
Crain the second and Mrs. Jeff DeBlieux the booty.

A delicious turkey lunch with salad and ice tea followed by cream and cake, was temptingly served by the charming hostess assisted by her daughters Miss Marie and Mmes. J. C. DeBlieux and McClung to the members and substitutes who were Mmes. Crain of Shreveport, Johnson of Jennings, Parker of Monroe and Miss Pierson of Tallulah, while Mmes.
Grey of New Orleans and Bourgeois of Edgard joined the carriers at tea.

Hagood-Scarborough.

A very beautiful and imposing marriage was solemnized at the Baptist Church last night (Wednesday) when Miss Imogene Scarborough plighted her troth to Rev. Edwin White Hagood of Greensboro, Alabama.

The nuptial concert that was of a high order, was enjoyed by the large crowd and was as follows:

Mavis—Vocal solo, Mr. Scriven Sweet.

Ave Marie—Violin solo, Mr.
Will Phillips.

Because—Vocal solo, Miss Seessel Breazeale—Violin obligato, Mr. Will Phillips.

After which the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin sounded the approach of the bridal party led by the ushers, fair dainty rosebuds, little Misses Margarete Brown, Elle; Aaron, Hannah Aaron and Mary Lou Sanders of Mansfield, gowned in dainty white silk net dresses, with pink sashes and hair ribbons, who opened the aisles tied with broad satin bands of white; then came Miss Marjory Connor of Little Rock in an exquisite gown of Nile green silk net carrying a bunch of pink peonies and as she reached the chancel rail, Mr. George Sutton joined her.

Miss Ada Carver in a beautiful gown of pink silk net, carrying pink peonies followed, then dainty little Zama Blanchard with a hugh basket of pink sweet peas and last the bride on the arm of her father and the groom and his best man Mr. Levin McCook awaiting them under an arch of smilax and daisies at the altar, where Rev. James Hagood of Alabama, oldest brother of the groom, performed the simple but beautiful ceremony. To the strains of Mendlesohn's wedding March, the newly married pair led the recessional in reversed order to the doors of the church, and the reception that followed at the home, was attended by the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

The table in the dining room was a mass of water lilies and daisies with the beautiful bride's cake crowned with valley lilies and tulle holding place of honor and delicious pink and white brick cream and cake were served.

The fair bride who is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C.
Scarborough, one of our bonniest and finest young women, wore a lovely gown of white silk net over silk, her tulle veil held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

It was't long before she had to change the bridal gown for her traveling suit of blue taffeta with rose bud hat, shoes and gloves to match as the happy pair had to drive to Robeline to catch the cannon ball en route to New Orleans from where they went to Alabama where they will visit the family of the groom before settle-ing in their home at Greensboro, Alabama where the groom is the popular young pastor in charge of the Baptist Church of that city.
A beautiful array of silver, cut glass, china, and every conceivable kind of wedding present testified to the popularity of Mr. and Mrs.
Hagood who will begin their new life with as many good wishes, as handsome gifts.

MRS. GABRIEL PRUDHOMME.

Noble Catholic Leader of Campi, Laid to Rest.

After a blessed and useful life, there passed away, at Campi, La., June 7, 1916, Mrs. Emerante Lambre, widow of the late Gabriel Prudhomme, who was one of Louisiana's most esteemed citizens.
Mrs. Prudhomme was the head of an old Southern family especially distinguished in the annals of the State. She was noted for her many beautiful qualities and the noble work which characterized her life. She was in every sense unselfish, kind, charitable and deeply beloved. She was highly educated, having graduated from the famous Nazareth (Ky.) Academy, which has given so many splendid women to the South.
She was a staunch Catholic, untiring in her help for the Church and poor, and had many warm friends among the Priests and Sisters.

In her beautiful girlhood, Miss Lambre became the wife of Mr.
Gabriel Prudhomme. The marriage was an ideal one, and the home founded, was the abode of true Christian charity and love.
Children came to bless the happy couple, and especially was this blessing felt when, in old age, affliction had its heavy hand upon her. Then, most of all, they sought to soothe and cheer the declining years of their beloved mother. Their devotion was beautiful to witness.

For the last fourteen years, Mrs.
Prudhomme was completely paralyzed and had to be cared for like a little infant, but she bore her suffering with Christian resignation and fortitude. For the last three years she was deprived of speech. She was tenderly cared for during all this period of trial by her loving daughters, and the close of her life was serene and happy—like the close of a beautiful day.

Her funeral was held at the church at Natchitoches and was conducted by her pastor, Rev.
Father Plutz. An eloquent sermon was preached by her former pastor, Rev. Father Judermann, of Marksville, La., a warm friend of the family. Father Juder-mann spoke of the beautiful virtues which had filled the life of this noble Catholic mother, for whom death had no sting and the grave no victory. The funeral was also attended by Rev. Father Bertel, of Shreveport and Father Piegray, of Natchitoches, also friends of the family.

Mrs. Prudhomme leaves one son, L. W. Prudhomme, and four daughters, Mrs. J. F. Sompayrac, Mrs. Frank Gallaspay, Miss Mary Emerante Prudhomme and Miss Cecile Prudhomme, and many grandchildren and other relatives.
She will be sadly missed by all these loving, devoted ones, who clung around her, even in her deep suffering and affliction, like the ivy to the castle walls. Miss Cecile Prudhomme is the special correspondent of The Morning Star at Campi. To this dear confere, mourning the loss of such a noble, beloved mother, and to all the bereaved family, The Morning Star extends its deepest sympathy in this hour of sorrow and tears.

Notice.

The second week of petit jury beginning June 12th, 1916, having been discharged, all parties summoned to appear that week are hereby notified not to report.
Respectfully,
D. J. HYAMS, Clerk.

A Bank Account Always Scores Highest and is the Most Effective Ammunition
When You Aim at Business Success

This is not a mere figure of speech, but a statement of actual fact. Who ever heard of a business establishment attaining any great success without dependable banking conditions?

Some of the Largest Firms in the Country owe their position of power in the business world to-day to the financial assistance rendered to them in their earlier days by their banks, and without which their wonderful growth would never have been made possible.
A conservatively managed and yet exceptionally fair minded Loan Department which is in a position to comply with all reasonable requests that are in keeping with sound banking principles is at the service of depositors of this bank.
